Subject: Request for Rulemaking Hearing
Proposed Amendments to 6 CCR 1010-21, Colorado Wholesale Food, Industrial Hemp and Shellfish Regulations for the rulemaking hearing to occur in November 2023

The Division of Environmental Health and Sustainability (“division”) is proposing revisions to 6 CCR 1010-21, Colorado Wholesale Food, Industrial Hemp and Shellfish Regulations, and is requesting that the Board of Health adopt the revised regulation at its November 15, 2023, Board of Health meeting.

In compliance with the State Administrative Procedure Act, Section 24-4-103.3, C.R.S., the Colorado Department of Public Health and Environment (“department”) is proposing amendments to 6 CCR 1010-21, Colorado Wholesale Food, Industrial Hemp and Shellfish Regulations. Proposed revisions remove all requirements associated with hemp products and revise the name of the regulation to the Colorado Wholesale Food and Shellfish Regulations. 6 CCR 1010-21 was last amended by the Board of Health in February 2021.

Senate bill SB22-205 established a task force to study intoxicating hemp products and make recommendations for legislative and rule changes. Senate bill SB23-271 codified the work of the task force and made significant changes and additions to the requirements placed on hemp products in Colorado. These proposed revisions address the changes codified in SB23-271 and remove all requirements associated with hemp products from 6 CCR 1010-21, Colorado Wholesale Food, Industrial Hemp and Shellfish Regulations. Those requirements will be addressed with a new regulation dedicated entirely to hemp products.

The revisions proposed with this rulemaking maintain wholesale food regulations that ensure that all locations in Colorado where foods are manufactured, packed, processed, prepared, treated, packaged, transported, or held for distribution are done in accordance with the “Pure Food and Drug Law”, Section 25-5-401 et seq., C.R.S. and the “Shellfish Dealer Certification Act,” Section 25-4-1801 et seq., C.R.S.

Electronic copies of 21 CFR 100-190, the NSSP Shellfish Ordinance, the “Pure Food and Drug Law”, and the “Shellfish Dealer Certification Act,” are available for review on the division website and at the Colorado Legal Resources provided by LexisNexis:

Also, federal regulation currently incorporated by reference and applicable law is posted and available for review using the following website:

- 21 C.F.R. 100-190 - https://www.ecfr.gov/cgi-bin/text-idx?SID=2029b930ffb25f468e235e6ec9a86dea&mc=true&tpl=/ecfrbrowse/Title21/21tab\_02.tpl

The proposed rule maintains all current regulations and requirements for wholesale food manufacturers and shellfish dealers with no changes. The removal of all requirements associated with hemp products from the regulation will simplify implementation for the department and remove confusion for the regulated community. The proposed continuation of incorporation by reference of the applicable portions of 21 CFR 100-190 and the NSSP Shellfish Ordinance into state regulation maintains public health protections while also providing alignment with current and nationally accepted federal standards for wholesale food manufacturers and wholesale food manufacturers who are also shellfish dealers; allowing Colorado's food manufacturers to participate in interstate commerce associated with wholesale food and shellfish; and maintaining the efficiency and effectiveness of the rulemaking process. The division has engaged stakeholders and has achieved consensus with respect to the proposed rule.

The division appreciates the Board's consideration.

STATEMENT OF BASIS AND PURPOSE AND SPECIFIC STATUTORY AUTHORITY for Amendments to
6 CCR 1010-21, *Colorado Wholesale Food and Shellfish Regulations

Basis and Purpose.

Revisions to Colorado Wholesale Food, Industrial Hemp and Shellfish Regulations, 6 CCR 1010-21 remove all requirements associated with regulated hemp facilities in Colorado from the regulation and continue the regulation's applicability to wholesale food manufacturers, storage facilities, and shellfish operations.

Senate Bill SB22-205 established a task force to study intoxicating hemp products previously regulated under 6 CCR 1010-21 and make recommendations for legislative and rule changes. SB23-271 codified the changes from the task force and made significant changes and additions to the requirements placed on hemp products in Colorado. Regulation of hemp products has evolved to the point that a dedicated, stand-alone regulation is required for those products, which are quite different than those typically regulated under wholesale food manufacturing and shellfish regulations. A new rule, specific to hemp products, is being simultaneously promulgated to provide clarity and ease of implementation for both the hemp and wholesale food industries. 6 CCR 1010-21 was last amended by the Board of Health in February 2021.

Revisions to Colorado Wholesale Food, Industrial Hemp and Shellfish Regulations, 6 CCR 1010-21 continue to incorporate by reference the current 21 CFR 100-111, 113-170, and 172-190 (April 1, 2017), and U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Public Health Service/Food and Drug Administration, National Shellfish Sanitation Program Guide for the Control of Molluscan Shellfish Model Ordinance [(2015 Revision, "NSSP Shellfish Ordinance")].

21 CFR 117 establishes the base requirements that all manufacturers must follow in order ensure the safe production of food. The federal rules provide additional clarity of requirements based on the types of foods being manufactured (e.g., acidified foods, bottled water, and juice) in the other parts of 21 CFR 100 through 190, beyond part 117. The department proposes to incorporate the entirety of 21 CFR 100-190, except parts 112 and 171. This ensures Colorado and facilities operating in Colorado are in alignment with current federal industry standards.

Part 112 and 171 are not incorporated because:

- 21 CFR 112 - Standards for the Growing, Harvesting, Packing, and Holding of Produce for Human Consumption: 21 CFR 112 is implemented by the Colorado Department of Agriculture (CDA) through a cooperative agreement with FDA. CDA has full responsibility, authority, and accountability for the implementation of 21 CFR 112; and
- 21 CFR 171 - Food Additive Petitions: 21 CFR 171 regulates wholesale food producers who create food additives (i.e., preservatives) and seek FDA approval. Though the department is authorized, pursuant to Section 25-5-413, C.R.S., to promulgate rules related to food additives when public health or other considerations so require, the department has not been presented with circumstances that demonstrate a need for rules that elaborate upon statute. The statute is in alignment with the federal framework; thus, not incorporating this part of the federal regulations does not adversely impact wholesale food manufacturers or interstate commerce.

Wholesale food manufacturers in Colorado who are also shellfish dealers have also been required to comply with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Public Health Service/Food and Drug Administration, National Shellfish Sanitation Program Guide for the Control of Molluscan Shellfish Model Ordinance (2015 Revision, NSSP Shellfish Ordinance) since the Colorado Shellfish Dealer Certification Act was enacted in 1997. Inclusion of the shellfish dealer certification requirements provides clarity and ease of use for these facilities.

Due to the interstate nature of commerce for wholesale food from manufacturers and shellfish dealers, Colorado's businesses are currently subject to the federal wholesale food and shellfish dealer requirements proposed for continued incorporation. The incorporation by reference of 21 CFR 100-190 (except for 112 and 171) and the NSSP Shellfish Ordinance continue public health protections while:

- providing alignment with current and nationally accepted federal standards for wholesale food manufacturers and wholesale food manufacturers who are also shellfish dealers;
- assuring that Colorado wholesale food manufacturers are permitted to ship their products in interstate commerce; and
- maintaining the efficiency and effectiveness of the rulemaking process and Department services.

In select instances where incorporated terminology is defined in both federal regulation and Colorado statute, the term shall have the meaning contained in the "Pure Food and Drug Law," part 4, article 5, title 25, C.R.S. and the "Shellfish Dealer Certification Act," part 18, article 4, title 25, C.R.S. This ensures the incorporation by reference aligns with state statute.

6 CCR 1010-21 continues to include:

- registration requirements for wholesale food manufacturers in accordance with Section 25-5-426, C.R.S.;
- certification requirements for wholesale food manufacturers who are also shellfish dealers in accordance with Section 25-4-1805, C.R.S.;
- embargo and enforcement standards for wholesale food manufacturers and wholesale food manufacturers who are also shellfish dealers pursuant to Sections 25-1.5-102(1)(c), 25-4-1810, 25-5-406, and 25-5-420, C.R.S.; and
- hearing requirements for cease-and-desist orders in conformance with provisions of article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

More than one category may be appropriate for some stakeholders.

2. To the extent practicable, a description of the probable quantitative and qualitative impact of the proposed rule, economic or otherwise, upon affected classes of persons.

At this time, there are no known or foreseen impacts or increases in cost to Colorado wholesale food manufacturers, storage facilities or wholesale food manufacturers who are also shellfish dealers. All Colorado wholesale food manufacturers, storage facilities and shellfish dealers are currently required to comply with the regulation as proposed.

Economic outcomes

Summarize the financial costs and benefits, include a description of costs that must be incurred, costs that may be incurred, any Department measures taken to reduce or eliminate these costs, any financial benefits.

X Advances CDPHE Division-level strategic priorities.

The division Workplan, within CDPHE’s Strategic Plan, identifies “Easily accessible and digestible information” as Priority #3. Separation of the hemp product regulations from the wholesale food manufacturer, storage facility and shellfish dealer regulations supports this priority.

The costs and benefits of the proposed rule will not be incurred if inaction was chosen. Costs and benefits of inaction not previously discussed include: NA

5. A determination of whether there are less costly methods or less intrusive methods for achieving the purpose of the proposed rule.

Rulemaking is proposed when it is the least costly method or the only statutorily allowable method for achieving the purpose of the statute. The revisions proposed in this rulemaking were developed in conjunction with stakeholders. The benefits, risks and costs of these revisions were compared to the costs and benefits of other options. The proposed revisions provide the most benefit for the least amount of cost, are the minimum necessary, or are the most feasible manner to achieve compliance with statute.

Maintaining the incorporation by reference and application of 21 C.F.R. 100-111, 113-170, and 172-190 (2017) achieves alignment with existing federal wholesale food regulations and continues levels of wholesale food sanitation practices currently in place. No less costly or intrusive method for achieving the purpose of this rule was identified. The department will update the incorporation by reference as needed to remain current.

6. Alternative Rules or Alternatives to Rulemaking Considered and Why Rejected.

No alternate rules or alternatives to the rulemaking were considered. Current regulations incorporate by reference the 2017 base requirements of the federal wholesale food regulations and are necessary in achieving the safe production of food and dietary supplements.

SB23-271 codified significant changes and additions to the requirements placed on hemp products in Colorado, which have been historically regulated under this regulation. Regulation of hemp products has evolved to the point that a dedicated, stand-alone regulation is required for those products and thus the removal of requirements for hemp products from this regulation.

7. To the extent practicable, a quantification of the data used in the analysis; the analysis must take into account both short-term and long-term consequences.

Maintaining the incorporation by reference of current federal wholesale food regulation 21 C.F.R. 100-111, 113-170, and 172-190 (2017) will be a benefit to the department, the regulated community, and the public, both in the short and long-term.

On June 28, 2023, the division initiated stakeholder outreach communications and solicited contributions to proposed revisions. On July 12, 2023, the division held a stakeholder meeting to evaluate the proposed changes to the existing rule and receive additional feedback from stakeholders. Consensus on the proposed regulation, including the continued incorporation by reference of the applicable portion of 21 CFR 100-190 and the NSSP Shellfish Ordinance, was achieved. All documents associated with stakeholder engagement were made available on the department's web site.

Stakeholder Group Notification

The stakeholder group was provided notice of the rulemaking hearing and provided a copy of the proposed rules and the internet location where the amended regulations and associated documents and resources could be viewed. Notice was provided prior to the date the notice of rulemaking was published in the Colorado Register (typically, the 10th of the month following the Request for Rulemaking).

Not applicable. This is a Request for Rulemaking Packet. Notification will occur if the Board of Health sets this matter for rulemaking

Yes.

Summarize Major Factual and Policy Issues Encountered and the Stakeholder Feedback Received. If there is a lack of consensus regarding the proposed rule, please also identify the Department's efforts to address stakeholder feedback or why the Department was unable to accommodate the request.

On July 12, 2023, the division held a stakeholder meeting to evaluate the changes to the existing rule. Since the current Colorado Wholesale Food, Industrial Hemp and Shellfish Regulations are recognized and understood by the involved and effected stakeholders and reflect current federal rules, there were no significant factual or policy issues encountered. Consensus on the regulation, including the continued incorporation by reference of the applicable portion of 21 CFR 100-190 and the NSSP Shellfish Ordinance, was achieved.

Please identify the determinants of health or other health equity and environmental justice considerations, values or outcomes related to this rulemaking.

The incorporation by reference of the applicable portion of 21 CFR 100-190 and the NSSP Shellfish Ordinance will continue to safeguard public health and ensure that all locations in Colorado where foods are manufactured, packed, processed, prepared, treated, packaged, transported, or held for distribution are in accordance with the "Pure Food and Drug Law", Section 25-5-401 et seq., C.R.S. and the "Shellfish Dealer Certification Act," Section 25-4-1801 et seq., C.R.S., regardless of race, color, national origin, or income. The revised regulation will continue to assure uniformity and effectiveness in the implementation of wholesale food standards and promote the full health potential of all Coloradans.
