PUBLIC PARTICIPATION: History Colorado welcomes public participation in the revised rulemaking process. Any person may submit written comments by mail, e-mail, or in person at Office of the State Archaeologist any time prior to the hearing. In addition, any person may participate in the hearing described above and offer oral testimony during the public comment period. History Colorado may place a time limit on public comments during the hearing depending on the number of people who wish to comment. Speakers are asked to be concise and avoid repeating comments made by others or reading previously submitted written statements.

Please include your name, occupation, address, and telephone number when submitting comments. The deadline for written or e-mailed statements or comments to be included in the hearing packet is the end of the business day on Thursday, April 27, 2017.

Persons or groups who know in advance they would like to address History Colorado and the Office of the State Archaeologist in person during the hearing are asked to notify History Colorado via e-mail to todd.mcmahon@state.co.us by the close of business on May 1, 2017 with an estimate of the time needed for comments. This is to ensure adequate time is allocated to the agenda.

CONTACT INFORMATION: To e-mail comments regarding this proposed rulemaking, please attach a file (PDF preferred) to your e-mail and send to todd.mcmahon@state.co.us
