E. Separate Accounts - Records - Accountings - Investigations

E-1. Trust accounts; requirements and purposes

All "money belonging to others" accepted by a resident or non-resident broker doing business in this state shall be deposited in one or more accounts separate from other money belonging to the broker or brokerage entity. The broker shall identify the fiduciary nature of each separate account in the deposit agreement with the recognized bank or institution by the use of the word "trust" or "escrow" and a label identifying the purpose/type of such account, i.e., "sales escrow", "rental escrow", "security deposit escrow", "owners association escrow", or other abbreviated form defined in the deposit agreement. Unless otherwise permitted by other subsections of this rule, all money belonging to others shall be deposited according to the purpose of the transaction in separate types of escrow accounts. The broker shall retain a copy of each account deposit agreement executed for inspection by an authorized representative of the Commission.

(a) Accounts in name of broker and business entity

Such separate trust accounts must be maintained in the name of the licensed broker or if the licensed broker is a partnership, corporation or limited liability company, such account shall be maintained in the name of the broker acting for such partnership, corporation or limited liability company and in the name of the licensed partnership, limited liability company or corporation. The licensed broker must be able to withdraw money from such separate account, but may authorize other licensed or unlicensed cosigners. However, such authorization shall not relieve the broker of any responsibility under the licensing act.

(b) Accounts in name of employing broker only

When a broker is registered in the office of the Real Estate Commission as in the employ of another broker the responsibility for the maintenance of all trust accounts shall be the responsibility of the employing broker.

(c) Escrow funds must be available immediately without penalty

Money belonging to others shall not be invested in any type of account or security or certificate of deposit which has a fixed term for maturity or imposes any fee or penalty for withdrawal prior to maturity unless the written consent of all parties to the transaction has been secured.

(d) Repealed (effective 1-1-96)

(e) Commingling prohibited

A broker's personal funds shall not be commingled with money belonging to others except that an arrangement may be made with a depository to deposit a sufficient amount of the broker's funds to maintain such account. One or more separate escrow or trust bank accounts may be maintained by a broker pursuant to the following duties and limitations:

- (1) Money held in an escrow or trust account which is due and payable to the broker shall be withdrawn promptly.

- (2) An escrow or trust account shall not be used as a depository for money belonging to licensees employed by a broker except pursuant to an executory sales contract, nor shall it be used for money the broker owes their licensees, or for bonuses or investment plans for the benefit of their licensees.
 - (3) Collections for insurance premiums and/or IRS employee's withholding funds shall not be deposited in a separate trust account established pursuant to 12-61-113 (g) and (g.5) C.R.S.
 - (4) Money advanced by a broker for the benefit of another may be placed in the trust account and identified as an advance but may be withdrawn by the broker only on behalf of such person. Any amount advanced to an escrow or trust account must be identified and recorded in the escrow journal, the beneficiary ledger and disclosed in periodic accounting to the beneficiary.
 - (5) Funds of others received by a broker relating to real estate partnerships, joint ventures and syndications in which the broker has an ownership interest and also receives compensation for selling or leasing the property shall be maintained in a trust account separate from any other trust account maintained by such broker.
 - (6) In the absence of a specific written agreement to the contrary, commissions, fees and other charges collected by a broker for performing any service on behalf of another are considered "earned" and available for use by the broker only after all contracted services have been performed and there is no remaining right of recall by others for such money. The broker shall identify and record all commissions, fees, or other charges withdrawn from a trust or escrow account on the account journal and individual ledgers of those against whom the fees or commissions are charged. If a single disbursement of fees or commissions includes more than one transaction, rental period or occupancy or includes withdrawals from the account of more than one trust or escrow account beneficiary, the broker, upon request, shall produce for inspection by an authorized representative of the Real Estate Commission a schedule which details (1) the individual components of all amounts included in the sum of such disbursement and (2) specifically identifies the affected beneficiary or property ledgers. Ledger entries must detail such disbursements in accordance with Rule E-1(p)(2), including the date or time period for each individual transaction, rental or occupancy.
- (f) Money belonging to others defined
- Money belonging to others which is received by the broker includes but is not limited to money received in connection with: property management contracts; partnerships; limited liability companies; syndications; rent or lease contracts; advance fee contracts; guest deposits for short term rentals; escrow contracts; collection contracts; earnest money contracts; or, money belonging to others received by the broker for future investment or other purpose.
- (g) Earnest money on new construction
- If a broker who is also acting as a builder receives deposit money under an executory sales contract which provides for the construction of a house, the deposit money must be placed in a trust account and not used for construction purposes unless the written consent of the purchaser is secured.

- (h) Separate escrow accounts required for managing 7 or more residences

A broker who manages less than seven (7) single-family residential units may deposit rental receipts and security deposits and disburse money collected for such purposes in the "sales escrow" account.

- (i) Repealed (effective 1-1-96)

- (j) Installment land contract

If a conveyance is made by an installment contract for a deed and if such contract contains a provision whereby the broker signs the installment contract as the receiving broker, the broker must escrow the received money pursuant to Rule E-1 until the owner signs acceptance of the contract and a copy of the fully executed contract is delivered to the purchaser.

- (k) Encumbrance before delivery of deed

When a sales contract or an installment contract for the sale of an interest in real estate is signed by the parties to the transaction and the purchaser also executes a promissory note and/or a mortgage or trust deed encumbering such property before the seller delivers the deed, then all payments received by the broker pursuant to such contract shall be deposited in a trust account in a recognized depository until delivery of such deed to the purchaser unless the broker receives specific written consent from all parties concerning disposition of such funds. This rule shall apply whether or not the broker and seller are one and the same.

- (l) Earnest money

Checks received as earnest money under an earnest money contract must be identified as a check in the contract and may be withheld from presentment for payment only if so disclosed in the contract or pursuant to the written instructions of the seller. If a note is received as earnest money under an earnest money contract, the seller must be informed by identifying the note in the contract and by informing the seller of the date such note becomes due by stating the due date in the contract or attaching a copy of the note to the contract. The broker must present the note or check for payment in a timely manner and if payment is not made, the broker shall promptly notify the seller.

- (m) Time limits for deposit of money belonging to others

Except as provided in Rule E-1 (o), all money belonging to others which is received by a broker as a property manager shall be deposited in such broker's escrow or trust account not later than five business days following receipt. All other money belonging to others which is received by a broker shall be deposited in such broker's escrow or trust account not later than the third business day following receipt.

- (n) Listing broker holds escrow funds; delivery to third party

Except as otherwise agreed to in writing, in any real estate transaction in which one broker holds a listing contract on a property and where the selling broker receipts for earnest money under a contract, the selling broker shall deliver the contract and the earnest money to the listing broker who shall deposit the earnest money in the broker's escrow or trustee account in a recognized depository not later than the third business day following the day on which the broker receives notice of acceptance of such contract. If such selling broker receipts for a promissory note, or thing of value, such note or thing of value shall be delivered with the contract to the listing broker to be held by the listing broker. Any check or note shall be payable to, or assigned to, the listing broker.

- (1) The broker receipting for the earnest money deposit, if instructed in writing by the parties to the contract, shall deliver the earnest money to a third party or entity so identified in writing. If the broker is instructed in writing by the parties to the contract to deliver an earnest money deposit to such third party or entity, the broker shall retain in the office transaction file a copy of the earnest money check, note or other thing of value, including any endorsement, and obtain a dated and signed receipt from the person or entity to whom the broker has been instructed to deliver the deposit.

- (o) Recordkeeping requirements

A broker shall supervise and maintain, at the broker's licensed place of business, a record keeping system, subject to subsection (7) of this rule, consisting of at least the following elements for each required escrow or trust account:

- (1) A record called an "escrow or trust account journal" or an equivalent accounting system which records in chronological sequence all money belonging to others which is received or disbursed by the broker. For funds received, the records maintained in the system must include the date of receipt and deposit, the name of the person who is giving the money, the name of the person and property for which the money was received, the purpose of the receipt, the amount, and a resulting cash balance for the account. For funds disbursed, the records maintained in the system must include the date of payment, the check number, the name of the payee, a reference to vendor documentation or other physical records verifying purpose for payment, the amount paid, and a resulting cash balance for the account.
- (2) A record collectively called a "ledger" or an equivalent component of an accounting system which records in chronological sequence all money which is received or disbursed by the broker on behalf of each particular beneficiary of a trust account. This record must show the monetary transactions affecting each individual beneficiary and must segregate such transactions from those pertaining to other beneficiaries of the trust account. The ledger record for each beneficiary must contain the same transactional information as is prescribed in subsection (1). No ledger may ever be allowed to have a negative cash balance and the sum of all ledger balances must at all times agree with the corresponding cash balance in the journal after each transaction has been posted.

- (3) A written monthly record called the "bank reconciliation worksheet" which proves agreement, on the date of reconciliation, between (1) the cash balance shown in the account journal; (2) the sum of the cash balances for all ledgers; and (3) the corresponding bank account balance. This worksheet must be maintained in hard copy form for later inspection and list each beneficiary's ledger balance on the date of reconciliation. The broker is not required to reconcile any trust account when no money belonging to others has been received or no banking activity has occurred.
 - (4) When managing property, if summary totals are reported to others, the broker must maintain supporting records which accurately detail all cash received and disbursed under the terms of the management and rental agreements. Such summary totals must be reconcilable to detailed supporting records. Any accounting report furnished to others must be prepared and delivered according to the terms of the management agreement or, in the absence of a provision in the written management agreement to the contrary, within thirty (30) days after the end of the month in which funds were either received or disbursed.
 - (5) If a broker has on deposit personal funds sufficient to maintain the trust account pursuant to Rule E-1(f), an entry showing such money shall be made in the journal and on a "broker's ledger record" per subsections (1) and (2). Such money shall be included in the bank reconciliation worksheet.
 - (6) All deposits of funds into an escrow or trust account must be documented (i.e. , bank deposits) including confirmation of electronic and telephonic transfers or on detailed schedules attached to the deposit slips or confirmations. The documentation must identify each person tendering funds to the broker for deposit, the amount of funds tendered, types of funds received from each person, and the property address, affected. All disbursements of funds from an escrow or trust account must be supported by source documents such as bids, invoices, contracts, etc. that identify the payees, property addresses affected and amount of funds transferred for each property. Real estate licensees shall produce for inspection by an authorized representative of the real estate commission any cancelled checks (or front and back copies) or hardcopy confirmations of electronic or telephonic transfers as may be reasonably necessary to complete audits or investigations.
 - (7) In the absence of a written agreement to the contrary, the "cash basis" of accounting shall be used for maintaining all required escrow or trust accounts and records. If the "accrual basis" of accounting is requested by the beneficiary of funds entrusted to a broker, such request must be in writing and the broker shall maintain separate accrual basis accounts and sets of records for each person or entity affected; such accounts and records shall be separate from other accounts and records maintained on the cash basis.
 - (8) Pursuant to C.R.S. 12-61-113(l)(c.5),(q) and 6-1-105, the broker must obtain prior written consent to assess and receive mark-ups and/or other compensation for services performed by any third party or affiliated business entity. The broker must retain accurate on-going office records which verify disclosure and consent, and which fully account for the amounts or percentage of compensation assessed or received.
- (p) Diversion/Conversion prohibited

Money belonging to one beneficiary of a separate trust or escrow account shall not be used for the benefit of another beneficiary of a trust, or escrow account.

(q) Items in lieu of cash

Any instrument or equity or thing of value taken in lieu of cash shall be held by the broker except as otherwise agreed.

(r) Branch office trust accounts require branch office recordkeeping

In the event a branch office maintains a trust account, separate from the trust account(s) maintained by the main office, a separate record keeping system must be maintained in the branch office.

(s) Repealed (effective 1-1-96)

(t) Number of separate accounts may vary from zero to unlimited

A broker is not limited as to the number of separate accounts which may be maintained for money belonging to others and if the broker is not in possession of money belonging to others, there is no obligation to maintain a separate account.

E-2. When money is collected by a broker for the performance of specific services or for the expenses of performing such services, or for any other expense including but not limited to advertising expenses in regard to the sale or management of real property, or a business opportunity, and such money is collected before the advertising or other services have been performed, the broker shall deposit such money in an escrow or trust account pursuant to 12-61-113(1)(g.5) C.R.S. No money may be withdrawn from such person's funds, except for actual authorized expenses paid to perform the service, or on behalf of that person, until the broker has fully performed the services agreed upon. A full and itemized accounting must be furnished the person within 30 days of any withdrawal of funds from the escrow or trust account. Nothing in this section shall prohibit a licensee from taking a non-refundable retainer which need not be deposited into an escrow or trust account provided this is specifically agreed to in writing between the licensee and the person paying the retainer.

E-3. A real estate licensee shall produce for inspection by an authorized representative of the Real Estate Commission any document or record as may be reasonably necessary for investigation or audit in the enforcement of Title 12 Article 61 and in enforcement of the rules and regulations of the Real Estate Commission. Failure to submit such documents or records within the time set by the Commission in its notification shall be grounds for disciplinary action unless the Commission has granted an extension of time for such production. However, a broker who is also acting as a manager for an owners association shall turn all association management records and supporting documentation over to the association at the end of the broker's term of management. Such records are the property of the owners association and if the broker wishes to maintain copies for the broker's own files these must be made at the broker's expense.

E-4 Document Preparation and Duplicates

Contracting instruments for all real estate or business opportunity transactions in which a real estate broker participates, including agency and sales contracts, shall accurately reflect the financial terms of the transaction by itemizing things of value paid or received and identifying the party or parties conveying, receiving and/or ultimately benefitting from such things of value. All such terms made subsequent to the original contracting document shall be disclosed in an amending instrument. For the purpose of this rule, the term "things of value" shall include monetary considerations as well as the exchange of tangible, non-monetary assets.

A real estate broker shall immediately deliver a duplicate of the original of any instrument (except deeds, notes and trust deeds or mortgages, prepared by and for the benefit of third party lenders) to all parties executing the same when such instrument has been prepared by the broker or the broker's employed licensee or closing entity and relates to the employment or engagement of the broker or pertains to the consummation of the leasing, purchase, sale or exchange of real property in which the broker may participate as a broker. For purposes of this rule, duplicate shall mean legible photocopy, carbon copy, facsimile, or electronic copies which contain a digital or electronic signature as defined in 24-71-101(1) C.R.S. Such broker shall retain a copy of the duplicate instruments for future use or inspection by an authorized representative of the Real Estate Commission. If a broker or the broker's agent prepares a mortgage or trust deed for the benefit of a buyer or seller, an unsigned duplicate of such security instrument, together with a copy of the note, unsigned or prominently marked "copy," shall be furnished to the purchaser; copies shall also be retained in such broker's office for further use or inspection by an authorized representative of the Real Estate Commission. Cooperating brokers, including brokers acting as agents for buyers in a specific real estate transaction, shall have the same requirements for retention of copies as stated above, except that a cooperating broker who is not a party to the listing contract need not retain a copy of the listing contract or the seller's settlement statement. Pursuant to Rule E-3, a broker is not required to obtain and retain copies of existing public records, title commitments, loan applications, lender required disclosures or related affirmations from independent third party closing entities after the settlement date.

- E-5. Pursuant to 12-61-113(1)(h), at time of closing, the individual licensee who has established a brokerage relationship with the buyer or seller or who works with the buyer or seller as a customer, either personally or on behalf of an employing broker, shall be responsible for the proper closing of the transaction and shall provide, sign and be responsible for an accurate, complete and detailed closing statement as it applies to the party with whom the brokerage relationship has been established. If signed by an employed licensee, closing statements shall be delivered to the employing broker immediately following closing. Nothing in this rule shall relieve an employing broker of the responsibility for fulfilling supervisory responsibilities pursuant to 12-61-103 (6)(c), 12-61-113(1)(o), 12-61-118 C.R.S and Rules E-31 and E-32.
- (a) Subject to Rule E-4, an employing or independent broker with whom a brokerage relationship has been established, either personally or through an employed licensee, shall retain a copy of all closing statements approved by the respective buyers or sellers for future use or for inspection by an authorized representative of the Real Estate Commission.
 - (b) The closing statement or statements of all real estate or business opportunity transactions in which a real estate broker participates shall show the date of closing, the total purchase price of the property, itemization of all adjustments, money, or things of value received or paid showing to whom each item is credited and/or to whom each item is debited, the dates of the adjustments shall be shown if not the same as the date of the closing, also shown shall be the balances due from the respective parties to the transaction, and the names of the payees, makers and assignees, of all notes paid or made or assumed; the statements furnished to each party to the transaction shall contain an itemization of such credits and such debits as pertain to each respective party. THE CREDITS AND DEBITS CONCERNING THE SALE OF A PREOWNED HOME WARRANTY SERVICE CONTRACT SHALL BE DISCLOSED ON THE CLOSING STATEMENTS.
 - (c) Closing statements shall be provided to the respective parties at the time of the delivery and acceptance of the title whether such delivery and acceptance be effected by bill of sale, deed or by an installment contract to give a deed at a future date.

- (d) If closing documents and statements are prepared by, and the closing is conducted by, an employing broker's company such broker is primarily responsible for the accuracy and completeness of the settlement statements and documents.
- (e) If a licensee with whom a brokerage relationship has been established is unable to attend a closing or review closing documents, another licensee may agree or be designated by an employing broker to review and sign a closing statement and will assume joint responsibility with the absent licensee for its accuracy, completeness and delivery.
- (f) A broker may transfer funds pertinent to a real estate transaction from a trust or escrow account to a lawyer or a closing entity acting on behalf of the broker at or before closing or final settlement. The broker will not be relieved of responsibilities in regard thereto. The broker delivering the earnest money deposit to a lawyer or a closing entity providing settlement services shall obtain a dated and signed receipt from the person or entity providing settlement services and retain a copy of the receipt in the office transaction file. The settlement statements prepared by the lawyer or closing entity shall bear the names of the licensee who signs the statement and the employing broker if applicable.

E-6. Electronic Records

Records as required under Title 12, Article 61, Parts 1-8 C.R.S. and rules promulgated by the Commission, may be maintained in electronic format. An electronic record as defined in 24-71.7-103 C.R.S. means a record generated, communicated, received, or stored by electronic means. Such electronic records shall be produced upon request by the Commission and must be in a format that has the continued capability to be retrieved and legibly printed. Upon request of the Commission, or by any principal party to a transaction, printed records shall be produced.

E-7. Repealed (Effective February 1, 2001)

E-8. Advertising

- (a) Names
 - 1. Pursuant to C.R.S. §12-61-103(10), no broker shall be licensed to conduct real estate brokerage services under more than one brokerage firm, and no broker or brokerage firm shall conduct or promote a real estate brokerage business except in the name under which that broker or brokerage firm is licensed. However, a brokerage firm may use a trade name in addition to or instead of the brokerage firm's legal name with the permission of the owner of such trade name. The trade name must be filed with the Commission.
 - 2. No broker shall advertise so as to mislead the public concerning the identity of the broker or the broker's brokerage firm.
 - 3. All advertising must be done clearly and conspicuously in the name of the broker's brokerage firm.  - 4. A brokerage firm may use a trademark in conjunction with the brokerage firm's legal name or trade name with permission of the owner of such trademark.

Upon written request, this legend may be modified with consent of the Commission.

6. No brokerage firm shall use more than one trade name, however upon written request and with the consent of the Commission, a brokerage firm may use more than one trademark. Use of the trademark(s) is only acceptable if the brokerage firm has obtained permission of the registrant of such trademark.
7. No broker or brokerage firm will use a professional designation in advertising unless the broker or brokerage firm is in good standing and the designation is easily verifiable by the public and the Commission. A broker or brokerage firm that advertises an award, membership or achievement must be able to provide verification of the validity of such claims.

(b) Teams

1. Brokers who form a team shall not advertise in a manner that misleads the public as to the identity of the team’s brokerage firm. Teams are prohibited from using the following terms in the team’s name:
 - (i) Realty,
 - (ii) Real estate,
 - (iii) Realtors,
 - (iv) Company,
 - (v) Corporation,

3. If requested by a consumer, the Commission, another brokerage firm or a broker, the brokerage firm will provide the names of the brokers that belong to any team advertising as being licensed with the brokerage firm.

4. Brokers may not allow the use of the team name to other brokers outside the team's brokerage firm.

(c) Internet

1. The broker is responsible for ensuring that all advertising is accurate and complies with copyright laws.
2. When a broker owns a website or controls its content, every viewable page must include the broker's name, or if applicable the team name, and the broker's brokerage firm name. Any expired listings must be removed from the broker's website within three days of the listing expiring.
3. If a broker authorizes a third party to advertise on behalf of the broker, the broker is responsible for ensuring that the information provided to such third party is accurate. The broker must submit a written request to the third party to have an expired listing removed from the website within three days of the listing expiring.
4. A broker, who communicates through email, chat, instant messages, newsgroups, discussion lists, bulletin boards, blogs or other similar means for purposes of advertising the broker's real estate brokerage services must use the broker's name, or if applicable the team name, and the name of the broker's brokerage firm. However, once a broker has disclosed the broker's name and the broker's brokerage firm to a specific client or customer, the broker is not required to continue to make the same disclosure to the specific client or customer.
5. When it is not reasonable for a broker to disclose the broker's name, or if applicable the team name, and brokerage firm name in electronic advertising because space is limited (i.e. Twitter, Facebook, Youtube, banner advertisements, etc.), the broker will disclose clearly and conspicuously on the broker's webpage to which the advertising links, within the first click of the mouse.

E-9. Repealed effective 1-1-97

E-10. A broker license is non transferable. No licensee shall, and no broker shall permit, employed licensees to present or to hold themselves out to the public as an employing or independent real estate broker.

E-11. When a licensee secures a written agreement to perform activities requiring a license, a definite date for termination shall be included therein.

E-12. When a written agreement contains a provision entitling the broker to a commission on a sale or purchase made after the expiration of the agreement, such provision must refer only to those persons or properties with whom or on which the broker negotiated during the term of the agreement, and whose names or addresses were submitted in writing to the seller or buyer during the term of the agreement, including any extension thereof.

E-13. A real estate licensee shall not negotiate a sale, exchange, lease or listing contract of real property directly with an owner for compensation from such owner if such licensee knows that such owner has a written unexpired contract in connection with such property which grants to another licensee an exclusive right to sell or lease or which grants an exclusive agency right to sell or lease.

However, when a licensee is contacted by an owner regarding the sale, exchange, lease or listing of property that is exclusively listed with another broker, and the licensee has not initiated the discussion, the licensee may negotiate the terms upon which to take a future listing or, alternatively, may take a listing to become effective upon expiration of any existing exclusive listing.

Additionally, a real estate licensee shall not negotiate a purchase, exchange, lease or exclusive right to buy contract with a buyer if such licensee knows that such buyer has a written, unexpired contract which grants to another licensee an exclusive right to buy.

However, when a licensee is contacted by a buyer regarding the purchase, exchange or lease of property, and the licensee has not initiated the discussion, the licensee may enter into or negotiate the terms upon which to enter into a future exclusive right to buy contract to become effective upon expiration of any existing exclusive right to buy contract.

E-14. A real estate licensee shall recommend, before the closing of a real estate transaction, the examination of title and shall advise the use of legal counsel.

E-15. When for any reason the owner fails, refuses, neglects or is unable to consummate the transaction as provided for in the contract, and through no fault or neglect of the purchaser the real estate transaction cannot be completed, the broker has no right to any portion of the deposit money which was deposited by the purchaser, even though the commission is earned, and such deposit should be returned to the purchaser at once and the broker should look to the owner for compensation.

E-16. A broker receipting for security deposits shall not deliver such deposits to an owner without the tenant's written authorization in a lease or unless written notice has been given to the tenant by first class mail. Such notice must be given in a manner so that the tenant will know who is holding the security deposit and the specific requirements for the procedure in which the tenant may request return of the deposit. If a security deposit is delivered to an owner, the management agreement must place financial responsibility on the owner for its return, and in the event of a dispute over ownership of the deposit, must authorize disclosure by the broker to the tenant of the owner's true name and current mailing address. The broker shall not contract with the tenant to use the security deposit for the broker's own benefit.

E-17. Repealed (Effective June 30, 2004)

E-18. Fees from Mortgage Lenders Require Prior Written Approval

A licensee shall not accept, directly or indirectly, a placement fee, commission or other valuable consideration for placing a loan with a mortgage lender or its representative in any real estate transaction in which the licensee, directly or indirectly, received, or is entitled to receive a commission as a result of the sale of property in such transaction unless the licensee fully informs any party with whom they have established a brokerage relationship, or worked with as a customer, and obtains prior written consent of such party. All licensees must comply with the RESPA statute and regulations regarding receipt of referral fees. To the extent Rule E-18 on referral fees differs from that of RESPA, licensees should comply with RESPA to avoid jeopardizing their standing with respect to federally related loan programs and are advised to contact the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau for further clarification.

E-19. A licensee shall not accept a commission, fee, or other valuable consideration from an abstract or title insurance company or its representative in any real estate transaction in which the licensee, directly or indirectly, receives, or is entitled to receive, a real estate commission as a result of the sale of property in such transaction. E-21. When a licensee has received written notification from the Commission that a complaint has been filed against the licensee, the licensee has been selected for an audit, or that an audit has identified record keeping or trust account deficiencies, such licensee shall submit a written answer to the Commission. Failure to submit a written answer within the time set by the Commission in its notification shall be grounds for disciplinary action unless the Commission has granted an extension of time for the answer in writing and regardless of the question of whether the underlying complaint warrants further investigation or subsequent action by the Commission. The licensee's written answer shall contain the following:

- (2) available for immediate withdrawal as a consequence of an agreement of a financial institution in which the funds are to be deposited or a financial institution upon which the funds are to be drawn. Such agreement with a financial institution must be for the benefit of the licensee providing the closing service. If the agreement contains contingencies or reservations no disbursements can be made until these are satisfied. (Statement of Basis and Purpose as adopted by the Real Estate Commission on October 5, 1988.)

A licensee shall not be responsible for fees charged for the preparation of legal documents where they are prepared by an attorney representing the purchaser or seller. Costs of closing not related to preparation of legal documents may be paid by the licensee or by any other person. Pursuant to CRS 12-61-802(1.5), an employing broker or employed broker must be designated in writing by the employing broker to serve as a single agent or transaction-broker for the seller or buyer. A broker may adopt any policy suitable to the broker's business, subject to the following:

- a. An office policy shall apply to all licensees in the office;
- b. An office policy shall be given and explained to each licensee and shall be read, agreed to and signed by each licensee;

An office policy shall, in a manner compliant with Commission Rule E-38, identify the procedures for the designation of brokers who are to work with a seller, landlord, buyer or tenant pursuant to 12-61-803(6), C.R.S., except office policies of real estate brokerage firms that consist of only one licensed natural person.
- d. An office policy shall identify and provide adequate means and procedures for the maintenance and protection of confidential information that:
- (1) The seller or landlord is willing to accept less;
 - (2) The buyer or tenant is willing to pay more;
 - (3) Information regarding motivating factors for the parties;
 - (4) Information that a party will agree to other financing terms;
 - (5) Material information about a party not required by law to be disclosed;

- e. An office policy may permit an employing broker to supervise a transaction and to participate in the same transaction as a designated broker.
- E-40. A broker shall not enter into a brokerage relationship with one party as an agent and the other party as a transaction broker. A broker who works with both the buyer and seller in the same real estate transaction may do so as (1) a Transaction-Broker for both buyer and seller (2) a single agent for the seller, treating the buyer as a customer or (3) a single agent for the buyer, treating the seller as a customer. These options shall be disclosed and made a part of the agreement between the parties to the listing contract, right to buy contract or tenant contract, whichever is appropriate.
- E-41. Change of status disclosure in writing
- A broker working with both the buyer and seller in the same real estate transaction who changes from working as a party's agent to assisting the parties as a Transaction-Broker shall either: check the box for "Transaction- Broker" and the box " This is a Change of Status" in the Commission-approved form, Contract to Buy and Sell Real Estate, if applicable, or provide the written "Change of Status (Transaction-Brokerage Disclosure)" to the party that has the changed relationship (seller and buyer) with the broker, at the time the broker begins to assist as a Transaction-Broker, but not later than at the time the party signs the contract. For purposes of this rule, seller shall include landlord, and buyer shall include tenant.
- E-42. Notice Required on CMA's or BPOS for Other Than Marketing
- When a real estate broker prepares a competitive market analysis (CMA) or a broker's price opinion (BPO) for any reason other than the anticipated sale or purchase of the property, the licensee must include a notice stating: "This evaluation was prepared by a licensed real estate broker and is not an appraisal. This evaluation cannot be used for the purposes of obtaining financing." Pursuant to 12-61-702(5)(b)(II), C.R.S, brokers are prohibited from completing CMA's or BPOS that are used for the purpose of obtaining financing.

E-43. Square Footage Disclosure

This rule applies to transactions involving the sale and purchase of residences, new or existing. It requires the listing licensee to disclose the square footage of the floor space of the living area of the residence to the buyer and seller when a licensee disseminates such information, including submission to a multiple listing service. If the licensee personally measures or provides information from another source of measurement of the residence's square footage the licensee shall use the Commission approved form for such disclosure. The licensee listing the property is responsible for accurately representing any source of square footage.

- (a) Licensee measurement. A licensee is not required to measure the square footage of a property. If the licensee takes an actual measurement it does not have to be exact, however, the licensee's objective must be to measure accurately and calculate competently in a manner that is not misleading, and:
 - i. The standard, methodology or manner in which the measurement was taken must be accurately disclosed to the buyer and seller;
 - ii. The buyer and seller must be advised that the measurement is for purposes of marketing and is not a measurement for loan, valuation or any other purpose; and
 - iii. The buyer and seller must be advised that if exact square footage is a concern, the property should be independently measured.
- (b) Other sources of square footage. If a buyer or seller is provided information from another source for square footage, that source (whether an actual measurement, building plans, prior appraisals, assessors office, etc.) shall include the date of issuance if any and must be disclosed to the buyer and seller in writing by the licensee, in a timely manner. Such disclosure must be on the Commission approved form and must advise the recipient to verify the information. A licensee may not provide information to a person from a source known to be unreliable and is responsible for indicating obvious mismeasurement by others.
- (c) A licensee working with a buyer must advise that if exact square footage is a concern, the property should be independently measured. This requirement is fulfilled by the licensee supplying such buyer a copy of the Commission approved form for disclosing square footage.

 - b. The licensed brokerage must designate a qualified, active broker, who is approved by the Commission, to be responsible for the management and supervision of the licensed actions of the brokerage and all licensees shown in the Commission's records as being in the employ of the brokerage. Pursuant to 12-61-103(7)(c), C.R.S., the brokerage may also seek a temporary license to prevent hardship.
 - c. If the brokerage is unable to designate a qualified, active broker or is not granted a temporary license, the license of the brokerage will be placed on inactive status and all activities requiring a real estate broker's license must immediately cease.
 - d. An inactive brokerage will have seven (7) days to notify all owners, buyers and tenants of the impact the license status change will have on the employed licensees and all pending transactions.
