If the appellant objects to the continuance, the continuance shall remain in place, but the continuance of the appeal shall not exceed one hundred eighty (180) calendar days without the appellant having the opportunity to seek a review of the continuance by an administrative law judge. The pendency of other court proceedings shall be considered good cause to extend the continuance of the appeal past the one hundred eighty (180) day timeframe.
- H. The following circumstances shall be considered to be admissions to the factual basis of the substantiated finding(s) of the responsibility for the mistreatment of an at-risk adult in CAPS and shall be considered conclusive evidence of the factual basis of the individual's responsibility for the mistreatment to support a motion for summary judgment submitted to the Office of Administrative Courts:

The one hundred twenty (120) day time frame may be extended by agreement of both the appellant and the State Department if it is likely that the additional time will result in a fully executed settlement agreement or resolution of the appeal.
  - M. As soon as it is evident within the one hundred twenty (120) days that the appellant and State Department will not resolve the issue(s) on appeal, the State Department shall forward a copy of the appellants original appeal document(s) to the Office of Administrative Courts to initiate the Office of Administrative Courts fair hearing process.
  - N. If, by the end of the one hundred twenty (120) day period, the State Department has been unable to contact the appellant using the information submitted by the appellant, including by first class mail, and the appellant has not contacted the State Department, the appeal shall be deemed abandoned. The substantiated finding entered into CAPS by the county department shall be upheld in CAPS without further right of appeal.
