APPENDIX A

Your Rights and Protections Against Surprise Medical Bills

When you get emergency care or get treated by an out-of-network provider at an in-network hospital or ambulatory surgical center, you are protected from surprise billing or balance billing.

What is "balance billing" (sometimes called "surprise billing")?

When you see a doctor or other health care provider, you may owe certain out-of-pocket costs, like a copayment, coinsurance, or deductible. You may have additional costs or have to pay the entire bill if you see a provider or visit a health care facility that isn't in your health plan's network.

"Out-of-network" means providers and facilities that haven't signed a contract with your health plan to provide services. Out-of-network providers may be allowed to bill you for the difference between what your plan pays and the full amount charged for a service. This is called "balance billing." This amount is likely more than in-network costs for the same service and might not count toward your plan's deductible or annual out-of-pocket limit.

"Surprise billing" is an unexpected balance bill. This can happen when you can't control who is involved in your care—like when you have an emergency or when you schedule a visit at an in-network facility but are unexpectedly treated by an out-of-network provider. Surprise medical bills could cost thousands of dollars depending on the procedure or service.

You're protected from balance billing for:

Emergency services

If you have an emergency medical condition and get emergency services from an out-of-network provider or facility, the most they can bill you is your plan's in-network cost-sharing amount (such as copayments, coinsurance, and deductibles). You can't be balance billed for these emergency services. This includes services you may get after you're in stable condition, unless you give written consent and give up your protections not to be balanced billed for these post-stabilization services.

If you believe you've been wrongly billed by a healthcare provider, please contact the Colorado Office of Occupational Therapy at 303-894-7800 or dora_occupationaltherapists@state.co.us.

Visit the CMS No Surprises Act website (https://www.cms.gov/nosurprises/consumers) for more information about your rights under federal law.

Review section 12-30-112, C.R.S., for more information about your rights under Colorado state law.
Certain services at an in-network hospital or ambulatory surgical center

When you get services from an in-network hospital or ambulatory surgical center, certain providers there may be out-of-network. In these cases, the most those providers can bill you is your plan's in-network cost-sharing amount. This applies to emergency medicine, anesthesia, pathology, radiology, laboratory, neonatology, assistant surgeon, hospitalist, or intensivist services. These providers can't balance bill you and may not ask you to give up your protections not to be balance billed.

If you get other types of services at these in-network facilities, out-of-network providers can't balance bill you, unless you give written consent and give up your protections.

You're never required to give up your protections from balance billing. You also aren't required to get out-of-network care. You can choose a provider or facility in your plan's network.

When balance billing isn't allowed, you also have these protections:

- You're only responsible for paying your share of the cost (like the copayments, coinsurance, and deductible that you would pay if the provider or facility was in-network). Your health plan will pay any additional costs to out-of-network providers and facilities directly.
- Generally, your health plan must:
    - Cover emergency services without requiring you to get approval for services in advance (also known as "prior authorization").
    - Cover emergency services by out-of-network providers.

- Base what you owe the provider or facility (cost-sharing) on what it would pay an in-network provider or facility and show that amount in your explanation of benefits.

- Count any amount you pay for emergency services or out-of-network services toward your in-network deductible and out-of-pocket limit.

If you believe you've been wrongly billed by a healthcare provider, please contact the Colorado Office of Occupational Therapy at 303-894-7800 or dora_occupationaltherapists@state.co.us. The federal phone number for information and complaints is: 1-800-985-3059.

5. Complete a training program accredited by the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education, or its successor entity, pursuant to the protocol (in compliance with Board Rule 17.00.50 b.2.)

6. Pharmacists must also follow all board rules for statewide protocols in section 17.00.00.

If services are provided in a pharmacy, the pharmacy shall ensure that appropriate space is available to provide counseling and ensure confidentiality.

Records:

A. Pursuant to Pharmacy Board Rule 17.00.50, a process shall be in place for the pharmacist to communicate with the patient’s primary care provider and document changes to the patient’s medical record. If the patient does not have a primary care provider or is unable to provide contact information for his or her primary care provider, the pharmacist shall provide the patient with a written record of the drugs or devices furnished, and laboratory test(s) ordered, and any test results.

B. Pharmacists shall comply with all aspects of Pharmacy Board Rules 17.01.00 and 17.02.00 with respect to the maintenance of proper records.

C. Statin Therapy Protocol

Under this protocol, pharmacists may assess patients with or at high-risk for a CV event who are not currently on but in whom statin therapy is identified as a Class I recommendation according to AHA/ACC guidelines[1].

Eligibility Criteria: The pharmacist may consider and prescribe the patient statin therapy listed in Table I according to the following criteria:

1. High-risk primary prevention

    a. 10-Year Atherosclerotic Cardiovascular Disease (ASCVD) Risk ≥20% using the American College of Cardiology risk calculator (found at http://tools.acc.org/ASCVD-Risk-Estimator-Plus/#!/calculate/estimate/) age 40-75; or

    b. LDL ≥190 mg/dL tested using a fasting lipid panel, age 20-75

2. Primary prevention patients with diabetes mellitus

    a. Type 2 diabetes mellitus (DM) age 40-75 as determined by patient report, medical records, or prescription history.

3. Secondary prevention

    a. Prior history of acute myocardial infarction, acute coronary syndrome, stable or unstable angina, coronary or arterial revascularization by coronary artery bypass graft (CABG) surgery and /or stenting, non-cardioembolic ischemic stroke, transient ischemic attack, aortic aneurysm, or peripheral artery disease all stemming from atherosclerotic origins, as confirmed by patient report, medical records, or prescription history.

Ineligibility Criteria: Patients who should NOT be prescribed statin therapy under this protocol and should be referred to primary care provider for further action:

1. Patients who have a history of serious statin-associated side effects defined as a serum creatine kinase elevation >3 times the upper limit of normal, documented rhabdomyolysis from statin therapy, or hepatic transaminase elevations 3 times the upper limit of normal during prior treatment with statin therapy.

2. Patients who have active liver disease defined by medical history or by hepatic transaminases greater than 3 times the upper limit of normal.

3. Women who are pregnant or are of childbearing age and not using highly effective forms of contraception.

4. Patients with end stage renal disease (ESRD) or who are undergoing hemodialysis or peritoneal dialysis.

5. Patients with severe hypertriglyceridemia (fasting triglycerides ≥ 1000 mg/dL).

TABLE 1 – MEDICATION OPTIONS

Other FDA approved and guideline recommended medications or regimens can be used if they become available.

Formulations cautions and dose adjustments for statin medications shall minimally follow the AHA/ACC guidelines and package insert information for all regimens.

Pharmacist must screen for potential statin drug/drug interactions with patient's other known medications. If interactions are identified, appropriate selection of a safe statin regimen and counseling should be performed to mitigate risk.

Patient Category	Medication and Dosage	Renal Adjustment	Frequency
High risk primary prevention*	Atorvastatin 40-80 mg	No adjustment needed	Once daily
or secondary prevention	Rosuvastatin 20-40 mg	CrCl < 30 ml/min/1.73m2: 5-10 mg or consider atorvastatin 40-80mg	Once daily
Primary prevention patients with DM and not "high Risk"	Atorvastatin 10-20 mg	No adjustment needed	Once daily
	Fluvastatin 40 mg	No adjustment needed	Twice daily
	Fluvastatin XL 80 mg	No adjustment needed	Once daily
	Lovastatin 4080 mg	CrCl <30 ml/min: 20 mg max dose	Once daily in evening
	Pitavastatin 14 mg	GFR 15-59 ml/min/1.73m^2: 1-2 mg	Once daily
	Pravastatin 4080 mg	Severe impairment: 10 mg	Once daily in the evening
	Rosuvastatin 5-10 mg	No adjustment needed	Once daily
	Simvastatin 20-40 mg	Severe impairment: start at 5 mg (titrate as needed up to 20mg daily)	Once daily in the evening

 High risk primary prevention patients include: baseline LDL-C ≥190 mg/dL, diabetes age 4075 years with LDL-C < 190 mg/dL and multiple ASCVD risk factors, or age 40-75 with LDL-C

70-189 mg/dL and 10-year ASCVD risk ≥20%.

TABLE 2 – ROUTINE REQUIRED MONITORING OF TREATMENT

Labs:

Test	Frequency	Guideline recommendations	Notes
Fasting Lipid Panel (FLP)	Every 3-12 months	Get FLP at baseline and then 4-12 weeks after therapy initiation, then every 3-12 months as needed to assess adherence and improvement	Guidelines allow for non-fasting lipid panels for baseline LDL-C but recommend fasting lipid panels for follow-up monitoring. Point of care (POC) testing acceptable. Baseline labs from PCP can be accepted if within 3 months of statin initiation.
ALT / LFTs	Baseline required -Ordered by pharmacist or accepted documentation from PCP within 3 months of statin initiation	Routine monitoring not needed.	Patients presenting with signs or symptoms suspicious of liver disease should be referred for medical evaluation
Renal function	Baseline and yearly	Not in guidelines	Yearly monitoring is recommended to determine if dose adjustment is necessary (as for all medications). This will be ordered by pharmacists, or communicated to patient for ordering and follow up by primary care provider.

Counseling (at minimum):

- The importance of medication adherence with relation to efficacy of statin therapy and reduction in CV event risk, and what to do if patient misses a dose.
- Importance of therapeutic lifestyle changes in reducing lipids and CV risk.
- Proper use of medication, storage, dosage, schedule, and potential common and serious side effects (and how to mitigate).
- Signs/symptoms of myalgia and liver dysfunction, educate that side effects are not common
- Potential food and medication interactions (primarily with lovastatin and simvastatin)

- The necessity of follow up care with a primary care provider for usual care and lipid testing at least yearly.

Documentation:

- The pharmacist will notify the patient's primary care provider of a record of all medications prescribed. If a patient does not have a primary care provider, the pharmacist will provide the patient with a list of providers and clinics for which they may seek ongoing care.

- The pharmacist will also follow all documentation rules in Rule 17.

Referrals to primary care provider:

- Prior history of statin use with noted severe intolerance. Pharmacist encouraged to work collaboratively with PCP on options.

- On therapy, if patient experiences moderate to severe statin associated muscle symptoms that do not resolve with stopping medication

- On therapy, if patient experiences symptoms consistent with muscle weakness or rhabdomyolysis (dark brown urine with severe muscle symptoms) – patient should stop statin and be referred.

- On therapy, if the patient develops symptoms suggestive of liver disease (severe abdominal pain, yellow-colored eyes or skin) – patient should stop statin and be referred.

- On therapy if patient becomes pregnant – patient should stop statin and be referred.

- Suboptimal response to maximum tolerated statin therapy – patient continues statin and referred for further workup.

APPENDIX F

Your Rights and Protections Against Surprise Medical Bills

When you get emergency care or get treated by an out-of-network provider at an in-network hospital or ambulatory surgical center, you are protected from surprise billing or balance billing.

What is "balance billing" (sometimes called "surprise billing")?

When you see a doctor or other health care provider, you may owe certain out-of-pocket costs, like a copayment, coinsurance, or deductible. You may have additional costs or have to pay the entire bill if you see a provider or visit a health care facility that isn't in your health plan's network.

"Out-of-network" means providers and facilities that haven't signed a contract with your health plan to provide services. Out-of-network providers may be allowed to bill you for the difference between what your plan pays and the full amount charged for a service. This is called "balance billing." This amount is likely more than in-network costs for the same service and might not count toward your plan's deductible or annual out-of-pocket limit.

"Surprise billing" is an unexpected balance bill. This can happen when you can't control who is involved in your care—like when you have an emergency or when you schedule a visit at an in-network facility but are unexpectedly treated by an out-of-network provider. Surprise medical bills could cost thousands of dollars depending on the procedure or service.

You're protected from balance billing for:

Emergency services

If you have an emergency medical condition and get emergency services from an out-of-network provider or facility, the most they can bill you is your plan's in-network cost-sharing amount (such as copayments, coinsurance, and deductibles). You can't be balance billed for these emergency services. This includes services you may get after you're in stable condition, unless you give written consent and give up your protections not to be balanced billed for these post-stabilization services.

If you believe you've been wrongly billed by a healthcare provider, please contact the State Board of Pharmacy at 303-894-7800 or dora_pharmacyboard@state.co.us.

Visit the CMS No Surprises Act website (https://www.cms.gov/nosurprises/consumers) for more information about your rights under federal law.

Review section 12-30-112, C.R.S., for more information about your rights under Colorado state law.

Certain services at an in-network hospital or ambulatory surgical center

When you get services from an in-network hospital or ambulatory surgical center, certain providers there may be out-of-network. In these cases, the most those providers can bill you is your plan's in-network cost-sharing amount. This applies to emergency medicine, anesthesia, pathology, radiology, laboratory, neonatology, assistant surgeon, hospitalist, or intensivist services. These providers can't balance bill you and may not ask you to give up your protections not to be balance billed.

If you get other types of services at these in-network facilities, out-of-network providers can't balance bill you, unless you give written consent and give up your protections. You're never required to give up your protections from balance billing.

You also aren't required to get out-of-network care. You can choose a provider or facility in your plan's network.

When balance billing isn't allowed, you also have these protections:

- You're only responsible for paying your share of the cost (like the copayments, coinsurance, and deductible that you would pay if the provider or facility was in-network). Your health plan will pay any additional costs to out-of-network providers and facilities directly.

- Generally, your health plan must:

    O Cover emergency services without requiring you to get approval for services in advance (also known as "prior authorization").

    O Cover emergency services by out-of-network providers.

    O Base what you owe the provider or facility (cost-sharing) on what it would pay an in network provider or facility and show that amount in your explanation of benefits.

    O Count any amount you pay for emergency services or out-of-network services toward your in-network deductible and out-of-pocket limit.

If you believe you've been wrongly billed by a healthcare provider, please contact the State Board of Pharmacy at 303-894-7800 or dora_pharmacyboard@state.co.us. The federal phone number for information and complaints is: 1-800-985-3059.

APPENDIX B

Your Rights and Protections Against Surprise Medical Bills

When you get emergency care or get treated by an out-of-network provider at an in-network hospital or ambulatory surgical center, you are protected from surprise billing or balance billing.

What is "balance billing" (sometimes called "surprise billing")?

When you see a doctor or other health care provider, you may owe certain out-of-pocket costs, like a copayment, coinsurance, or deductible. You may have additional costs or have to pay the entire bill if you see a provider or visit a health care facility that isn't in your health plan's network.

"Out-of-network" means providers and facilities that haven't signed a contract with your health plan to provide services. Out-of-network providers may be allowed to bill you for the difference between what your plan pays and the full amount charged for a service. This is called "balance billing." This amount is likely more than in-network costs for the same service and might not count toward your plan's deductible or annual out-of-pocket limit.

"Surprise billing" is an unexpected balance bill. This can happen when you can't control who is involved in your care—like when you have an emergency or when you schedule a visit at an in-network facility but are unexpectedly treated by an out-of-network provider. Surprise medical bills could cost thousands of dollars depending on the procedure or service.

You're protected from balance billing for:

Emergency services

If you have an emergency medical condition and get emergency services from an out-of-network provider or facility, the most they can bill you is your plan's in-network cost-sharing amount (such as copayments, coinsurance, and deductibles). You can't be balance billed for these emergency services. This includes services you may get after you're in stable condition, unless you give written consent and give up your protections not to be balanced billed for these post-stabilization services.

If you believe you've been wrongly billed by a healthcare provider, please contact the State Board of Psychologist Examiners at 303-894-7800 or dora_mentalhealthboard@state.co.us.

Visit the CMS No Surprises Act website (https://www.cms.gov/nosurprises/consumers) for more information about your rights under federal law.

Review section 12-30-112, C.R.S., for more information about your rights under Colorado state law.

Certain services at an in-network hospital or ambulatory surgical center

When you get services from an in-network hospital or ambulatory surgical center, certain providers there may be out-of-network. In these cases, the most those providers can bill you is your plan's in-network cost-sharing amount. This applies to emergency medicine, anesthesia, pathology, radiology, laboratory, neonatology, assistant surgeon, hospitalist, or intensivist services. These providers can't balance bill you and may not ask you to give up your protections not to be balance billed.

If you get other types of services at these in-network facilities, out-of-network providers can't balance bill you, unless you give written consent and give up your protections.

You're never required to give up your protections from balance billing. You also aren't required to get out-of-network care. You can choose a provider or facility in your plan's network.

When balance billing isn't allowed, you also have these protections:

- You're only responsible for paying your share of the cost (like the copayments, coinsurance, and deductible that you would pay if the provider or facility was in-network). Your health plan will pay any additional costs to out-of-network providers and facilities directly.
- Generally, your health plan must:
    - Cover emergency services without requiring you to get approval for services in advance (also known as "prior authorization").
    - Cover emergency services by out-of-network providers.
    - Base what you owe the provider or facility (cost-sharing) on what it would pay an in-network provider or facility and show that amount in your explanation of benefits.
    - Count any amount you pay for emergency services or out-of-network services toward your in-network deductible and out-of-pocket limit.

If you believe you've been wrongly billed by a healthcare provider, please contact the State Board of Psychologist Examiners at 303-894-7800 or dora_mentalhealthboard@state.co.us. The federal phone number for information and complaints is: 1-800-985-3059.

APPENDIX A

Your Rights and Protections Against Surprise Medical Bills

When you get emergency care or get treated by an out-of-network provider at an in-network hospital or ambulatory surgical center, you are protected from surprise billing or balance billing.

What is "balance billing" (sometimes called "surprise billing")?

When you see a doctor or other health care provider, you may owe certain out-of-pocket costs, like a copayment, coinsurance, or deductible. You may have additional costs or have to pay the entire bill if you see a provider or visit a health care facility that isn't in your health plan's network.

"Out-of-network" means providers and facilities that haven't signed a contract with your health plan to provide services. Out-of-network providers may be allowed to bill you for the difference between what your plan pays and the full amount charged for a service. This is called "balance billing." This amount is likely more than in-network costs for the same service and might not count toward your plan's deductible or annual out-of-pocket limit.

"Surprise billing" is an unexpected balance bill. This can happen when you can't control who is involved in your care—like when you have an emergency or when you schedule a visit at an in-network facility but are unexpectedly treated by an out-of-network provider. Surprise medical bills could cost thousands of dollars depending on the procedure or service.

You're protected from balance billing for:

Emergency services

If you have an emergency medical condition and get emergency services from an out-of-network provider or facility, the most they can bill you is your plan's in-network cost-sharing amount (such as copayments, coinsurance, and deductibles). You can't be balance billed for these emergency services. This includes services you may get after you're in stable condition, unless you give written consent and give up your protections not to be balanced billed for these post-stabilization services.

If you believe you've been wrongly billed by a healthcare provider, please contact the Office of Athletic Trainer Licensure at 303-894-7800 or dora_athletictrainers@state.co.us.

Visit the CMS No Surprises Act website (www.cms.gov/nosurprises/consumers) for more information about your rights under federal law. Review section 12-30-112, C.R.S., for more information about your rights under Colorado state law.

Certain services at an in-network hospital or ambulatory surgical center

When you get services from an in-network hospital or ambulatory surgical center, certain providers there may be out-of-network. In these cases, the most those providers can bill you is your plan's in-network cost-sharing amount. This applies to emergency medicine, anesthesia, pathology, radiology, laboratory, neonatology, assistant surgeon, hospitalist, or intensivist services. These providers can't balance bill you and may not ask you to give up your protections not to be balance billed.

If you get other types of services at these in-network facilities, out-of-network providers can't balance bill you, unless you give written consent and give up your protections.

You're never required to give up your protections from balance billing. You also aren't required to get out-of-network care. You can choose a provider or facility in your plan's network.

When balance billing isn't allowed, you also have these protections:

- You're only responsible for paying your share of the cost (like the copayments, coinsurance, and deductible that you would pay if the provider or facility was in-network). Your health plan will pay any additional costs to out-of-network providers and facilities directly.
- Generally, your health plan must:
    - Cover emergency services without requiring you to get approval for services in advance (also known as "prior authorization").
    - Cover emergency services by out-of-network providers.
    - Base what you owe the provider or facility (cost-sharing) on what it would pay an in-network provider or facility and show that amount in your explanation of benefits.
    - Count any amount you pay for emergency services or out-of-network services toward your in-network deductible and out-of-pocket limit.

If you believe you've been wrongly billed by a healthcare provider, please contact the Office of Athletic Trainer Licensure at 303-894-7800 or dora_athletictrainers@state.co.us. Visit the CMS No

Surprises Act website (https://www.cms.gov/nosurprises/consumers) for more information about your rights under federal law. The federal phone number for information and complaints is: 1-800-985-3059.

APPENDIX A

Your Rights and Protections Against Surprise Medical Bills

When you get emergency care or get treated by an out-of-network provider at an in-network hospital or ambulatory surgical center, you are protected from surprise billing or balance billing.

What is "balance billing" (sometimes called "surprise billing")?

When you see a doctor or other health care provider, you may owe certain out-of-pocket costs, like a copayment, coinsurance, or deductible. You may have additional costs or have to pay the entire bill if you see a provider or visit a health care facility that isn't in your health plan's network.

"Out-of-network" means providers and facilities that haven't signed a contract with your health plan to provide services. Out-of-network providers may be allowed to bill you for the difference between what your plan pays and the full amount charged for a service. This is called "balance billing." This amount is likely more than in-network costs for the same service and might not count toward your plan's deductible or annual out-of-pocket limit.

"Surprise billing" is an unexpected balance bill. This can happen when you can't control who is involved in your care—like when you have an emergency or when you schedule a visit at an in-network facility but are unexpectedly treated by an out-of-network provider. Surprise medical bills could cost thousands of dollars depending on the procedure or service.

You're protected from balance billing for:

Emergency services

If you have an emergency medical condition and get emergency services from an out-of-network provider or facility, the most they can bill you is your plan's in-network cost-sharing amount (such as copayments, coinsurance, and deductibles). You can't be balance billed for these emergency services. This includes services you may get after you're in stable condition, unless you give written consent and give up your protections not to be balanced billed for these post-stabilization services.

If you believe you've been wrongly billed by a healthcare provider, please contact the Colorado Office of Acupuncture Licensure at 303-894-2988 or dora_acupunctureboard@state.co.us.

Visit the CMS No Surprises Act website (https://www.cms.gov/nosurprises/consumers) for more information about your rights under federal law.

Visit section 12-30-112, C.R.S., for more information about your rights under Colorado state law.

Certain services at an in-network hospital or ambulatory surgical center

When you get services from an in-network hospital or ambulatory surgical center, certain providers there may be out-of-network. In these cases, the most those providers can bill you is your plan's in-network cost-sharing amount. This applies to emergency medicine, anesthesia, pathology, radiology, laboratory, neonatology, assistant surgeon, hospitalist, or intensivist services. These providers can't balance bill you and may not ask you to give up your protections not to be balance billed.

If you get other types of services at these in-network facilities, out-of-network providers can't balance bill you, unless you give written consent and give up your protections.

You're never required to give up your protections from balance billing. You also aren't required to get out-of-network care. You can choose a provider or facility in your plan's network.

When balance billing isn't allowed, you also have these protections:

- You're only responsible for paying your share of the cost (like the copayments, coinsurance, and deductible that you would pay if the provider or facility was in-network). Your health plan will pay any additional costs to out-of-network providers and facilities directly.
- Generally, your health plan must:
    - Cover emergency services without requiring you to get approval for services in advance (also known as "prior authorization").
    - Cover emergency services by out-of-network providers.
    - Base what you owe the provider or facility (cost-sharing) on what it would pay an in-network provider or facility and show that amount in your explanation of benefits.
    - Count any amount you pay for emergency services or out-of-network services toward your in-network deductible and out-of-pocket limit.

If you believe you've been wrongly billed by a healthcare provider, please contact the Colorado Office of Acupuncture Licensure at 303-894-2988 or dora_acupunctureboard@state.co.us. The federal phone number for information and complaints is: 1-800-985-3059.

APPENDIX A

Your Rights and Protections Against Surprise Medical Bills

When you get emergency care or get treated by an out-of-network provider at an in-network hospital or ambulatory surgical center, you are protected from surprise billing or balance billing.

What is "balance billing" (sometimes called "surprise billing")?

When you see a doctor or other health care provider, you may owe certain out-of-pocket costs, like a copayment, coinsurance, or deductible. You may have additional costs or have to pay the entire bill if you see a provider or visit a health care facility that isn't in your health plan's network.

"Out-of-network" means providers and facilities that haven't signed a contract with your health plan to provide services. Out-of-network providers may be allowed to bill you for the difference between what your plan pays and the full amount charged for a service. This is called "balance billing." This amount is likely more than in-network costs for the same service and might not count toward your plan's deductible or annual out-of-pocket limit.

"Surprise billing" is an unexpected balance bill. This can happen when you can't control who is involved in your care—like when you have an emergency or when you schedule a visit at an in-network facility but are unexpectedly treated by an out-of-network provider. Surprise medical bills could cost thousands of dollars depending on the procedure or service.

You're protected from balance billing for:

Emergency services

If you have an emergency medical condition and get emergency services from an out-of-network provider or facility, the most they can bill you is your plan's in-network cost-sharing amount (such as copayments, coinsurance, and deductibles). You can't be balance billed for these emergency services. This includes services you may get after you're in stable condition, unless you give written consent and give up your protections not to be balanced billed for these post-stabilization services.

If you believe you've been wrongly billed by a healthcare provider, please contact the Colorado Office of Respiratory Therapy Licensure at 303-894-7800 or dora_respiratoryboard@state.co.us.

Visit the CMS No Surprises Act website (https://www.cms.gov/nosurprises/consumers) for more information about your rights under federal law.

Review section 12-30-112, C.R.S., for more information about your rights under Colorado state law.

Certain services at an in-network hospital or ambulatory surgical center

When you get services from an in-network hospital or ambulatory surgical center, certain providers there may be out-of-network. In these cases, the most those providers can bill you is your plan's in-network cost-sharing amount. This applies to emergency medicine, anesthesia, pathology, radiology, laboratory, neonatology, assistant surgeon, hospitalist, or intensivist services. These providers can't balance bill you and may not ask you to give up your protections not to be balance billed.

If you get other types of services at these in-network facilities, out-of-network providers can't balance bill you, unless you give written consent and give up your protections.

You're never required to give up your protections from balance billing. You also aren't required to get out-of-network care. You can choose a provider or facility in your plan's network.

When balance billing isn't allowed, you also have these protections:

- You're only responsible for paying your share of the cost (like the copayments, coinsurance, and deductible that you would pay if the provider or facility was in-network). Your health plan will pay any additional costs to out-of-network providers and facilities directly.
- Generally, your health plan must:
    - Cover emergency services without requiring you to get approval for services in advance (also known as "prior authorization").
    - Cover emergency services by out-of-network providers.
    - Base what you owe the provider or facility (cost-sharing) on what it would pay an in-network provider or facility and show that amount in your explanation of benefits.
    - Count any amount you pay for emergency services or out-of-network services toward your in-network deductible and out-of-pocket limit.

If you believe you've been wrongly billed by a healthcare provider, please contact the Colorado Office of Respiratory Therapy Licensure at 303-894-7800 or dora_respiratoryboard@state.co.us. The federal phone number for information and complaints is: 1-800-985-3059.

APPENDIX A

Your Rights and Protections Against Surprise Medical Bills

When you get emergency care or get treated by an out-of-network provider at an in-network hospital or ambulatory surgical center, you are protected from surprise billing or balance billing.

What is "balance billing" (sometimes called "surprise billing")?

When you see a doctor or other health care provider, you may owe certain out-of-pocket costs, like a copayment, coinsurance, or deductible. You may have additional costs or have to pay the entire bill if you see a provider or visit a health care facility that isn't in your health plan's network.

"Out-of-network" means providers and facilities that haven't signed a contract with your health plan to provide services. Out-of-network providers may be allowed to bill you for the difference between what your plan pays and the full amount charged for a service. This is called "balance billing." This amount is likely more than in-network costs for the same service and might not count toward your plan's deductible or annual out-of-pocket limit.

"Surprise billing" is an unexpected balance bill. This can happen when you can't control who is involved in your care—like when you have an emergency or when you schedule a visit at an in-network facility but are unexpectedly treated by an out-of-network provider. Surprise medical bills could cost thousands of dollars depending on the procedure or service.

You're protected from balance billing for:

Emergency services

If you have an emergency medical condition and get emergency services from an out-of-network provider or facility, the most they can bill you is your plan's in-network cost-sharing amount (such as copayments, coinsurance, and deductibles). You can't be balance billed for these emergency services. This includes services you may get after you're in stable condition, unless you give written consent and give up your protections not to be balanced billed for these post-stabilization services.

If you believe you've been wrongly billed by a healthcare provider, please contact the Colorado Office of Surgical Assistant and Surgical Technologist Registration at 303-894-7800 or dora_surgassist_surgtech@state.co.us.

Visit the CMS No Surprises Act website (https://www.cms.gov/nosurprises/consumers) for more information about your rights under federal law.

Review section 12-30-112, C.R.S., for more information about your rights under Colorado state law.
Certain services at an in-network hospital or ambulatory surgical center

When you get services from an in-network hospital or ambulatory surgical center, certain providers there may be out-of-network. In these cases, the most those providers can bill you is your plan's in-network cost-sharing amount. This applies to emergency medicine, anesthesia, pathology, radiology, laboratory, neonatology, assistant surgeon, hospitalist, or intensivist services. These providers can't balance bill you and may not ask you to give up your protections not to be balance billed.

If you get other types of services at these in-network facilities, out-of-network providers can't balance bill you, unless you give written consent and give up your protections.

You're never required to give up your protections from balance billing. You also aren't required to get out-of-network care. You can choose a provider or facility in your plan's network.

When balance billing isn't allowed, you also have these protections:

- You're only responsible for paying your share of the cost (like the copayments, coinsurance, and deductible that you would pay if the provider or facility was in-network). Your health plan will pay any additional costs to out-of-network providers and facilities directly.
- Generally, your health plan must:
    - Cover emergency services without requiring you to get approval for services in advance (also known as "prior authorization").
    - Cover emergency services by out-of-network providers.
    - Base what you owe the provider or facility (cost-sharing) on what it would pay an in-network provider or facility and show that amount in your explanation of benefits.

- Count any amount you pay for emergency services or out-of-network services toward your in-network deductible and out-of-pocket limit.

If you believe you've been wrongly billed by a healthcare provider, please contact the Colorado Office of Surgical Assistant and Surgical Technologist Registration at 303-894-7800 or dora_surgassist_surgtech@state.co.us. The federal phone number for information and complaints is: 1-800-985-3059.

Your Rights and Protections Against Surprise Medical Bills

When you get emergency care or get treated by an out-of-network provider at an in-network hospital or ambulatory surgical center, you are protected from surprise billing or balance billing.

What is "balance billing" (sometimes called "surprise billing")?

When you see a doctor or other health care provider, you may owe certain out-of-pocket costs, like a copayment, coinsurance, or deductible. You may have additional costs or have to pay the entire bill if you see a provider or visit a health care facility that isn't in your health plan's network.

"Out-of-network" means providers and facilities that haven't signed a contract with your health plan to provide services. Out-of-network providers may be allowed to bill you for the difference between what your plan pays and the full amount charged for a service. This is called "balance billing." This amount is likely more than in-network costs for the same service and might not count toward your plan's deductible or annual out-of-pocket limit.

"Surprise billing" is an unexpected balance bill. This can happen when you can't control who is involved in your care—like when you have an emergency or when you schedule a visit at an in-network facility but are unexpectedly treated by an out-of-network provider. Surprise medical bills could cost thousands of dollars depending on the procedure or service.

You're protected from balance billing for:

Emergency services

If you have an emergency medical condition and get emergency services from an out-of-network provider or facility, the most they can bill you is your plan's in-network cost-sharing amount (such as copayments, coinsurance, and deductibles). You can't be balance billed for these emergency services. This includes services you may get after you're in stable condition, unless you give written consent and give up your protections not to be balanced billed for these post-stabilization services.

If you believe you've been wrongly billed by a healthcare provider, please contact the Colorado Office of Speech-Language Pathology Certification at 303-894-7800 or dora_speechlanguagepathology@state.co.us.

Certain services at an in-network hospital or ambulatory surgical center

When you get services from an in-network hospital or ambulatory surgical center, certain providers there may be out-of-network. In these cases, the most those providers can bill you is your plan's in-network cost-sharing amount. This applies to emergency medicine, anesthesia, pathology, radiology, laboratory, neonatology, assistant surgeon, hospitalist, or intensivist services. These providers can't balance bill you and may not ask you to give up your protections not to be balance billed.

If you get other types of services at these in-network facilities, out-of-network providers can't balance bill you, unless you give written consent and give up your protections.

You're never required to give up your protections from balance billing. You also aren't required to get out-of-network care. You can choose a provider or facility in your plan's network.

When balance billing isn't allowed, you also have these protections:

- You're only responsible for paying your share of the cost (like the copayments, coinsurance, and deductible that you would pay if the provider or facility was in-network). Your health plan will pay any additional costs to out-of-network providers and facilities directly.
- Generally, your health plan must:
    - Cover emergency services without requiring you to get approval for services in advance (also known as "prior authorization").
    - Cover emergency services by out-of-network providers.
    - Base what you owe the provider or facility (cost-sharing) on what it would pay an in-network provider or facility and show that amount in your explanation of benefits.
    - Count any amount you pay for emergency services or out-of-network services toward your in-network deductible and out-of-pocket limit.

If you believe you've been wrongly billed by a healthcare provider, please contact the Colorado Office of Speech-Language Pathology Certification at 303-894-7800 or dora_speechlanguagepathology@state.co.us. The federal phone number for information and complaints is: 1-800-985-3059.

APPENDIX C

Your Rights and Protections Against Surprise Medical Bills

When you get emergency care or get treated by an out-of-network provider at an in-network hospital or ambulatory surgical center, you are protected from surprise billing or balance billing.

What is "balance billing" (sometimes called "surprise billing")?

When you see a doctor or other health care provider, you may owe certain out-of-pocket costs, like a copayment, coinsurance, or deductible. You may have additional costs or have to pay the entire bill if you see a provider or visit a health care facility that isn't in your health plan's network.

Out-of-network providers may be allowed to bill you for the difference between what your plan pays and the full amount charged for a service. This is called "balance billing." This amount is likely more than in-network costs for the same service and might not count toward your plan's deductible or annual out-of-pocket limit.

"Surprise billing" is an unexpected balance bill. This can happen when you can't control who is involved in your care—like when you have an emergency or when you schedule a visit at an in-network facility but are unexpectedly treated by an out-of-network provider. Surprise medical bills could cost thousands of dollars depending on the procedure or service.

You're protected from balance billing for:

REGULATION NO. 101 - WATER QUALITY CIVIL PENALTY INFLATION ADJUSTMENT REGULATION

5 CCR 1002-101

[Editor's Notes follow the text of the rules at the end of this CCR Document.]

101.1 AUTHORITY

These regulations are promulgated pursuant to the Colorado Water Quality Control Act, sections 25-8-101 through 25-8-803, C.R.S. In particular, they are promulgated under sections 25-8-202 and 25-8-608(1), C.R.S.

101.2 PURPOSE

The purpose of these regulations is to annually adjust the amount of the maximum civil penalty applied to violations of the Colorado Water Quality Control Act, based on the percentage change in the United States Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Price Index for Denver-Aurora-Lakewood for All Items and All Urban Consumer, or its successor index.

101.3 REGULATIONS

A. Beginning on January 1, 2023, the maximum civil penalty identified in 25-8-608(1), C.R.S., for a person who violates the Water Quality Control Act, a permit issued under the Act, a control regulation promulgated pursuant to the Act, or a final cease-and-desist order or clean-up order shall be not more than $XX,XXX per day per violation.

101.4 DEFINITIONS

The following definitions are applicable within the intent of these regulations:

A. "Colorado Water Quality Control Act" or "Act" means the Colorado Water Quality Control Act as from time to time amended, section 25-8-101, C.R.S., 1973, et seq.

B. "Commission" means the water quality control commission created by section 25-8-201, C.R.S.

C. "Division" means the Colorado Department of Public Health and Environment, Water Quality Control Division.

D. "Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, association, state or political subdivision thereof, federal agency, state agency, municipality, commission, or interstate body.

101.5 – 101.9 RESERVED

101.11 STATEMENT OF BASIS, SPECIFIC STATUTORY AUTHORITY, AND PURPOSE, ADOPTED OCTOBER 10, 2022: EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 2023

The provisions of Colorado Revised Statute Sections 25-8-608(1) provides the specific statutory authority for the Water Quality Civil Penalty Inflation Adjustment Regulation adopted by the Commission. The Commission has also adopted, in compliance with Colorado Revised Statute Section 24-4-103(4) C.R.S., the following Statement of Basis and Purpose.

BASIS AND PURPOSE

Section 25-8-608(1), C.R.S., directs that "the commission shall, by rule, annually adjust the amount of the maximum civil penalty based on the percentage change in the United States Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Price Index for Denver-Aurora-Lakewood for All Items and All Urban Consumers, or its successor index." This revision to the regulation implements this statutory direction and provides for the new annually adjusted maximum civil penalty identified in 25-8-608(1) C.R.S., effective January 1, 2023.

The commission applied the first adjustment to the maximum civil penalty on January 1, 2022, which was based on the change between the July 2020 Consumer Price Index and the July 2021 Consumer Price Index and resulted in the maximum penalty amount of $56,759 per day per violation.

The new maximum penalty is calculated by adjusting the previous maximum penalty by the percent change in the Consumer Price Index from July 2021 to July 2022. The July 2021 Consumer Price Index is 285.267. The July 2022 Consumer Price Index is XXX.XXX. This represents a XX.XXX% change.

The adjusted maximum penalty is therefore equal to the previous maximum penalty $56,759 multiplied by (1 + (XXX.XXX) - 285.267) / 285.267).

5 CCR 1002-101

[Editor's Notes follow the text of the rules at the end of this CCR Document.]

101.1 AUTHORITY

These regulations are promulgated pursuant to the Colorado Water Quality Control Act, sections 25-8-101 through 25-8-803, C.R.S. In particular, they are promulgated under sections 25-8-202 and 25-8-608(1), C.R.S.

101.3 REGULATIONS

A. Beginning on January 1, 2023, the maximum civil penalty identified in 25-8-608(1), C.R.S., for a person who violates the Water Quality Control Act, a permit issued under the Act, a control regulation promulgated pursuant to the Act, or a final cease-and-desist order or clean-up order shall be not more than $61,427 per day per violation.

101.5 – 101.9 RESERVED

101.11 STATEMENT OF BASIS, SPECIFIC STATUTORY AUTHORITY, AND PURPOSE, ADOPTED OCTOBER 11, 2022: EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 2023

The provisions of Colorado Revised Statute Sections 25-8-608(1) provides the specific statutory authority for the Water Quality Civil Penalty Inflation Adjustment Regulation adopted by the Commission. The Commission has also adopted, in compliance with Colorado Revised Statute Section 24-4-103(4) C.R.S., the following Statement of Basis and Purpose.

BASIS AND PURPOSE

Section 25-8-608(1), C.R.S., directs that “the commission shall, by rule, annually adjust the amount of the maximum civil penalty based on the percentage change in the United States Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Price Index for Denver-Aurora-Lakewood for All Items and All Urban Consumers, or its successor index.” This revision to the regulation implements this statutory direction and provides for the new annually adjusted maximum civil penalty identified in 25-8-608(1) C.R.S., effective January 1, 2023.

The commission applied the first adjustment to the maximum civil penalty on January 1, 2022, which was based on the change between the July 2020 Consumer Price Index and the July 2021 Consumer Price Index and resulted in the maximum penalty amount of $56,759 per day per violation.

The new maximum penalty is calculated by adjusting the previous maximum penalty by the percent change in the Consumer Price Index from July 2021 to July 2022. The July 2021 Consumer Price Index is 285.267. The July 2022 Consumer Price Index is 308.728. This represents a 8.2% change.

The adjusted maximum penalty is therefore equal to the previous maximum penalty $56,759 multiplied by (1 + (308.728 - 285.267) / 285.267). This results in a 2022 adjusted maximum penalty of $61,427.

[Editor's Notes follow the text of the rules at the end of this CCR Document.]

9.100 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION PROGRAM

9.101 LEGAL AND OPERATIONAL BASIS [Rev. eff. 3/17/17]

The Department of Labor and Employment is the sole designated State agency that administers the vocational rehabilitation services program in Colorado, and the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation (DVR) is the sole designated State unit primarily concerned with the vocational rehabilitation of individuals with disabilities. Individuals with disabilities who receive services from DVR are referred to in general as "recipients" of services and include:

A. Students with disabilities who are potentially eligible for vocational rehabilitation (VR) services for the purposes of Pre-Employment Transition Services

B. Individuals who have applied to DVR

C. Individuals who have been determined to be eligible for DVR services

9.101.1 Blind and Low Vision Services (BLVS) [Rev. eff. 3/1/20]

A. DVR shall establish and maintain a specialized unit, BLVS, focused on providing services to individuals who are blind or have low vision. The BLVS unit shall have a dedicated manager reporting directly to the DVR Director, with oversite for personal adjustment training services, vocational rehabilitation services, the Business Enterprise Program (BEP), the Older Individuals Who are Blind (OIB) program, and other programs serving individuals who are blind or have low vision as appropriate.

B. In addition to other performance metrics for which DVR is accountable, BLVS shall demonstrate success through timely eligibility determinations, timely plan development, employment, and earnings. For purposes of evaluating performance, Program Year 2018 (July 1, 2018 – June 30, 2019) will establish a baseline of performance and ongoing performance evaluation will consider the impact of overall economic conditions.

C. BLVS shall conduct a minimum of biannual stakeholder meetings to ensure ongoing input from the community. Invited representatives shall include, but not be limited to:

1. National Federation of the Blind of Colorado;

2. American Council of the Blind of Colorado;

3. Colorado Optometric Association;

4. Colorado Center for the Blind;

5. Colorado School for the Deaf and Blind;

6. Anchor Center for Blind Children;

7. A Shared Vision;

8. BEP Operators;

9. Older Individuals Who are Blind Program Grantees;

10. BLVS Clients; and

11. The community at large.

9.102 PERSONNEL STANDARDS [Rev. eff. 3/17/17]

A. Federal law requires state vocational rehabilitation agencies to establish qualified personnel standards and education and experience requirements for rehabilitation personnel, including rehabilitation counselors. DVR has established minimum qualifications through the Department of Personnel and Administration that are consistent with the minimum educational requirements established by the Commission on Rehabilitation Counselor Certification. Other positions within the rehabilitation counselor series such as orientation and mobility (O&M) specialists and vision rehabilitation therapists are also required to meet the minimum educational standards of appropriate national level certifying bodies. DVR shall ensure counselors providing services to individuals who are blind or have low vision have the necessary training and experience to support successful competitive integrated employment outcomes for this population.

B. DVR shall take reasonable steps to ensure the safety of recipients of services and safeguard individuals from abuse or exploitation while participating in the VR program. As demonstrated by other state programs serving children, youth, and adults with disabilities, such steps shall include the requirement of criminal background checks for personnel engaged in direct care and services to, or accessing the confidential information of, this population.

9.103 PROTECTION, USE, AND RELEASE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION [Eff. 4/1/13]

9.103.1 Confidential Information [Rev. eff. 3/17/17]

All potentially eligible students and applicants (or their authorized representatives) shall be informed about DVR's need to collect personal information and the principal purposes for which DVR will use that information. Any information secured by or made available to DVR and/or its employees or representatives concerning referrals or recipients of the vocational rehabilitation program is considered confidential. Use of such information, current or stored, is limited to purposes directly connected to the administration of the Vocational Rehabilitation Program as identified in Sections 9.103.2 and 9.103.3 and is not to be otherwise disclosed, directly or indirectly. Individuals shall be notified of the confidential nature of their case records and the conditions for release of such information at the time of application or program involvement for a potentially eligible student with a disability.

9.103.2 Release to Recipients [Rev. eff. 3/17/17]

Information acquired or maintained by the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation (DVR) will be available upon written request, for inspecting and copying by a recipient or, as appropriate, the individual's representative, in accordance with the Colorado Open Records Act (Section 24 72-201, et. seq., C.R.S.), unless release of such information is prohibited by state or federal statutes, case law, or rules and regulations.

Medical, psychological, or other information which the counselor determines may be harmful to the individual shall not be released directly to the individual, rather such information shall be provided through a third party chosen by the individual. Any employee of DVR shall not disclose the information listed below to the recipient and/or his or her authorized representative:

A. Social Security Administration (SSA) information except when requested by the Client Assistance Program on behalf of the recipient;

B. Information from the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs;

C. Medical or psychological information when the service provider states in writing that disclosure to the individual is prohibited. Applicants and eligible individuals requesting such information shall be referred to the originating source of the information.

9.103.3 Release to Other Programs or Authorities [Rev. eff. 3/17/17]

A. Confidential information may be released to other agencies or organizations when necessary for their program purposes only after DVR receives informed written consent from the recipient of DVR services or, if appropriate, the individual's representative, and under assurances that the agency or organization shall manage the information in a manner to safeguard its confidentiality in accordance with the confidentiality regulations governing vocational rehabilitation programs.

B. Information may be released to other programs or authorities without a recipient's written authorization when:

1. The information is directly connected with the administration of the Vocational Rehabilitation Program used only by persons officially connected with an audit or evaluation, and the final report contains no identifying information;

2. Sharing of the information, including pertinent medical and other data received from SSA, is necessary to establish an individual's eligibility for rehabilitation services and/or for the provision of such services under an Individualized Plan for Employment (IPE);

3. The information is required by federal law;

4. The information is necessary to respond to an investigation in connection with law enforcement, fraud, or abuse, unless expressly prohibited by Federal or State laws or regulations, and in response to a judicial order;

5. The information is necessary in order to protect the individual or others when the individual poses a threat to their own safety or to the safety of others;

6. The information is requested by the Social Security Administration (SSA); or,

7. The Director of the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation approves release to an organization or individual engaged in research.

9.104 RIGHTS TO REVIEW AND APPEAL

9.104.1 Review of DVR Determinations [Rev. eff. 3/17/17]

A. A recipient who is dissatisfied with any determination made by the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation (DVR) that affects the provision of vocational rehabilitation services may request a review of that decision through an informal or formal process. The individual may also utilize the mediation process to resolve disputes. If appropriate, any request for review or mediation may be made through the individual's authorized representative.

B. A recipient shall be notified, in writing, of their appeal rights, established procedures for review of determinations, and the availability of the Client Assistance Program each time the following occur:

1. At the time of program involvement for a potentially eligible student with a disability;

2. At the time of application for services;

3. At the time of placement into an Order of Selection (OOS) priority for services category;

4. At the time of Individualized Plan for Employment (IPE) development and any time the IPE is amended;

5. Any time that DVR makes a decision to reduce, suspend or terminate planned services;

6. At the time a case is closed for reasons of ineligibility; and,

7. At the time a case is closed from a deferred services wait list.

C. A recipient shall be responsible for their personal costs (including, but not limited to, legal representation and copying fees) associated with the individual's review, appeal or mediation unless otherwise ordered.

D. An applicant's or eligible individual's appeal shall not result in suspension, reduction or termination of vocational rehabilitation services pending resolution of their appeal unless:

1. A recipient or, if appropriate, the individual's representative requests a suspension, reduction or termination of services; or,

2. There is evidence that fraud has occurred or that the vocational rehabilitation services were obtained through misrepresentation, collusion or criminal conduct.

9.104.2 Mediation of Disputes [Eff. 3/17/17]

A. An applicant or eligible individual may seek mediation by a qualified and impartial mediator as a means to resolve a dispute with the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation (DVR). The goal of mediation is to achieve consensus between the individual and DVR. The individual may bring an authorized representative to assist them during the mediation process.

1. The request for mediation shall be submitted, in writing, to the DVR administrative office at any time during the review process and no later than the 60th day from the date the formal hearing is requested. The request shall identify the decision or action that is being disputed, why it is being disputed and what solution is requested. A qualified and impartial mediator arranged through the state shall be provided at no cost to the individual.

2. If the recipient requests mediation, DVR shall participate unless:

   a. It is not possible to resolve the dispute without placing the Department in clear violation of state or federal law, rules, policy or the approved State Plan;

   b. A mediated outcome is not possible based on documented evidence from previous experience with the individual concerning the issue under dispute;

   c. The individual has committed acts of violence, has threatened acts of violence or has engaged in other forms of harassment against Department staff or any other individuals involved in the provision of vocational rehabilitation services; or,

   d. The individual has failed to fulfill their responsibilities under a previous mediation agreement with DVR concerning the issue under dispute.

B. DVR may seek mediation by a qualified and impartial mediator as a means to resolve a dispute with a recipient before the individual requests an informal review or a formal appeal if the individual agrees to participate.

C. Mediation shall commence within twenty-one (21) days of the request for mediation and shall not delay conduct of the formal appeal unless both parties agree additional time is necessary.

   Mediation is limited to a maximum of six (6) hours of mediation session(s) unless both parties and the mediator agree that additional hours may provide a resolution. Mediation shall be completed within one (1) calendar month of the initial request unless both parties and the impartial mediator agree that additional time is necessary.

D. If mediation is successful, the consensus reached by both parties shall be documented in writing by the mediator and provided to both parties within seven (7) calendar days. Each party shall sign the agreement, which indicates agreement with its terms and a commitment to fulfill each party's respective responsibilities. If agreement on all issues is reached, the parties shall withdraw any pending informal review or formal appeal request. DVR shall not agree to any provision that it believes is contrary to state and federal law, rules, and policy or the approved State Plan.

E. If mediation is not successful, the individual may initiate, or proceed with, an informal review or a formal appeal of the issue under dispute.

F. Failure of the individual to honor their commitment under the terms of the mediation agreement shall void the mediation agreement.

9.104.3 Informal Review [Rev. eff. 3/17/17]

The recipient may request an informal review to resolve the issue(s) under dispute without mediation or conduct of a formal appeal. The informal resolution process will result in a decision by DVR regarding the issue under dispute. An individual shall not be required to go through an informal review prior to or instead of a formal appeal. An informal review shall be conducted within thirty (30) calendar days of the initial request unless both parties agree that additional time is necessary. Informal review shall not delay a formal appeal if one has been requested. If the informal review does not resolve the issue(s), and the formal appeal process has not been requested, the individual may request a formal appeal.

A. Informal review begins with a request for the applicable DVR Supervisor to review a decision concerning the provision of vocational rehabilitation services.

B. If the applicant or eligible individual is not satisfied with the decision made by the Supervisor, the applicant or eligible individual may take the next step and submit a written request for review to the Deputy of Field Services (or designee) to review the decision.

9.104.4 Formal Appeal Process [Rev. eff. 3/17/17]

An applicant or eligible individual may initiate a formal appeal regarding a determination to resolve the issue(s) under dispute without mediation or conduct of an informal review.

A. A written request for a formal appeal must be submitted to the Colorado Department of Personnel and Administration, Office of Administrative Courts (OAC), within ninety (90) calendar days of the subject determination made by the DVR counselor or other DVR staff that affects a provision of pre-employment transition services or vocational rehabilitation services.

B. The written request must be a statement detailing the basis of appeal, including a description of the determination made by DVR staff that the individual is appealing. The statement should include a description of what the individual wants from the appeal.

C. A recipient and DVR may voluntarily participate in mediation through the OAC. Mediation may not be used to deny or delay an individual's right to pursue resolution of the dispute through the formal appeal process unless both parties agree that additional time is necessary for mediation.

9.104.5 Formal Appeal before the Office of Administrative Courts [Rev. eff. 3/17/17]

A. When the Office of Administrative Courts (OAC) receives a request for a formal appeal, the OAC shall notify DVR and the Attorney General's Office, Labor and Employment Unit, that the request has been docketed and send a copy of the formal appeal request to DVR and the Attorney General's Office.

B. A representative from the Attorney General's office, on behalf of DVR, shall serve a notice to set an informal pre-hearing conference within ten (10) calendar days of receipt of the formal appeal request from the OAC. The purpose of the informal pre-hearing conference shall be to:

1. Identify the issues for appeal.

2. Set a date for DVR to provide a written statement summarizing the background and history of services for the appeal.

3. Set a date for a response from the appellant to respond to the summary and identify specific issues for the appeal. The appellant should identify specific remedies being sought, if known.

4. Set the date for hearing within sixty (60) days, unless both parties agree that more time is needed and agree to extend beyond the sixty days.

5. Set dates for an exchange of witness and exhibit list, as well as exchanging exhibits or other evidence.

C. The Administrative Law Judge shall conduct the hearing within sixty (60) calendar days of an individual's request for formal appeal unless both parties agree additional time is necessary.

D. The Administrative Law Judge shall conduct the hearing on formal appeal in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act, Section 24-4-105, C.R.S. The rights of the parties include:

1. Each party shall have the right to present his or her case or defense by oral and documentary evidence, to submit rebuttal evidence, and to conduct cross-examination.

2. Subject to these rights and requirements, where a hearing will be expedited and the interest of the parties will not be subsequently prejudiced thereby, the Administrative Law Judge may receive all or part of the evidence in written form or by oral stipulations.

3. Hearings will be conducted at a site convenient to the appellant. A telephonic hearing may be conducted as an alternative to a face-to-face hearing if requested by either party. If either party requests a face-to-face hearing, the written request for a face-to-face hearing must be filed with the OAC and the other party at least ten (10) calendar days before the scheduled hearing.

E. At the conclusion of the hearing, unless the Administrative Law Judge allows additional time to submit documentation, the Administrative Law Judge shall take the matter under advisement. After considering all the relevant evidence presented by the parties, the Administrative Law Judge shall render an initial decision.

F. The initial decision shall uphold, modify or reverse DVR's determination affecting the provision of pre-employment transition services or vocational rehabilitation services to a recipient or the decision regarding eligibility for services.

G. The initial decision shall be rendered within thirty (30) calendar days of the completion of the hearing.

H. When an appellant fails to appear at a duly scheduled hearing, having been given proper notice, without having given timely advance notice to the Administrative Law Judge of acceptable good cause for inability to appear at the hearing at the time, date and place specified in the notice of hearing, then the appeal shall be considered abandoned and the Administrative Law Judge shall enter an initial decision dismissing appeal.

9.104.6 Further Appeal [Eff. 3/17/17]

A. The initial decision rendered by the Administrative Law Judge shall become the final decision of the agency in absence of an exception filed by either party within thirty days after service of the initial decision, unless extended by the agency.

B. If a timely exception to the initial decision is filed by the appellant, the agency shall issue a final decision and advise the individual of his/her right to seek judicial review in the State District Court, City and County of Denver.

C. Any recipient who wishes to challenge the final agency decision may also bring a civil action for review of such decision (i.e. judicial review per CRS 24-4-105). The final agency decision shall be implemented pending the results of the review under a civil action. The civil action may be brought in any State court or in a district court of the United States, regardless of the amount in controversy. All records relating to the hearing shall be provided to the court in which the civil action shall be heard. Additional evidence may be provided upon request of the individual or the Director of DVR. The decision of the court and any relief granted as a result of the civil action shall be deemed final and binding.

9.104.7 Grievance of Discrimination on the Basis of Disability [Eff. 3/02/19]

An individual who believes they have experienced discrimination in violation of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, or the Colorado Anti-Discrimination Act (CADA) is entitled to due process and may file a grievance.

A. Informal Resolution: An individual who believes they have experienced discrimination on the basis of disability may seek informal resolution by contacting the Deputy for Field Services, or their designee, as soon as possible to explain the concern and propose a solution. Informal review shall be conducted in a timely manner that shall not delay a formal grievance. If the informal review does not resolve the issue(s), and the formal grievance has not already been filed, the individual may seek resolution through the formal grievance procedures.

B. Formal Grievance Procedures: An individual, or the individual's authorized representative, may initiate a formal grievance in lieu of seeking an informal resolution or if the informal resolution process did not satisfactorily resolve the concern.

1. Formal Written Complaint: A written complaint shall be considered when submitted to the ADA and Section 504 Coordinator of the Colorado Department of Labor and Employment within thirty (30) calendar days of the alleged offense or incident. The complaint shall include the name, address, and telephone number of the person filing the complaint; a description of the incident or alleged offense with as much information as possible; the date and location of the incident or alleged offense; and a proposed agency response that would resolve the issue(s) to the satisfaction of the complainant.

   Within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt of the complaint, the ADA and Section 504 Coordinator shall conduct an investigation of the circumstances involved. At the conclusion of the investigation, the ADA and Section 504 Coordinator shall respond in writing or, as appropriate, in a format accessible to the complainant, explaining the position of the Department.

2. Additional Action: If the response of the written complaint by the ADA and Section 504 Coordinator does not satisfactorily resolve the concern, the complainant, or the complainant's authorized representative, may contact the Colorado Civil Rights Division (CCRD) or the United States Department of Education's Office of Civil Rights (OCR) within sixty (60) days of the Department's decision. An individual does not need to seek resolution through DVR's information resolution or written complaint processes prior to filing a discrimination complaint with CCRD or OCR. A complaint directly to CCRD must be filed within sixty (60) days of the alleged incident of discrimination. A complaint directly to OCR must be filed within 180 days of the alleged incident of discrimination.

9.105 APPLICATION AND ELIGIBILITY [Eff. 3/17/17]

9.105.1 Application [Eff. 3/17/17]

A. An applicant is an individual who has applied for DVR services. Authorized representatives shall be involved in pertinent issues in the same manner as the applicant or client. DVR shall provide assistance and/or accommodations throughout the application process.

Application criteria for vocational rehabilitation services:

1. An individual or, as appropriate, the individual's authorized representative, signs and dates DVR's application for services; and

2. The individual is available to complete the assessment process; and

3. Information necessary to initiate the eligibility determination process is provided.

9.105.2 Eligibility [Rev. eff. 3/17/17]

A. DVR will work with each applicant to obtain existing records and documents, and when necessary, conduct additional assessments needed to determine eligibility. The length of time between application and eligibility shall not exceed sixty (60) calendar days unless a period of trial work experience is required or exceptional and unforeseen circumstances beyond the agency's control preclude determining eligibility within sixty calendar days and the counselor and applicant agree to a specific extension of time.

Eligibility criteria for vocational rehabilitation services requires that:

1. The individual has a physical or mental impairment documented by qualified personnel. For purposes of this eligibility criteria, DVR considers "qualified personnel" to be individuals or practitioners that are licensed and regulated by the Colorado Department of Regulatory Agencies to determine the existence of an impairment for their specific area of medical or psychological practice, or who otherwise meet established state or national licensing and certification requirements for that area of practice. In addition, the Social Security Administration and education officials responsible for the public education of students with disabilities are considered by DVR to be qualified personnel for this eligibility criterion;

2. The impairment constitutes or results in a substantial impediment to employment that is consistent with the individual's abilities and capabilities;

3. The individual requires vocational rehabilitation services to prepare for, secure, retain, advance in, or regain employment consistent with their unique strengths, resources, priorities, concerns, abilities, capabilities, interests and informed choice; and,

4. The Division of Vocational Rehabilitation (DVR) presumes that an applicant who meets all other eligibility criteria can benefit in terms of an employment outcome from the provision of vocational rehabilitation services. If DVR questions whether the individual's disability is too severe for them to benefit from services in terms of an employment outcome, clear and convincing evidence shall be obtained through the provision of trial work experiences.

B. Presumptive Eligibility

An applicant who is determined to be eligible for Supplemental Security Income (SSI) and/or Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) benefits (based on their own disability, including blindness) is presumed to meet the eligibility requirements. Verification of eligibility for SSI/SSDI benefits is sufficient to establish that DVR eligibility criteria are met unless the presumption of benefit in terms of an employment outcome is questionable due to the severity of the disability(ies), which may require trial work experiences.

9.106 SEVERITY OF DISABILITY [Rev. eff. 3/17/17]

The assessment for determining eligibility and identifying vocational rehabilitation needs shall establish an individual's priority for services, based upon whether the individual's disability is most significant, significant, or an individual with a disability.

A. An individual with a most significant disability is defined as an eligible individual (including presumptively eligible) who has a severe physical or mental impairment that seriously limits three or more functional capacities (communication, interpersonal skills, mobility, motor skills, self-care, self-direction, work skills, or work tolerance) in terms of an employment outcome; and, whose vocational rehabilitation can be expected to require the provision of two or more vocational rehabilitation services for at least five months.

B. An individual with a significant disability is defined as an eligible individual who has been verified to be presumptively eligible or who has a severe physical or mental impairment that seriously limits one or two functional capacity areas (communication, interpersonal skills, mobility, motor skills, self-care, self-direction, work skills, or work tolerance) in terms of an employment outcome; and, whose vocational rehabilitation can be expected to require the provision of two or more vocational rehabilitation services for at least five months.

C. An individual with a disability is defined as an eligible individual who does not meet the criteria for most significant or significant.

9.107 PROVISION OF VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SERVICES [Rev. eff. 3/17/17]

A. Pre-employment transition services must be made available statewide to all students with disabilities, regardless of whether the student has applied or been determined eligible for vocational rehabilitation services.

1. Pre-employment transition services are:

a. Job exploration counseling;

b. Work-based learning experiences that are provided in an integrated environment in the community to the maximum extent possible;

c. Counseling on opportunities for enrollment in comprehensive transition or postsecondary educational programs and institutions of higher education;

d. Workplace readiness training to develop social skills and independent living; and

e. Instruction in self-advocacy, which may include peer mentoring.

B. All other vocational rehabilitation services shall be provided to:

1. Applicants to determine eligibility and severity of disability.

2. Eligible individuals to determine a vocational goal and identify the nature and scope of the services necessary to reach that vocational goal.

3. Under an Individualized Plan for Employment (IPE) to assist an individual in preparing for, securing, retaining, advancing in, or regaining an employment outcome.

Services shall be necessary, appropriate, and purchased at least possible cost. A service is considered necessary only if it is essential to assess an individual's eligibility and severity of disability, to establish the individual's vocational rehabilitation needs, to overcome or circumvent an identified vocational impediment(s), and to attain the individual's chosen employment outcome. A service is considered appropriate if it is of sufficient quality to fully meet the individual's particular needs and circumstances. Least possible cost is considered only after the determination of necessary and appropriate. All services shall be provided in the most integrated settings possible.

9.107.1 Engagement and Contact [Rev. eff. 3/17/17]

An effective vocational rehabilitation program requires the active participation of each eligible individual. A DVR staff member shall contact every eligible individual at least once every two months and document this in the client record.

9.108 UTILIZATION OF REHABILITATION FUNDS

9.108.1 Expenditure of Rehabilitation Funds [Rev. eff. 9/30/2019]

A. Payment for Services

Necessary and appropriate services provided to applicants and eligible individuals shall be procured at the least possible cost to the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation (DVR). D. The financial need analysis shall determine economic need and consider income and net resources as well as the allowable monthly deductions of the entire family unit. Standardized allowances for normal living costs are determined by the size of the family unit.

In evaluating what the terms and conditions of an existing tenancy are, the Division may consider the following including, but not limited to:

STATEMENT OF BASIS, STATUTORY AUTHORITY, AND PURPOSE

Pursuant to House Bill 2022-1120, the General Assembly amended section 24-33.5-1810 , C.R.S., related to the School Security Disbursement Program. Section 24-33.5-1810(7), C.R.S. mandates that the Executive Director of the Department of Public Safety shall promulgate rules to establish the time frames for submitting disbursement applications and awarding disbursements and to specify any additional information that must be included in disbursement applications as described in subsection (4)(f) of section 24-33.5-1810. Upon delegation from the Executive Director, the DHSEM Director led the rulemaking hearing that took place on Oct. 5, 2022.

The General Assembly declared that the department distribute the money credited to the school security disbursement program account for the disbursement program as quickly as practicable based on the receipt of qualifying applications. The absence of implementing rules to carry out the purpose of the statute would be contrary to this declaration. For these reasons, it is imperatively necessary that the proposed rules be adopted.

Minimum Threshold Eligibility Review: All CCITP Grant Program application submissions will first be reviewed to determine if the applicant(s) satisfy the definition of a Qualified Applicant set forth within these rules. Meeting this criterion, applicants will be reviewed to determine if they include a description of the proposed program as set forth within these rules. Satisfying both criteria, a reviewed CCITP Grant Program application will be reviewed consistent with the grant criteria outlined by §24-33.5-230 (3) and (4), CRS, and the elements set forth by Part 7 of these rules.

7.2. CCITP Grant Program Application Evaluation for Mandatory Review Elements. All CCITP Grant Program application submissions satisfying the requirements of Part 7.1 of these rules will be reviewed by the CATPA Business Unit. The CATPA Business Unit will evaluate how each application addresses the following mandatory CCITP Grant Program elements:

7.2.1. Clear Presentation of Catalytic Converter Theft Issue: The CCITP Grant Program application must present an issue involving or related to catalytic converter theft or identification that proposes a response involving a catalytic converter theft public awareness campaign, catalytic converter theft prevention parts, assistance to victims of catalytic converter theft, and/or catalytic converter identification and tracking efforts.

7.2.2. Explanation of Funding Effect on Catalytic Converter Theft: Except for CCITP Grant Program applications proposing programs only involving financial reimbursement or assistance to victims of catalytic converter theft absent any other efforts to reduce catalytic converter theft or to raise public awareness thereof, all CCITP Grant Program applications must include an explanation of how a grant funding award will help reduce catalytic converter theft in Colorado. Any CCITP Grant Program application proposing a program with an intent to decrease the incidence of catalytic converter theft or to facilitate efforts at catalytic converter identification and tracking must include an explanation of how CCITP Grant Program funding will support this goal.

7.2.3. Proposed Activities and Goals: The application must propose a program design wherein the activities and goals defined are realistic and attainable.

7.3.2. Data Collection and Evaluation: The application must demonstrate that the proposed program design allows for the collection of data relevant and necessary to the expressed activities and goals of the program and will support evaluation thereof to measure the progress and effectiveness of the program upon the incidence of catalytic converter theft.

7.3.3. Innovation and Ingenuity: The application will be evaluated, to the extent possible, for any display of innovation or ingenuity in its concept, design, and/or operation concerning the issues identified in Part 6.2.2 of these rules. 7.3.4. Experience, Expertise, or Demonstrated Ability: Information about an applicant's experience and qualifications regarding subject-area expertise, and/or a demonstrated ability to manage grant-funded projects or programs and to satisfy the reporting requirements thereof consistently and with success will be considered, but the absence thereof will not disqualify an applicant.

D. Offset Against Taxpayer's State Income Tax Refund

3. Household Objection to Pre-Offset Notice

The taxpayer is entitled to object to the offset by filing a request for a DRC or state-level hearing within thirty (30) calendar days from the date the state department mails the pre-offset notice to the taxpayer. At the hearing on the offset, the local office or administrative adjudicator shall not consider whether an over-issuance has occurred, but may consider, if raised by the taxpayer in his or her request for a hearing, whether:

8. An OOA adjudicator within CDHS will review the proposed offset and issue only a final agency decision. The OOA shall find that the claim is past due and legally enforceable unless the household can provide documentation to show one (1) of the following:

a. The claim is not delinquent or was already paid, and the individual provides proof of payment.

b. The individual is not the person that is liable for the claim.

c. A bankruptcy action prohibits collection of the claim because the automatic stay under Section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code is in effect with respect to the individual or his or her spouse, or that the claim was discharged by a bankruptcy proceeding.

d. There is some other reason that the claim is not delinquent or is not legally enforceable.

9. The final agency decision by the OOA regarding the paper review will be issued by means of written findings. No oral argument is permitted. The written findings shall include the following:

   a. If the OOA determines that the claim is past due and legally enforceable:

      1. The individual shall be notified that the claim will continue to be referred for the offset; and,

      2. The individual is entitled to have the FNS review the OOA's decision. FNS must receive a request to do so within thirty (30) calendar days after the date of the state agency's notice of review decision. A request for FNS review shall include the individual's SSN. The notice shall also provide the address of the regional office including the phrase "Tax Offset Review" in the address.

   b. If the OOA determines that the claim is not past due or legally enforceable, it shall notify the individual and the local office that the claim will not be referred for the offset.

   c. While the OOA or FNS is conducting a review of the debt, the debt is not eligible for referral to TOP.

4.801.43 Criteria for Terminating Collection Action [Rev. eff. 1/1/16]

The provisions within this section apply to Agency Error (AE) claims, Inadvertent Household Error (IHE) claims, and intentional Program violation (IPV) claims.

A. A terminated claim is a claim in which all collection activity has ceased. A terminated claim is no longer considered a receivable subject for continued state and federal agency collection and reporting requirements unless otherwise stated.

   Voluntary payments from a household on a terminated claim do not reactivate the claim. A terminated claim cannot be reactivated to pursue collection.

B. Collection action on a claim shall be terminated only in the following situations:

   1. A claim may be determined uncollectible after the collection action has been suspended for three (3) years. Prior to terminating such a claim, the local office may submit the claim for state or federal offset or pursue other collection actions. A terminated claim may not be reactivated to offset restoration of lost benefits.

4.802 APPEAL PROCESS

Any household that is aggrieved by any action of the local office affecting the household's participation in SNAP may appeal by requesting a local-level dispute resolution conference (DRC) and/or a state-level fair hearing.

The right of a household to a DRC and state-level hearing is primarily to ensure that a proposed eligibility determination or action is valid, to protect the person against an erroneous action concerning benefits, and to ensure reasonable promptness of local office action. The individual may choose to request a DRC or bypass the DRC and appeal directly to the Colorado Department of Human Services (CDHS) for a state-level fair hearing.

CDHS may deny fair hearings to those households that are disputing a mass change, or the fact that a statewide reduction, cancellation, or suspension was ordered. In such instances, CDHS is not required to hold a fair hearing unless the request is based on the household's belief that the rules were misapplied.

If the household has a combined appeal, the appeal will be bifurcated. The SNAP fair hearings unit will process and hear the SNAP appeal, and the Office of Administrative Courts (OAC) will process and hear the other benefits program appeal(s). The SNAP fair hearings unit will provide the parties with any necessary instructions and/or procedures related to combined appeals.

4.802.1 Time Period for Requesting an Appeal

A. A household shall be allowed to request a DRC or state-level fair hearing on the following:

1. Any action by the local office that occurred in the previous ninety (90) calendar days.

2. A loss of benefits that occurred in the previous ninety (90) calendar days. Such SNAP action shall include a denial of a request for restoration of benefits lost more than ninety (90) calendar days, but less than a year prior to the request.

3. At any time during a certification period a household may request a fair hearing to dispute its current level of benefits.

B. An aggrieved household shall be advised that the use of a DRC is optional, and it shall in no way delay or replace the state-level fair hearing process. If the household does not want a DRC but desires to have the disputed matter considered only at a state-level hearing, this fact should be indicated in the case record. In these cases, the request for an appeal shall be forwarded to the SNAP fair hearings unit.

4.802.2 Continuation of Benefits Pending Final Agency Decision

D. The certification office shall promptly inform the household in writing if the benefits are reduced or terminated pending the final agency decision. Once benefits are continued or reinstated, benefits shall not be reduced or terminated prior to the receipt of the final agency decision unless:

1. The certification period expires. The household may reapply and may be determined eligible for a new certification period with a benefit amount as determined by the local office.

2. The administrative adjudicator makes a preliminary determination, in writing and at the hearing, that the sole issue is one of federal law or regulation and that the household's claim that the local office improperly computed the benefits or misinterpreted or misapplied such law or regulation is invalid.

3. A change affecting the household's eligibility or basis of issuance occurs while the final agency decision is pending, and the household fails to request a hearing after the subsequent Notice of Adverse Action.

4. A mass change affecting the household's eligibility or basis of issuance occurs while the final agency decision is pending. During the fair hearing period, the local office shall adjust allotments to consider reported changes, information considered verified upon receipt, and mass changes, but not the factors on which the fair hearing is based.

4.802.3 Rights During an Appeal

A. A household is entitled to the following:

1. Be represented by an authorized representative, such as legal counsel, relative, friend, or other spokesman, or they may represent themselves at the DRC or state-level fair hearing.

4.802.5 Local-Level Dispute Resolution Conferences (DRC)

A. Before taking action to deny, terminate, reduce, or recover SNAP benefits, the local office shall provide the household an opportunity for a DRC. The individual may choose to bypass the DRC process and appeal directly to the SNAP fair hearings unit for a state-level fair hearing.

B. If the household requests a DRC, the local office shall arrange one to attempt to resolve the disputed action. The household may be represented by legal counsel or have other persons present to aid the household in the DRC.

C. Failure of the client to request a DRC within the prior notice period or failure to appear at the time of the scheduled DRC without making a timely request for postponement shall constitute abandonment of the right to a DRC, unless the client can show good cause for their failure to appear. “Good cause” includes, but is not limited to:

1. Death or incapacity of a client, or a member of his or her immediate family, or the representative;

2. Any other health or medical condition of an emergency nature; or

3. Other circumstances beyond the control of the client, and which would prevent a reasonable person from making a timely request for a DRC or postponement of a scheduled DRC.

D. The local office may consolidate the SNAP DRC with disputes regarding other assistance payments programs, the Colorado Works (CW) Program, or disputes concerning Medicaid eligibility~~,~~ if the facts are similar and consolidation will facilitate the resolution of all disputes.

4.802.51 Management of Local-Level Dispute Resolution Conference (DRC)

A. General Requirements

The DRC shall be conducted on an informal basis. Every effort shall be made to ensure that the household understands the local office's specific reasons for the proposed action and the applicable State Department's rules. The local office shall have available at the DRC all pertinent documents and records in the case file relevant to the specific action in dispute.

B. Scheduling

1. To the extent possible, the DRC shall be scheduled and conducted within the prior notice period. If the local office cannot conduct the DRC within this period, for whatever reason, the adverse action in dispute shall be delayed until a DRC can be held, unless the household waives continuation of benefits.

2. If a DRC is requested to attempt to resolve a contested denial of expedited service, it shall be scheduled within two (2) working days of the receipt of the request for a DRC unless the household requests that it be held later. Prior notice is not required.

3. The local office shall provide reasonable notice to the household of the scheduled time and location for the DRC, or the time of the scheduled telephone conference. Notice shall be in writing; however, verbal notice may be given to facilitate the DRC process.

C. Location

The DRC shall be held in the local office where the proposed decision is pending and before a person who was not directly involved in the initial determination of the action in question. The DRC may be conducted either in person or by telephone. If a telephonic conference is requested, it shall be agreed upon by the client. In the event the household does not speak English or is visually or hearing impaired, an interpreter or translator shall be provided by the local office.

D. County Representatives

The individual who initiated the action in dispute shall not conduct the DRC. The individual who initiated the action in dispute shall attend the DRC and present the factual basis for the disputed action. The person designated to conduct the DRC shall be in a position which, based on knowledge, experience, and training, would enable them to determine if the proposed action is valid.

E. Joint Dispute Resolution Processes

Two (2) or more local offices may establish a joint DRC process. If two or more counties establish a joint process, the location of the DRC need not be held in the county or agency taking the action, but the DRC location shall be convenient to the client.

F. Notice of DRC Decision

1. If the additional information presented in the DRC proves that the adverse action is not warranted, the case record shall be documented, and the Notice of Adverse Action cancelled.

2. At the conclusion of the DRC, the person presiding shall reduce to writing the agreement entered by the parties. Such agreement shall be signed by the parties and/or their representatives and shall be binding upon the parties. A copy of the written decision shall immediately be provided to the client and/or his or her representative. The local office shall also forward a copy of the decision to the State Department, within five (5) working days of the hearing, regardless of whether the client agrees with the outcome.

3. In the event the dispute is not resolved, the person presiding shall prepare a written statement indicating that the dispute was not resolved. The decision shall include:

   a. A statement explaining the client's right to request a state-level fair hearing;

   b. The time limit for requesting a state-level hearing; and,

   c. If appropriate, a statement that the household's previous benefit amount will continue pending a final state decision in accordance with Section 4.802.2, if appealed to the state within the appeal timeframe provided on the original Notice of Action cooresponding to the disputed action.

4.802.61 MANAGEMENT OF STATE-LEVEL HEARINGS

A. Scheduling

1. The SNAP fair hearings unit at the Colorado Department of Human Services (CDHS) or the Office of Administrative Courts (OAC), if so designated by CDHS, shall arrange the time, date, and place of the state-level fair hearing so that the hearing is accessible to the household. At least ten (10) calendar days prior to the hearing, advance written notice shall be provided to all parties involved to permit adequate preparation of the case. The household, however, may request less advanced notice to expedite the scheduling of the hearing. The notice shall:

   a. Advise the household or its representative of the name, address, and phone number of the person to notify in the event it is not possible for the household to attend the scheduled hearing.

b. Specify that the household's hearing request will be dismissed if the household or its representative fails to appear for the hearing without good cause.

c. Include a copy of the information outlining CDHS' state-level fair hearing procedures.

d. Explain that the household may examine the case file prior to the hearing.

2. Hearing requests for households that plan to move from the area, such as migrant farm workers, shall be processed faster than others, if necessary, to enable them to receive a decision and any appropriate restoration of benefits before they leave the area.

3. The administrative adjudicator shall complete the hearing no more than twenty-five (25) calendar days from when the SNAP fair hearings unit received the notice of appeal. The household may request and is entitled to receive a postponement (also referred to as a continuance) of the scheduled hearing. The postponement shall not exceed 30 days and the time limit for action on the final agency decision may be extended for as many days as the hearing is postponed. A county may not request and is not entitled to receive a postponement.

4. The administrative adjudicator may respond to a series of individual requests for hearings by conducting a single group hearing related to SNAP appeals. The snap fair hearings unit may consolidate only SNAP related cases where individual issues of fact are not disputed and where related issues of state and/or federal law, regulation, or policy are the sole issues being raised. In all group hearings, the regulations governing individual hearings shall be followed. Each individual household shall be permitted to present its own case or have its case presented by a representative.

B. Hearings Conducted by Phone

The hearing may be conducted by telephone using conference call techniques or by video conference unless one of the parties objects to either of these methods. If a hearing is held by telephone using conference call techniques or by video conference, the rules of procedure (including a recording of the hearing) shall be the same as a face-to-face hearing.

C. Attendance

The hearing shall be attended by a representative of the local office and by the household and/or its representative. The hearing may also be attended by friends or relatives of the household if the household so chooses. The administrative adjudicator shall have the authority to limit the number of persons in attendance at the hearing if space limitations exist.

D. Administrative Adjudicator

The administrative adjudicator shall:

1. Administer all oaths or affirmations as required by the State;

2. Ensure all relevant issues are considered;

3. Request, receive, and make part of the record all evidence determined necessary to decide the issues being raised;

4. Regulate the conduct and course of the hearing consistent with due process to ensure an orderly hearing;

5. Order, where relevant and useful, an independent medical assessment or professional evaluation from a source mutually satisfactory to the household and the local office;

6. Provide a hearing record and prepare and file an initial hearing decision with the Office of Appeals (OOA) which shall serve each party with a copy of the initial decision.

4.802.62 Hearing Denials or Dismissals

A. CDHS shall not deny or dismiss a request for a hearing unless:

1. The request is not received within the time period specified in Section 4.802.1.

2. The request is withdrawn in writing by the household or its representative; or,

3. The household or its representative fails, without good cause, to appear at the scheduled hearing.

B. The administrative adjudicator shall not enter a default against any party for failure to file a written answer to the notice of hearing but shall base the initial decision upon the evidence presented at the hearing.

C. When the administrative adjudicator dismisses an appeal for reasons other than failure to appear, the decision of the administrative adjudicator shall be an initial decision, which shall not be implemented pending review by the Office of Appeals and entry of a final agency decision.

D. When an appellant fails to appear at a duly scheduled hearing, having been given proper notice, and without having given timely advance notice to the administrative adjudicator of acceptable good cause for inability to appear at the hearing at the time, date and place specified in the notice of hearing, then the appeal shall be considered abandoned, and an order of dismissal shall be entered by the administrative adjudicator and served upon the parties by the Office of Appeals (OOA). The order of dismissal for failure to appear shall not be implemented pending review by the OOA and entry of a final agency decision.

The appellant, however, shall be afforded a period of ten (10) calendar days from the date the order of dismissal was mailed, during which the appellant may explain in a letter to the administrative adjudicator the reason for his or her failure to appear. If the administrative adjudicator then finds that there was acceptable good cause for the appellant not appearing, the administrative adjudicator shall vacate the order dismissing the appeal and reschedule another hearing date.

If the appellant does not submit a letter seeking to show good cause within a period of ten (10) calendar days, the order of dismissal shall be filed with the OOA. The OOA shall confirm the dismissal of the appeal by an agency decision, which shall be served upon the parties and the interested division of the State Department. Within three (3) working days after the effective date of the decision, the local office shall implement necessary actions to provide benefits in the correct amount, terminate benefits, recover benefits incorrectly paid, and/or other appropriate actions in accordance with the rules.

If the appellant submits a letter seeking to show good cause and the administrative adjudicator finds that the stated facts do not constitute good cause, the administrative adjudicator shall enter an initial decision confirming the dismissal.

4.802.63 State-Level Hearing Decisions

A. Decisions of the administrative adjudicator shall not run counter to Federal law, State Department rule, or state statute, and shall be based on the hearing record.

The exclusive record for an initial decision by the administrative adjudicator shall constitute the verbatim transcript or recording of testimony and exhibits, or an official report containing the substance of what transpired at the hearing, together with all papers and requests filed in the proceedings. This record shall be retained in accordance with normal retention periods. This record shall also be available to the household or its representative at any reasonable time for copying and inspection.

B. Following the conclusion of the state hearing, the administrative adjudicator shall promptly prepare and issue an initial decision and file it with the OOA.

C. Initial Decision

1. The administrative adjudicator shall render an initial decision within ten (10) calendar days of the hearing date. However, if the head of the household or the household's representative requests a delay in the proceedings, the time limit for action on the decision may be extended for as many days as the hearing is delayed, up to thirty (30) calendar days.

2. The initial decision shall make an initial determination whether the county or the Colorado Department of Human Services (CDHS) or its agent acted in accordance with, and/or properly interpreted, the rules of the State Department. The administrative adjudicator may determine whether statutes were properly interpreted and applied only when no implementing state rules exist. The administrative adjudicator has no jurisdiction or authority to determine issues of constitutionality or legality of departmental rules.

3. The initial decision shall advise the household that failure to file exceptions to provisions of the initial decision will waive the right to seek judicial review of a final agency decision affirming those provisions.

4. The Office of Appeals shall promptly serve the initial decision upon each party by first class mail and shall transmit a copy of the decision to the divisions of the State Department that administer the program(s) pertinent to the appeal.

5. The initial decision by the administrative adjudicator shall summarize the facts of the case, specify the reasons for the initial decision, and identify the supporting evidence and the pertinent rules.

6. The Office of Appeals at CDHS, as the designee of the Executive Director, shall review the initial decision of the administrative adjudicator and shall enter a final agency decision affirming, modifying, or reversing the initial decision. The Office of Appeals may issue an order of remand upon receipt of the initial decision and identification of an issue that warrants a remand before the initial decision is sent to the parties. Additionally, the Office of Appeals may issue an order of remand at the time of the substantive review of an initial decision for final agency decision. An order of remand is not a final agency decision that is subject to judicial review. The initial decision shall not be implemented pending review by the Office of Appeals and entry of a final agency decision. While review of the initial decision is pending before the Office of Appeals, the record on review, including any transcript or tape of testimony filed with the Office of Appeals, shall be available for examination by any party at the Office of Appeals during regular business hours.

D. Exceptions to the Initial Decision

1. Any party seeking a final agency decision that reverses, modifies, or remands the initial decision of the administrative adjudicator must file a written notice of intent to file exceptions to the decision with the OOA within five (5) calendar days - plus three (3) calendar days for mailing - from the date the initial decision is mailed to the parties. If the party has filed such a notice of intent, the party will have fifteen (15) calendar days, plus three (3) calendar days for mailing from the date the initial decision is mailed to the parties to file its written exceptions with the OOA. Exceptions shall state specific grounds for reversal, modification, or remand of the initial decision. Exceptions that fail to state specific grounds for reversal, modification, or remand of the initial decision shall be considered as only arguments of general dissatisfaction.

2. If any party asserts that the administrative adjudicator findings of fact are not supported by the weight of the evidence, the OOA will request the SNAP fair hearings unit provide an audio recording of the hearing to the OOA. If the local office asserts that the administrative adjudicator's findings of fact are not supported by the weight of the evidence, the local office shall provide a hearing transcript to the OOA on or before the deadline for the filing of exceptions. If the local office's yearly budget is not sufficient to pay the cost of a hearing transcript, the local office may request that the OOA review an audio recording of the hearing in lieu of a hearing transcript. Such requests must be mailed or emailed to the OOA at least five (5) calendar days before the deadline for the filing of exceptions. Additionally, the letter must indicate the insufficiency of the local office's budget to pay for a hearing transcript and the letter must be signed by the county department's director. The OOA shall issue an order regarding the request, and if granted, the OOA shall request the audio recording from the SNAP fair hearings unit. If the division(s) of the State Department responsible for administering the program(s) relevant to the appeal assert(s) that the administrative adjudicator's findings of fact are not supported by the weight of the evidence, it shall simultaneously with, or prior to the filing of exceptions, file a hearing transcript with the OOA on or before the deadline for filing exceptions.

3. Considering the federal timeliness requirements for SNAP cases, a party may not request an extension of time to file exceptions unless a party is able to show sufficient good cause as to why an extension of time should be granted. The determination of good cause is within the sole discretion of the OOA. When an extension of time is granted by the OOA, the extension shall not be for more than five (5) calendar days after the original exceptions filing deadline. Local offices or the State Department will need to immediately review initial decisions to assess any need to request an audio recording from the SNAP fair hearings unit to receive the audio recording and expedite the transcription of the audio recording through whatever transcription service it chooses. Any party requesting transcription services shall be fully responsible for the cost of such.

4. If the exceptions do not challenge the findings of fact, but instead assert only that the administrative adjudicator improperly interpreted or applied state rules or relevant statutes, no transcript review or audio recording review is required.

5. The OOA shall serve a copy of the exceptions on each party by first class mail and by electronic mail if the party has consented to receiving communications by electronic mail. Each party shall be limited to ten (10) calendar days from the date exceptions are mailed to the parties in which to file a written response to such exceptions. The OOA shall not permit oral argument.

6. The OOA shall not consider evidence that was not part of the record before the administrative adjudicator. However, the case may be remanded to the administrative adjudicator for rehearing if a party establishes in its exceptions that material evidence has been discovered that the party could not with reasonable diligence have produced at the hearing.

7. The division(s) of the State Department responsible for administering the program(s) relevant to the appeal may file exceptions to the initial decision, or respond to exceptions filed by a party, even though the Division has not previously appeared as a party to the appeal. The Division's exceptions shall be filed in compliance with the requirements of section 4.802.63, D, 1 and 2, above. Exceptions filed by a Division that did not appear as a party at the hearing shall be treated as requesting a review of the initial decision upon the State Department's own motion.

E. Final Agency Decisions

1. The OOA shall enter a final agency decision resolving the appeal within sixty (60) calendar days after the request for appeal was received by the SNAP fair hearings unit.

2. In the absence of exceptions filed by any party or by a division of the State Department, or when exceptions are filed, the OOA shall review the initial decision and may review the hearing file of the administrative adjudicator and/or the taped testimony of witnesses before entering a final agency decision. Review by the OOA shall determine whether the initial decision properly interprets and applies the rules of the State Department or relevant statutes and whether the findings of fact and conclusions of law support the decision. If a party or Division of the State Department objects to the final agency decision entered upon review by the OOA, the party or Division may seek reconsideration.

3. The OOA shall mail copies of the final agency decision to all parties by first class mail.

4. For purposes of requesting judicial review, the effective date of the final agency decision shall be the third (3rd) day after the date the decision is mailed to the parties, even if the third day falls on Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday. The parties shall be advised of this in the final agency decision.

F. Motion for Reconsideration of a Final Agency Decision

1. A motion for reconsideration of a final agency decision may be granted by the OOA for the following reasons:

   a. Upon a showing of good cause for failure to file exceptions to the initial decision within the fifteen (15) calendar day period; or,

   b. Upon a showing that the final agency decision is based upon a clear or plain error of fact or law. An error of law means failure by the OOA to follow a rule, statute, or court decision that controls the outcome of the appeal.

2. No motion for reconsideration shall be granted unless it is filed in writing with the OOA within fifteen (15) calendar days of the date that the final agency decision is mailed to the parties. The motion shall state specific grounds for reconsideration of the agency decision.

3. The OOA shall mail a copy of the motion for reconsideration to each party of record and to the appropriate Division of the State Department.

G. Acting on Decisions

1. Initial decisions shall not be implemented pending review by the OOA and entry of a final agency decision.

2. The State Department or local office shall initiate action to comply with the final agency decision within three (3) working days after the effective date. The acting department/office shall comply with the decision, even if reconsideration is requested, unless the effective date of the agency decision is postponed by order of the OOA or a reviewing court.

3. If it is ruled that the household had its SNAP benefits wrongfully delayed, denied, or terminated, the local office shall provide retroactive benefits. If it is decided that benefits were over-issued before and during the pendency of the determination of final agency action, a claim for over-issued benefits will be prepared.

4. Final agency decisions which result in an increase in household benefits shall be reflected in the benefit allotment within ten (10) days of the receipt of the decision, even if the local office is obligated to provide a supplementary allotment or otherwise provide the household with the opportunity to obtain the allotment outside of the normal cycle. However, the local office may take longer than ten (10) days if it elects to make the decision effective in the household's normal issuance cycle, provided that the issuance will occur within sixty (60) days from the household's request for the hearing.

5. Final agency decisions which result in a decrease in household benefits shall be reflected in the next scheduled issuance following receipt of the decision unless the decision is stayed by the OOA upon a showing of irreparable harm.

STATEMENT OF BASIS, PURPOSE and JUSTIFICATION for EMERGENCY RULES

On July 6, 2022, Colorado Governor Jared Polis ("Governor") signed Executive Order D 2022 032, "Directing State Agencies to Protecting Access to Reproductive Health Care in Colorado."

On July 14, 2022, Colorado Governor Jared Polis ("Governor") signed Executive Order D 2022 034, "Protecting Colorado's Workforce and Expanding Licensing Opportunities."

Basis

The basis for these rules is Executive Order D 2022 032 and Executive Order D 2022 034.

Through Executive Order D 2022 032, Governor Jared Polis directed all state agencies not to share any information or data, including patient medical records, patient-level data or related billing information, or expend time, money, facilities property, equipment, personnel, or other resources to assist or further any investigation or proceeding initiated in or by another state that seeks to impose criminal or civil liability or professional sanction upon a person for conduct that would be legal in Colorado related to providing, assisting, seeking, or obtaining reproductive health care, unless pursuant to a court order.

Governor Jared Polis also directed the Department of Regulatory Agencies (DORA) to work with all programs and boards of professional licensure operating under its purview to promulgate and issue necessary rules that will ensure that no person shall be subject to a disciplinary action against a professional license or disqualified from professional licensure for providing or assisting in the provision of reproductive health care or as a consequence of any civil or criminal judgment, discipline, or other sanction threatened or imposed under the laws of another state so long as the care as provided is consistent with professional conduct and standards of care within the State of Colorado.

Through Executive Order D 2022 034, Governor Jared Polis directed the Department of Regulatory Agencies to work with all programs and boards of professional licensure operating under its purview to promulgate and issue rules as necessary to ensure that no person shall be subject to disciplinary action against a professional license or disqualified from professional licensure for any civil or criminal judgment, discipline, or other sanction or threat imposed under the laws of another state as long as the actions are lawful and consistent with professional conduct and standards of care within the State of Colorado.

Purpose

The purpose of these emergency rules is to effectuate Executive Order D 2022 032 and Executive Order D 2022 034.

As stated in Executive Order D 2022 032, Colorado is experiencing workforce shortage in many professions, and disqualifying people because they were prosecuted for taking actions in other states that are fully legal under Colorado law would hurt our economy and our State.

Colorado is committed to protecting access to reproductive health care. No one who is lawfully providing, assisting, seeking, or obtaining reproductive health care in Colorado should be subject to legal liability or professional sanctions in Colorado or any other state, nor will Colorado cooperate with criminal or civil investigations for actions that are fully legal in Colorado.

As stated in Executive Order D 2022 034, employers are having difficulty recruiting and retaining qualified employees, many of whom need professional licenses. The exclusion of people from the workforce because of marijuana-related activities that are lawful in Colorado, but illegal in other states, hinders our economy and our State.

Justification

As set forth in Executive Order D 2022 032, the need exists to immediately protect access to reproductive health care in Colorado by promulgating rules ensuring no licensee, certificant, or registrant shall be subject to disciplinary action against a professional license or disqualified from professional licensure for providing or assisting in the provision of reproductive health care or as a consequence of any civil or criminal judgment, discipline, or other sanction threatened or imposed under the laws of another state so long as the care provided is lawful and consistent with professional conduct and standards of care within the State of Colorado.

As set forth in Executive Order D 2022 034, the Order ensures that all Coloradans are afforded protections and rights under Colorado law.

Pursuant to section 24-4-103(6)(a), C.R.S., a temporary or emergency rule may be adopted without compliance with section 24-4-103(4),C.R.S., which requires the agency to hold a public hearing "at which it shall afford interested persons an opportunity to submit written a data, views, or arguments and to present the same orally"; and with less than the twenty days' notice set forth in section 24-4-103(3), C.R.S., or without notice where circumstances imperatively require, only if the agency finds that "[i]mmediate adoption of the rule is imperatively necessary to comply with a state or federal law or federal regulation or for preservation of the public health, safety or welfare and compliance with the requirements of this section would be contrary to the public interest." Such findings must be made on the record.

The Regulator, as defined in section 12-20-102(14), C.R.S., hereby finds the immediate adoption of these emergency rules is imperatively necessary to comply with Executive Order D 2022 032, to protect access to reproductive health care in Colorado. The adoption of emergency rules is imperatively necessary for the preservation of the public health, safety, and welfare, and cannot wait the several months required for permanent rulemaking and therefore emergency rules are appropriate pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act.

The Regulator finds, as required by section 24-4-103(4)(b), C.R.S., that the need for the emergency rulemaking exists; the proper constitutional and/or statutory authority exists for the rules; to the extent practicable, the rules are clearly and simply stated so that their meaning will be understood by any required to comply with the rules; the rules do not conflict with other provisions of the law; and any duplication or overlapping of the rules, if any, has been explained.

These temporary/emergency rules take effect October 4, 2022, and remain in effect for up to a maximum of 120 days after adoption of these temporary/emergency rules.

STATEMENT OF BASIS, PURPOSE and JUSTIFICATION for EMERGENCY RULE

On July 14, 2022, Colorado Governor Jared Polis ("Governor") signed Executive Order D 2022 034, "Protecting Colorado's Workforce and Expanding Licensing Opportunities."

Basis

The basis for this rule is Executive Order D 2022 034.

Through Executive Order D 2022 034, Governor Jared Polis directed the Department of Regulatory Agencies to work with all programs and boards of professional licensure operating under its purview to promulgate and issue rules as necessary to ensure that no person shall be subject to disciplinary action against a professional license or disqualified from professional licensure for any civil or criminal judgment, discipline, or other sanction or threat imposed under the laws of another state as long as the actions are lawful and consistent with professional conduct and standards of care within the State of Colorado.

Purpose

The purpose of this emergency rule is to effectuate Executive Order D 2022 034.

The exclusion of people from the workforce because of marijuana-related activities that are lawful in Colorado, but illegal in other states, hinders our economy and our State.

Justification

As set forth in Executive Order D 2022 034, the Order ensures that all Coloradans are afforded protections and rights under Colorado law.

Pursuant to section 24-4-103(6)(a), C.R.S., a temporary or emergency rule may be adopted without compliance with section 24-4-103(4),C.R.S., which requires the agency to hold a public hearing "at which it shall afford interested persons an opportunity to submit written a data, views, or arguments and to present the same orally"; and with less than the twenty days' notice set forth in section 24-4-103(3), C.R.S., or without notice where circumstances imperatively require, only if the agency finds that "[i]mmediate adoption of the rule is imperatively necessary to comply with a state or federal law or federal regulation or for preservation of the public health, safety or welfare and compliance with the requirements of this section would be contrary to the public interest." Such findings must be made on the record.

The Regulator, as defined in section 12-20-102(14), C.R.S., hereby finds the immediate adoption of this emergency rule is imperatively necessary to comply with Executive Order D

2022 034, to protect Colorado's Workforce and Expanding Licensing Opportunities. The adoption of this emergency rule is imperatively necessary for the preservation of the public welfare, and cannot wait the several months required for permanent rulemaking and therefore an emergency rule is appropriate pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act.

The Regulator finds, as required by section 24-4-103(4)(b), C.R.S., that the need for the emergency rulemaking exists; the proper constitutional and/or statutory authority exists for the rule; to the extent practicable, the rule is clearly and simply stated so that their meaning will be understood by any required to comply with the rule; the rule does not conflict with other provisions of the law; and any duplication or overlapping of the rule, if any, has been explained.

This temporary/emergency rule take effect September 28, 2022, and remain in effect for up to a maximum of 120 days after adoption of these temporary/emergency rules.

STATEMENT OF BASIS, PURPOSE and JUSTIFICATION for EMERGENCY RULES

On July 6, 2022, Colorado Governor Jared Polis ("Governor") signed Executive Order D 2022 032, "Directing State Agencies to Protecting Access to Reproductive Health Care in Colorado."

Basis

The basis for this rule is Executive Order D 2022 032.

Through Executive Order D 2022 032, Governor Jared Polis directed all state agencies not to share any information or data, including patient medical records, patient-level data or related billing information, or expend time, money, facilities property, equipment, personnel, or other resources to assist or further any investigation or proceeding initiated in or by another state that seeks to impose criminal or civil liability or professional sanction upon a person for conduct that would be legal in Colorado related to providing, assisting, seeking, or obtaining reproductive health care, unless pursuant to a court order.

Governor Jared Polis also directed the Department of Regulatory Agencies (DORA) to work with all programs and boards of professional licensure operating under its purview to promulgate and issue necessary rules that will ensure that no person shall be subject to a disciplinary action against a professional license or disqualified from professional licensure for providing or assisting in the provision of reproductive health care or as a consequence of any civil or criminal judgment, discipline, or other sanction threatened or imposed under the laws of another state so long as the care as provided is consistent with professional conduct and standards of care within the State of Colorado.

Purpose

The purpose of this emergency rule is to effectuate Executive Order D 2022 032.

As stated in Executive Order D 2022 032, Colorado is experiencing workforce shortage in many professions, and disqualifying people because they were prosecuted for taking actions in other states that are fully legal under Colorado law would hurt our economy and our State. Colorado is committed to protecting access to reproductive health care. No one who is lawfully providing, assisting, seeking, or obtaining reproductive health care in Colorado should be subject to legal liability or professional sanctions in Colorado or any other state, nor will Colorado cooperate with criminal or civil investigations for actions that are fully legal in Colorado.

Justification

As set forth in Executive Order D 2022 032, the need exists to immediately protect access to reproductive health care in Colorado by promulgating rules ensuring no licensee, certificant, or registrant shall be subject to disciplinary action against a professional license or disqualified from professional licensure for providing or assisting in the provision of reproductive health care or as a consequence of any civil or criminal judgment, discipline, or other sanction threatened or imposed under the laws of another state so long as the care provided is lawful and consistent with professional conduct and standards of care within the State of Colorado.

Pursuant to section 24-4-103(6)(a), C.R.S., a temporary or emergency rule may be adopted without compliance with section 24-4-103(4),C.R.S., which requires the agency to hold a public hearing "at which it shall afford interested persons an opportunity to submit written a data, views, or arguments and to present the same orally"; and with less than the twenty days' notice set forth in section 24-4-103(3), C.R.S., or without notice where circumstances imperatively require, only if the agency finds that "[i]mmediate adoption of the rule is imperatively necessary to comply with a state or federal law or federal regulation or for preservation of the public health, safety or welfare and compliance with the requirements of this section would be contrary to the public interest." Such findings must be made on the record.

The Regulator, as defined in section 12-20-102(14), C.R.S., hereby finds the immediate adoption of this emergency rule is imperatively necessary to comply with Executive Order D 2022 032, to protect access to reproductive health care in Colorado. The adoption of this emergency rule is imperatively necessary for the preservation of the public health, safety, and welfare, and cannot wait the several months required for permanent rulemaking and therefore emergency rules are appropriate pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act.

The Regulator finds, as required by section 24-4-103(4)(b), C.R.S., that the need for the emergency rulemaking exists; the proper constitutional and/or statutory authority exists for the rule; to the extent practicable, the rule is clearly and simply stated so that its meaning will be understood by any required to comply with the rule; the rule does not conflict with other provisions of the law; and any duplication or overlapping of the rule, if any, has been explained.

This temporary/emergency rule takes effect October 6, 2022, and remain in effect for up to a maximum of 120 days after adoption of this temporary/emergency rule.

STATEMENT OF BASIS, PURPOSE and JUSTIFICATION for EMERGENCY RULES

On July 14, 2022, Colorado Governor Jared Polis ("Governor") signed Executive Order D 2022 034, "Protecting Colorado's Workforce and Expanding Licensing Opportunities."

Basis

The basis for this rule is Executive Order D 2022 034.

Through Executive Order D 2022 034, Governor Jared Polis directed the Department of Regulatory Agencies to work with all programs and boards of professional licensure operating under its purview to promulgate and issue rules as necessary to ensure that no person shall be subject to disciplinary action against a professional license or disqualified from professional licensure for any civil or criminal judgment, discipline, or other sanction or threat imposed under the laws of another state as long as the actions are lawful and consistent with professional conduct and standards of care within the State of Colorado.

Purpose

The purpose of this emergency rule is to effectuate Executive Order D 2022 034.

As stated in Executive Order D 2022 034, employers are having difficulty recruiting and retaining qualified employees, many of whom need professional licenses. The exclusion of people from the workforce because of marijuana-related activities that are lawful in Colorado, but illegal in other states, hinders our economy and our State.

Justification

As set forth in Executive Order D 2022 034, the Order ensures that all Coloradans are afforded protections and rights under Colorado law.

Pursuant to section 24-4-103(6)(a), C.R.S., a temporary or emergency rule may be adopted without compliance with section 24-4-103(4),C.R.S., which requires the agency to hold a public hearing "at which it shall afford interested persons an opportunity to submit written a data, views, or arguments and to present the same orally"; and with less than the twenty days' notice set forth in section 24-4-103(3), C.R.S., or without notice where circumstances imperatively require, only if the agency finds that "[i]mmediate adoption of the rule is imperatively necessary to comply with a state or federal law or federal regulation or for preservation of the public health, safety or welfare and compliance with the requirements of this section would be contrary to the public interest." Such findings must be made on the record.

The Regulator, as defined in section 12-20-102(14), C.R.S., hereby finds the immediate adoption of this emergency rule is imperatively necessary to comply with Executive Order D

2022 034, to protect Colorado's workforce and expand licensing opportunities. The adoption of this emergency rule is imperatively necessary for the preservation of the public health, safety, and welfare, and cannot wait the several months required for permanent rulemaking and therefore an emergency rule is appropriate pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act.

The Regulator finds, as required by section 24-4-103(4)(b), C.R.S., that the need for the emergency rulemaking exists; the proper constitutional and/or statutory authority exists for the rule; to the extent practicable, the rule is clearly and simply stated so that its meaning will be understood by any required to comply with the rule; the rule does not conflict with other provisions of the law; and any duplication or overlapping of the rule, if any, has been explained.

This temporary/emergency rule take effect October 6, 2022, and remain in effect for up to a maximum of 120 days after adoption of this temporary/emergency rule.

STATEMENT OF BASIS, PURPOSE and JUSTIFICATION for EMERGENCY RULES

On July 6, 2022, Colorado Governor Jared Polis ("Governor") signed Executive Order D 2022 032, "Directing State Agencies to Protecting Access to Reproductive Health Care in Colorado."

On July 14, 2022, Colorado Governor Jared Polis ("Governor") signed Executive Order D 2022 034, "Protecting Colorado's Workforce and Expanding Licensing Opportunities."

Basis

The basis for these rules is Executive Order D 2022 032 and Executive Order D 2022 034.

Through Executive Order D 2022 032, Governor Jared Polis directed all state agencies not to share any information or data, including patient medical records, patient-level data or related billing information, or expend time, money, facilities property, equipment, personnel, or other resources to assist or further any investigation or proceeding initiated in or by another state that seeks to impose criminal or civil liability or professional sanction upon a person for conduct that would be legal in Colorado related to providing, assisting, seeking, or obtaining reproductive health care, unless pursuant to a court order.

Governor Jared Polis also directed the Department of Regulatory Agencies (DORA) to work with all programs and boards of professional licensure operating under its purview to promulgate and issue necessary rules that will ensure that no person shall be subject to a disciplinary action against a professional license or disqualified from professional licensure for providing or assisting in the provision of reproductive health care or as a consequence of any civil or criminal judgment, discipline, or other sanction threatened or imposed under the laws of another state so long as the care as provided is consistent with professional conduct and standards of care within the State of Colorado.

Through Executive Order D 2022 034, Governor Jared Polis directed the Department of Regulatory Agencies to work with all programs and boards of professional licensure operating under its purview to promulgate and issue rules as necessary to ensure that no person shall be subject to disciplinary action against a professional license or disqualified from professional licensure for any civil or criminal judgment, discipline, or other sanction or threat imposed under the laws of another state as long as the actions are lawful and consistent with professional conduct and standards of care within the State of Colorado.

Purpose

The purpose of these emergency rules is to effectuate Executive Order D 2022 032 and Executive Order D 2022 034.

As stated in Executive Order D 2022 032, Colorado is experiencing workforce shortage in many professions, and disqualifying people because they were prosecuted for taking actions in other states that are fully legal under Colorado law would hurt our economy and our State.

Colorado is committed to protecting access to reproductive health care. No one who is lawfully providing, assisting, seeking, or obtaining reproductive health care in Colorado should be subject to legal liability or professional sanctions in Colorado or any other state, nor will Colorado cooperate with criminal or civil investigations for actions that are fully legal in Colorado.

As stated in Executive Order D 2022 034, employers are having difficulty recruiting and retaining qualified employees, many of whom need professional licenses. The exclusion of people from the workforce because of marijuana-related activities that are lawful in Colorado, but illegal in other states, hinders our economy and our State.

Justification

As set forth in Executive Order D 2022 032, the need exists to immediately protect access to reproductive health care in Colorado by promulgating rules ensuring no licensee, certificant, or registrant shall be subject to disciplinary action against a professional license or disqualified from professional licensure for providing or assisting in the provision of reproductive health care or as a consequence of any civil or criminal judgment, discipline, or other sanction threatened or imposed under the laws of another state so long as the care provided is lawful and consistent with professional conduct and standards of care within the State of Colorado.

As set forth in Executive Order D 2022 034, the Order ensures that all Coloradans are afforded protections and rights under Colorado law.

Pursuant to section 24-4-103(6)(a), C.R.S., a temporary or emergency rule may be adopted without compliance with section 24-4-103(4),C.R.S., which requires the agency to hold a public hearing "at which it shall afford interested persons an opportunity to submit written a data, views, or arguments and to present the same orally"; and with less than the twenty days' notice set forth in section 24-4-103(3), C.R.S., or without notice where circumstances imperatively require, only if the agency finds that "[i]mmediate adoption of the rule is imperatively necessary to comply with a state or federal law or federal regulation or for preservation of the public health, safety or welfare and compliance with the requirements of this section would be contrary to the public interest." Such findings must be made on the record.

The Regulator, as defined in section 12-20-102(14), C.R.S., hereby finds the immediate adoption of these emergency rules is imperatively necessary to comply with Executive Order D 2022 032, to protect access to reproductive health care in Colorado. The adoption of emergency rules is imperatively necessary for the preservation of the public health, safety, and welfare, and cannot wait the several months required for permanent rulemaking and therefore emergency rules are appropriate pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act.

The Regulator finds, as required by section 24-4-103(4)(b), C.R.S., that the need for the emergency rulemaking exists; the proper constitutional and/or statutory authority exists for the rules; to the extent practicable, the rules are clearly and simply stated so that their meaning will be understood by any required to comply with the rules; the rules do not conflict with other provisions of the law; and any duplication or overlapping of the rules, if any, has been explained.

These temporary/emergency rules take effect October 7, 2022, and remain in effect for up to a maximum of 120 days after adoption of these temporary/emergency rules.

STATEMENT OF BASIS, PURPOSE and JUSTIFICATION for EMERGENCY RULES

On July 6, 2022, Colorado Governor Jared Polis ("Governor") signed Executive Order D 2022 032, "Directing State Agencies to Protecting Access to Reproductive Health Care in Colorado."

On July 14, 2022, Colorado Governor Jared Polis ("Governor") signed Executive Order D 2022 034, "Protecting Colorado's Workforce and Expanding Licensing Opportunities."

Basis

The basis for these rules is Executive Order D 2022 032 and Executive Order D 2022 034.

Through Executive Order D 2022 032, Governor Jared Polis directed all state agencies not to share any information or data, including patient medical records, patient-level data or related billing information, or expend time, money, facilities property, equipment, personnel, or other resources to assist or further any investigation or proceeding initiated in or by another state that seeks to impose criminal or civil liability or professional sanction upon a person for conduct that would be legal in Colorado related to providing, assisting, seeking, or obtaining reproductive health care, unless pursuant to a court order.

Governor Jared Polis also directed the Department of Regulatory Agencies (DORA) to work with all programs and boards of professional licensure operating under its purview to promulgate and issue necessary rules that will ensure that no person shall be subject to a disciplinary action against a professional license or disqualified from professional licensure for providing or assisting in the provision of reproductive health care or as a consequence of any civil or criminal judgment, discipline, or other sanction threatened or imposed under the laws of another state so long as the care as provided is consistent with professional conduct and standards of care within the State of Colorado.

Through Executive Order D 2022 034, Governor Jared Polis directed the Department of Regulatory Agencies to work with all programs and boards of professional licensure operating under its purview to promulgate and issue rules as necessary to ensure that no person shall be subject to disciplinary action against a professional license or disqualified from professional licensure for any civil or criminal judgment, discipline, or other sanction or threat imposed under the laws of another state as long as the actions are lawful and consistent with professional conduct and standards of care within the State of Colorado.

Purpose

The purpose of these emergency rules is to effectuate Executive Order D 2022 032 and Executive Order D 2022 034.

As stated in Executive Order D 2022 032, Colorado is experiencing workforce shortage in many professions, and disqualifying people because they were prosecuted for taking actions in other states that are fully legal under Colorado law would hurt our economy and our State.

Colorado is committed to protecting access to reproductive health care. No one who is lawfully providing, assisting, seeking, or obtaining reproductive health care in Colorado should be subject to legal liability or professional sanctions in Colorado or any other state, nor will Colorado cooperate with criminal or civil investigations for actions that are fully legal in Colorado.

As stated in Executive Order D 2022 034, employers are having difficulty recruiting and retaining qualified employees, many of whom need professional licenses. The exclusion of people from the workforce because of marijuana-related activities that are lawful in Colorado, but illegal in other states, hinders our economy and our State.

Justification

As set forth in Executive Order D 2022 032, the need exists to immediately protect access to reproductive health care in Colorado by promulgating rules ensuring no licensee, certificant, or registrant shall be subject to disciplinary action against a professional license or disqualified from professional licensure for providing or assisting in the provision of reproductive health care or as a consequence of any civil or criminal judgment, discipline, or other sanction threatened or imposed under the laws of another state so long as the care provided is lawful and consistent with professional conduct and standards of care within the State of Colorado.

As set forth in Executive Order D 2022 034, the Order ensures that all Coloradans are afforded protections and rights under Colorado law.

Pursuant to section 24-4-103(6)(a), C.R.S., a temporary or emergency rule may be adopted without compliance with section 24-4-103(4),C.R.S., which requires the agency to hold a public hearing "at which it shall afford interested persons an opportunity to submit written a data, views, or arguments and to present the same orally"; and with less than the twenty days' notice set forth in section 24-4-103(3), C.R.S., or without notice where circumstances imperatively require, only if the agency finds that "[i]mmediate adoption of the rule is imperatively necessary to comply with a state or federal law or federal regulation or for preservation of the public health, safety or welfare and compliance with the requirements of this section would be contrary to the public interest." Such findings must be made on the record.

The Regulator, as defined in section 12-20-102(14), C.R.S., hereby finds the immediate adoption of these emergency rules is imperatively necessary to comply with Executive Order D 2022 032, to protect access to reproductive health care in Colorado. The adoption of emergency rules is imperatively necessary for the preservation of the public health, safety, and welfare, and cannot wait the several months required for permanent rulemaking and therefore emergency rules are appropriate pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act.

The Regulator finds, as required by section 24-4-103(4)(b), C.R.S., that the need for the emergency rulemaking exists; the proper constitutional and/or statutory authority exists for the rules; to the extent practicable, the rules are clearly and simply stated so that their meaning will be understood by any required to comply with the rules; the rules do not conflict with other provisions of the law; and any duplication or overlapping of the rules, if any, has been explained.

These temporary/emergency rules take effect October 5, 2022, and remain in effect for up to a maximum of 120 days after adoption of these temporary/emergency rules.

STATEMENT OF BASIS, PURPOSE and JUSTIFICATION for EMERGENCY RULE

On July 14, 2022, Colorado Governor Jared Polis ("Governor") signed Executive Order D 2022 034, "Protecting Colorado's Workforce and Expanding Licensing Opportunities."

Basis

The basis for this rule is Executive Order D 2022 034.

Through Executive Order D 2022 034, Governor Jared Polis directed the Department of Regulatory Agencies to work with all programs and boards of professional licensure operating under its purview to promulgate and issue rules as necessary to ensure that no person shall be subject to disciplinary action against a professional license or disqualified from professional licensure for any civil or criminal judgment, discipline, or other sanction or threat imposed under the laws of another state as long as the actions are lawful and consistent with professional conduct and standards of care within the State of Colorado.

Purpose

The purpose of this emergency rule is to effectuate Executive Order D 2022 034.

As stated in Executive Order D 2022 034, employers are having difficulty recruiting and retaining qualified employees, many of whom need professional licenses. The exclusion of people from the workforce because of marijuana-related activities that are lawful in Colorado, but illegal in other states, hinders our economy and our State.

Justification

As set forth in Executive Order D 2022 034, the Order ensures that all Coloradans are afforded protections and rights under Colorado law.

Pursuant to section 24-4-103(6)(a), C.R.S., a temporary or emergency rule may be adopted without compliance with section 24-4-103(4),C.R.S., which requires the agency to hold a public hearing "at which it shall afford interested persons an opportunity to submit written a data, views, or arguments and to present the same orally"; and with less than the twenty days' notice set forth in section 24-4-103(3), C.R.S., or without notice where circumstances imperatively require, only if the agency finds that "[i]mmediate adoption of the rule is imperatively necessary to comply with a state or federal law or federal regulation or for preservation of the public health, safety or welfare and compliance with the requirements of this section would be contrary to the public interest." Such findings must be made on the record.

The Regulator, as defined in section 12-20-102(14), C.R.S., hereby finds the immediate adoption of this emergency rule is imperatively necessary to comply with Executive Order D

2022 034, to protect Colorado's Workforce and Expanding Licensing Opportunities. The adoption of this emergency rule is imperatively necessary for the preservation of the public welfare, and cannot wait the several months required for permanent rulemaking and therefore an emergency rule is appropriate pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act.

The Regulator finds, as required by section 24-4-103(4)(b), C.R.S., that the need for the emergency rulemaking exists; the proper constitutional and/or statutory authority exists for the rule; to the extent practicable, the rule is clearly and simply stated so that their meaning will be understood by any required to comply with the rule; the rule does not conflict with other provisions of the law; and any duplication or overlapping of the rule, if any, has been explained.

This temporary/emergency rule take effect October 14, 2022, and remain in effect for up to a maximum of 120 days after adoption of these temporary/emergency rules.

STATEMENT OF BASIS, PURPOSE and JUSTIFICATION for EMERGENCY RULES

On July 6, 2022, Colorado Governor Jared Polis ("Governor") signed Executive Order D 2022 032, "Directing State Agencies to Protecting Access to Reproductive Health Care in Colorado."

On July 14, 2022, Colorado Governor Jared Polis ("Governor") signed Executive Order D 2022 034, "Protecting Colorado's Workforce and Expanding Licensing Opportunities."

Basis

The basis for these rules is Executive Order D 2022 032 and Executive Order D 2022 034.

Through Executive Order D 2022 032, Governor Jared Polis directed all state agencies not to share any information or data, including patient medical records, patient-level data or related billing information, or expend time, money, facilities property, equipment, personnel, or other resources to assist or further any investigation or proceeding initiated in or by another state that seeks to impose criminal or civil liability or professional sanction upon a person for conduct that would be legal in Colorado related to providing, assisting, seeking, or obtaining reproductive health care, unless pursuant to a court order.

Governor Jared Polis also directed the Department of Regulatory Agencies (DORA) to work with all programs and boards of professional licensure operating under its purview to promulgate and issue necessary rules that will ensure that no person shall be subject to a disciplinary action against a professional license or disqualified from professional licensure for providing or assisting in the provision of reproductive health care or as a consequence of any civil or criminal judgment, discipline, or other sanction threatened or imposed under the laws of another state so long as the care as provided is consistent with professional conduct and standards of care within the State of Colorado.

Through Executive Order D 2022 034, Governor Jared Polis directed the Department of Regulatory Agencies to work with all programs and boards of professional licensure operating under its purview to promulgate and issue rules as necessary to ensure that no person shall be subject to disciplinary action against a professional license or disqualified from professional licensure for any civil or criminal judgment, discipline, or other sanction or threat imposed under the laws of another state as long as the actions are lawful and consistent with professional conduct and standards of care within the State of Colorado.

Purpose

The purpose of these emergency rules is to effectuate Executive Order D 2022 032 and Executive Order D 2022 034.

As stated in Executive Order D 2022 032, Colorado is experiencing workforce shortage in many professions, and disqualifying people because they were prosecuted for taking actions in other states that are fully legal under Colorado law would hurt our economy and our State.

Colorado is committed to protecting access to reproductive health care. No one who is lawfully providing, assisting, seeking, or obtaining reproductive health care in Colorado should be subject to legal liability or professional sanctions in Colorado or any other state, nor will Colorado cooperate with criminal or civil investigations for actions that are fully legal in Colorado.

As stated in Executive Order D 2022 034, employers are having difficulty recruiting and retaining qualified employees, many of whom need professional licenses. The exclusion of people from the workforce because of marijuana-related activities that are lawful in Colorado, but illegal in other states, hinders our economy and our State.

Justification

As set forth in Executive Order D 2022 032, the need exists to immediately protect access to reproductive health care in Colorado by promulgating rules ensuring no licensee, certificant, or registrant shall be subject to disciplinary action against a professional license or disqualified from professional licensure for providing or assisting in the provision of reproductive health care or as a consequence of any civil or criminal judgment, discipline, or other sanction threatened or imposed under the laws of another state so long as the care provided is lawful and consistent with professional conduct and standards of care within the State of Colorado.

As set forth in Executive Order D 2022 034, the Order ensures that all Coloradans are afforded protections and rights under Colorado law.

Pursuant to section 24-4-103(6)(a), C.R.S., a temporary or emergency rule may be adopted without compliance with section 24-4-103(4),C.R.S., which requires the agency to hold a public hearing "at which it shall afford interested persons an opportunity to submit written a data, views, or arguments and to present the same orally"; and with less than the twenty days' notice set forth in section 24-4-103(3), C.R.S., or without notice where circumstances imperatively require, only if the agency finds that "[i]mmediate adoption of the rule is imperatively necessary to comply with a state or federal law or federal regulation or for preservation of the public health, safety or welfare and compliance with the requirements of this section would be contrary to the public interest." Such findings must be made on the record.

The Regulator, as defined in section 12-20-102(14), C.R.S., hereby finds the immediate adoption of these emergency rules is imperatively necessary to comply with Executive Order D 2022 032, to protect access to reproductive health care in Colorado. The adoption of emergency rules is imperatively necessary for the preservation of the public health, safety, and welfare, and cannot wait the several months required for permanent rulemaking and therefore emergency rules are appropriate pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act.

The Regulator finds, as required by section 24-4-103(4)(b), C.R.S., that the need for the emergency rulemaking exists; the proper constitutional and/or statutory authority exists for the rules; to the extent practicable, the rules are clearly and simply stated so that their meaning will be understood by any required to comply with the rules; the rules do not conflict with other provisions of the law; and any duplication or overlapping of the rules, if any, has been explained.

These temporary/emergency rules take effect October 13, 2022, and remain in effect for up to a maximum of 120 days after adoption of these temporary/emergency rules.

STATEMENT OF BASIS, PURPOSE and JUSTIFICATION for EMERGENCY RULE

On July 14, 2022, Colorado Governor Jared Polis ("Governor") signed Executive Order D 2022 034, "Protecting Colorado's Workforce and Expanding Licensing Opportunities."

Basis

The basis for this rule is Executive Order D 2022 034.

Through Executive Order D 2022 034, Governor Jared Polis directed the Department of Regulatory Agencies to work with all programs and boards of professional licensure operating under its purview to promulgate and issue rules as necessary to ensure that no person shall be subject to disciplinary action against a professional license or disqualified from professional licensure for any civil or criminal judgment, discipline, or other sanction or threat imposed under the laws of another state as long as the actions are lawful and consistent with professional conduct and standards of care within the State of Colorado.

Purpose

The purpose of this emergency rule is to effectuate Executive Order D 2022 034.

As stated in Executive Order D 2022 034, employers are having difficulty recruiting and retaining qualified employees, many of whom need professional licenses. The exclusion of people from the workforce because of marijuana-related activities that are lawful in Colorado, but illegal in other states, hinders our economy and our State.

Justification

As set forth in Executive Order D 2022 034, the Order ensures that all Coloradans are afforded protections and rights under Colorado law.

Pursuant to section 24-4-103(6)(a), C.R.S., a temporary or emergency rule may be adopted without compliance with section 24-4-103(4),C.R.S., which requires the agency to hold a public hearing "at which it shall afford interested persons an opportunity to submit written a data, views, or arguments and to present the same orally"; and with less than the twenty days' notice set forth in section 24-4-103(3), C.R.S., or without notice where circumstances imperatively require, only if the agency finds that "[i]mmediate adoption of the rule is imperatively necessary to comply with a state or federal law or federal regulation or for preservation of the public health, safety or welfare and compliance with the requirements of this section would be contrary to the public interest." Such findings must be made on the record.

The Regulator, as defined in section 12-20-102(14), C.R.S., hereby finds the immediate adoption of this emergency rule is imperatively necessary to comply with Executive Order D

2022 034, to protect Colorado's Workforce and Expanding Licensing Opportunities. The adoption of this emergency rule is imperatively necessary for the preservation of the public welfare, and cannot wait the several months required for permanent rulemaking and therefore an emergency rule is appropriate pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act.

The Regulator finds, as required by section 24-4-103(4)(b), C.R.S., that the need for the emergency rulemaking exists; the proper constitutional and/or statutory authority exists for the rule; to the extent practicable, the rule is clearly and simply stated so that their meaning will be understood by any required to comply with the rule; the rule does not conflict with other provisions of the law; and any duplication or overlapping of the rule, if any, has been explained.

This temporary/emergency rule take effect October 12, 2022, and remain in effect for up to a maximum of 120 days after adoption of these temporary/emergency rules.

October 28, 2022

Attention: Colorado Secretary of State

Pursuant to § 2-7-203, C.R.S., the Community Access Enterprise (CAE), housed within the Colorado Energy Office (CEO) submits this letter as its departmental regulatory agenda. On March 10, 2022, the CAE board of directors unanimously voted to establish the "Community Access Retail Delivery Fee" as codified in 8 CCR 1501-10. The CAE has limited rulemaking authority and is only authorized to initiate rulemaking proceedings to set the retail delivery fee. The regulation became effective on July 1, 2022. The fee applies to retail deliveries of tangible personal property statewide and is administered by the Department of Revenue. The fee is applied in the same manner as the collection, administration, and enforcement of state sales tax as outlined in § 43-4-218(6), C.R.S.

The Department of Revenue aggregates the Community Access Enterprise, the Nonattainment Area Air Pollution Mitigation Enterprise, Clean Fleet Enterprise, Statewide Bridge and Tunnel Enterprise, and Clean Transit Enterprise's individual retail delivery fees as one line item on consumer receipts. § 43-4-218(4), C.R.S. The aggregated fee is a line item on each receipt described as "retail delivery fees" and the Department of Revenue ensures the appropriate portion of the aggregated fee is credited to the Enterprise.

The CAE's enabling statute required that the Enterprise establish the fee, and permits the Enterprise, with assistance from the Department of Revenue, to annually adjust the fee for inflation. This annual inflation does not require any subsequent rulemaking. The CAE's enabling statute references § 43-4-218(3), C.R.S. which explains that the Department of Revenue "shall adjust the amount of the retail delivery fee for retail deliveries of tangible personal property purchased during a state fiscal year only if inflation is positive and cumulative inflation…will result in an increase of at least one whole cent in the total amount of the retail delivery fee and all enterprise retail delivery fees imposed on each retail delivery." Any future adjustments for inflation will occur through the Department of Revenue's processes. The CAE does not intend to adjust the base retail delivery fee in a rulemaking at this time.

Sincerely,

Carrie Atiyeh, Community Access Enterprise Board Administrator

The Colorado Department of Agriculture submits the following 2023 Regulatory Agenda in fulfillment of the statutory requirements set forth in Colo. Rev. Stat. §2-7-203(4). Pursuant to state law, annually on November 1 executive-branch agencies must file a Departmental Regulatory Agenda (DRA) containing:

- A list of new rules or amendments that the department or its divisions expect to propose in the next calendar year;
- The statutory or other basis for adoption of the proposed rules;
- The purpose of the proposed rules;
- The contemplated schedule for adoption of the rules;
- An identification and listing of persons or parties that may be affected positively or negatively by the rules; and
- A list and brief summary of all permanent and temporary rules adopted since the previous DRA was filed.

The Regulatory Agenda also includes, pursuant to Colo. Rev. Stat. §24-4-103.3, rules to be reviewed as part of the Department's "Regulatory Efficiencies Reviews" during 2023 (which are denoted as such in the "purpose" column). The DRA is to be filed with Legislative Council staff for distribution to committee(s) of reference, posted on the department's web site, and submitted to the Secretary of State for publication in the Colorado Register. Each department must also present its DRA as part of its "SMART Act" hearing and presentation pursuant to Colo. Rev. Stat. §2-7-203(2)(a)(II).

The following constitutes the Department of Agriculture's Regulatory Agenda for 2023 and is provided in accordance with Colo. Rev. Stat. §24-7-203(2)(a)(IV).

The Colorado Department of Agriculture also submits the following 2022 Regulatory Agenda Report in fulfillment of the statutory requirements set forth in Colo. Rev. Stat. §2-7-203(4), detailing the results of the past year's rules review activity.

Re: Colorado Department of Early Childhood 2022 Regulatory Agenda and 2021 Regulatory Report

Representative Garnett, Senator Fenberg, and members of the General Assembly:

I am pleased to submit the first iteration of the Colorado Department of Early Childhood's (CDEC) 2022 Regulatory Agenda Report and 2023 Regulatory Agenda pursuant to C.R.S. § 2-7-203 (2022).[1] CDEC's 2023 Regulatory Agenda has also been submitted to the Colorado Secretary of State for publication in the Colorado Register, and will be posted to our website.

While we have only been a "Department" for a short four months, we have been hard at work and are happy to report on the progress made thus far regarding rulemaking activities, particularly related to the forthcoming Universal Preschool Program. Furthermore, we are equally excited to present our 2023 Agenda which serves as a roadmap for ensuring our existing programs continue to operate seamlessly, while also preparing for the implementation of our new programs.

Naturally, the task of relettering, amending, revising, and updating all of CDEC's related regulations is a somewhat daunting endeavor. Fortunately, it is one we have already made significant progress in. This puts CDEC in an advantageous position to continue to tackle these regulatory hurdles in a timely manner so that we may continue to offer the highest quality services that our children deserve, and our families have rightfully come to expect.

[1] As this is the Department of Early Childhood's first year as a state agency, we will not be including a mandatory review of rules pursuant to C.R.S. § 24-4-103.3(4) (2022), but will work on incorporating this in future years, in partnership with the Department of Regulatory Agencies.

Not unexpectedly, these processes have involved and require robust stakeholder engagement, and a summary of this is included in the Report as well. We are also prepared to discuss our 2022 Regulatory Agenda Report and 2023 Regulatory Agenda with the Department's joint committee of reference during our upcoming SMART Act hearing held pursuant to C.R.S. § 2-7-203(2)(a)(II) (2022).

Lastly, should you have any questions, comments, or concerns related to a specific rule or regulation, please do not hesitate to reach out to Kristina Heyl at kristina.heyl@state.co.us.

42	DOI	Ongoing through 2023	3 CCR 702 - 5	Workers' Compensation Deductible Reimbursement	Revision	§8-44-111 and §10-1-109, C.R.S.	Yes	Pursuant to § 8-44-111(3), C.R.S., Colorado is a net reporting state for workers' compensation insurance.This means that an employer's deductible up to the split point is subtracted from the amount of the loss per claim for the purpose of calculating the employer's experience modification factor. Many employers have not received the intended benefit of the deductible exclusion. Due to reporting requirements, insurers reported the full loss to the statistical agent because they had not actually received the deductible reimbursement from the employer. Frequently, insurers fail to correct their unit statistical reports to show the paid deductible amount, thereby depriving the employer of the benefit of the deduction. This rule eliminates the requirement of actual receipt of the deductible by insurers prior to reporting such deductible to the statistical agent for the purpose of calculating the experience modification factor.
