Earnings: No person shall possess any property right in or to the property or assets of the Corporation, nor shall any part of the Corporation’s net earnings inure to the benefit of any private member, shareholder or individual. No part of the net earnings or assets of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to, its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, with the exception that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered. The Corporation shall make payments and distributions to further the purposes set forth in these Articles and the Bylaws of the Corporation.

Distribution of Assets Upon Dissolution: No person shall possess any property right in or to the property or assets of the Corporation, nor shall any part of the Corporation’s net earnings inure to the benefit of any member, Director, Officer or individual.

In a manner not inconsistent with law regarding the distribution of assets upon dissolution, upon dissolution of this Corporation as provided in these Articles and the Bylaws of the Corporation, all assets remaining after payment of any and all outstanding liabilities shall be distributed to and among one or more charitable, religious, educational or scientific organizations which would then qualify as exempt organizations under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or to civic leagues and social welfare organizations which would then qualify as exempt organizations under the provisions of Section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code, or any successor law, as applicable; and to organizations which have purposes and objects similar to those of the Corporation, as determined by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The organizations to receive such property, and their respective shares and interests, shall be determined by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction for the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, in a manner not inconsistent with law regarding the distribution of assets upon dissolution and exclusively to organizations which have purposes and objects similar to those of the Corporation, or to such organization(s) as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
