

Catalog of IRS Exempt Organizations Products & Resources

The IRS developed this snapshot of virtual products and resources to help our partners quickly find information related to their particular area of interest.

We encourage our partners to share this information with their networks by adding these links and short descriptions to their websites.

IRS Charities & Non-Profit Homepage

Contains helpful tools and products for charities and non-profits. Recently revised, the site is easy to navigate using its A to Z Site Index and has a host of valuable information for exempt organizations. In addition, you will find the EO Select Check tool that allows you to search, sort, select and check information on exempt organizations.

IRS Free e-Newsletter

Subscribe to EO Update, the free IRS electronic newsletter that offers information for tax-exempt organizations and tax practitioners. EO Update keeps readers up-to-date on newsworthy topics about exempt organizations. All information contained in EO Update can be replicated in your newsletters and on your websites.

EO Calendar of Events

The IRS offers specialized education programs to help exempt organizations understand their tax responsibilities. These programs include webinars, phone forums, introductory workshops for small and medium-sized 501(c)(3) organizations, as well as exempt organization conferences sponsored by the IRS.

IRS Video Portal

The portal archives IRS webinars and phone forums on issues and topics that are important to the tax-exempt community.

IRS Life Cycles Tool

The Life Cycles describe five key IRS interaction points during the lifetime of a typical exempt organization. The stages include starting out, applying for exemption, required filings, ongoing compliance and significant events.

IRS StayExempt Website

This free, interactive, educational website offers 21 online courses, including how to apply for tax-exemption and how to avoid losing your tax-exempt status. It also includes a well-stocked Resource Library and links to IRS forms, publications and notices.