Provide here or in an attachment to this request your specific question, the provision of law to which the request relates, and a concise statement of all the facts necessary to show the nature of the controversy or uncertainty and the manner in which the law applies or potentially applies to the requestor. The Secretary of State will determine, at his or her discretion, whether to issue an advisory opinion. In making the determination, the Secretary of State will take into account (1) whether the advisory opinion will terminate a controversy or remove uncertainties as to the application to the requestor of any law; (2) whether the request involves a subject, question, or issue that is subject of a formal or informal matter or investigation currently pending before the Secretary of State or a court involving the requestor; (3) whether the petition involves any subject, question, or issue that is subject of a formal or informal matter or investigation currently pending before the Secretary of State or a court but not involving a requestor; and (4) whether the request seeks a ruling on a moot or hypothetical question.
