2) SB 19-181, reforming the regulation of the oil and gas industry in Colorado despite the voters’ defeat of Proposition 112’s drilling regulations;

3) HB 19-1032, mandating comprehensive human sexuality education and appropriating one million dollars annually in grant funds for its dissemination; and

4) HB 19-1177, creating the ability for a family or household member to petition the court for a temporary extreme risk protection order to prohibit an individual from possessing a firearm.
