Secretary Williams,

The requirement of the notary course and exam is a little excessive. Some notaries only preform interoffice notarizations on a very limited basis. I typically notarize documents one or two times per year, and sometimes none. In the past eight years, I've used less than one page of my notary record book. Perhaps the requirement could be more dependent on the number, or types of notarizations performed. It is strictly a free service we provide for our small clientele. I would likely allow my commission to expire and not renew, if this becomes a requirement.

Kind Regards,
Sherry Williams
