

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record.
Sincerely,

MARY TURNERBERG

Adams County Colorado

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

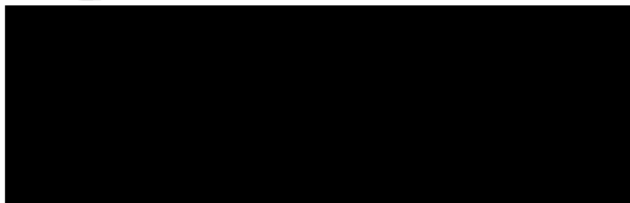

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

ED DARSON

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record.
Sincerely,

Debra Zimmerman

Bimmerman

Adams County

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

VICKI LONG

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Troy Blumantnal
Weld County, 80504

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record

Sincerely,

DIANE C. HUFF

City & Co Broomfield Co 80020

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Sherry L. Jones

Sherry L. Jones

Adams County

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Richard E. Dykstra

Richard E. Dykstra

Adams County, Co 80031

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Roger Bergamo

Roger Bergamo

Jefferson County

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

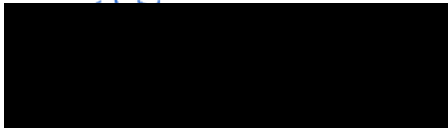

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Gregory D. Sicfkes

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record.
Sincerely,

MARGIE DYKSTRA
Margie Dykstra
Adams County, CO 80031

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

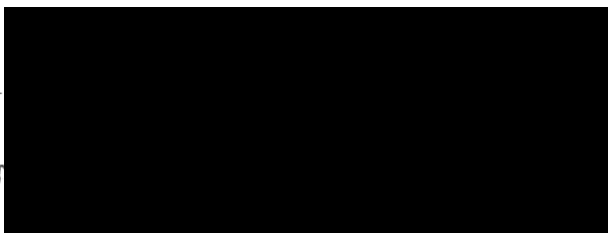

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record.
Sincerely,

Dale Larsen

Dale Larsen
Westminster

Jeff Co.

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Donald J. Sampson Jr.
JEFFERSON COUNTY

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record.
Sincerely,

Tommy Blumenthal
Weld County 80504

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

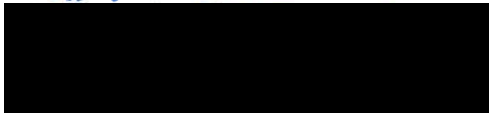

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record

Sincerely,

Russell Sefton
RUSSELL S SEFTON

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record,
Sincerely,

Kelli A. Colyer
 Kelli A. Colyer

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

M. Elaine Holcomb
Broomfield County

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

THIS RULE DOES NOT EVEN MEET THE STANDARDS OF THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT.
I AM A VETERAN, DO NOT HINDER THE MILITARY'S VOTING ABILITY WITH SUCH A SYSTEM WHICH CAN SO EASILY BE ALTERED.

THANK YOU,

ROBERT BROWNLEE
ADAMS COUNTY, COLORADO

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely, State Senator, Bruce E. Cairns

Bruce E. Cairns
Four St Sen #28
AURORA 80014

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record.
Sincerely,

Victoria Livingston

Victoria Livingston

Anapahse County

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

William Winebrunn

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record.

Sincerely,

GERALD L. HEPP

PS The Dept of Defense doesn't find email voting acceptable.

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Loretta J. Ferris

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

WILLIAM N GRANT.

DOUGLAS COUNTY

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

David Phipps

Arapahoe County

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Richard M. Reeser
Thornton, Adams County
Colorado

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record

Sincerely,

Alan Lascki

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record.
Sincerely,

Kent Fortson

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

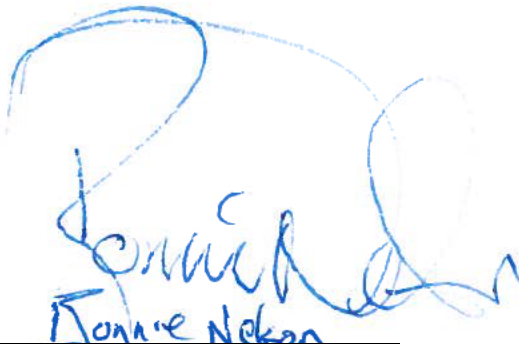

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Ronnie Nelson

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Regina Thomson

[Handwritten signature]

5-12-15

[Handwritten signature]

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record.
Sincerely,

Jack Corey

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record.
Sincerely,

Diane W. Ha

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Allen Cook

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

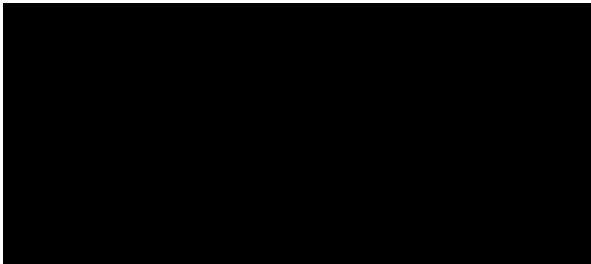

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record

Sincerely,

Samantha Grant

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

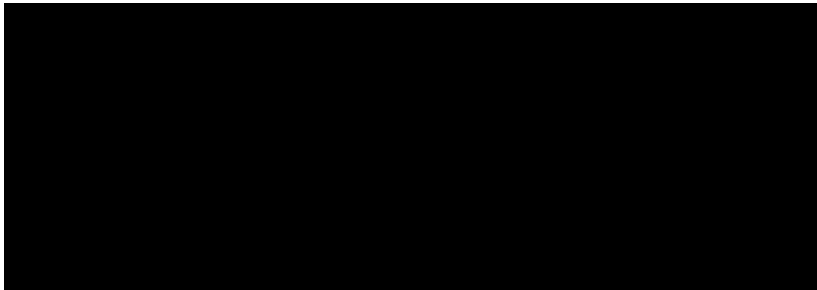

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record.
Sincerely,

CHRIS WEINMAN

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

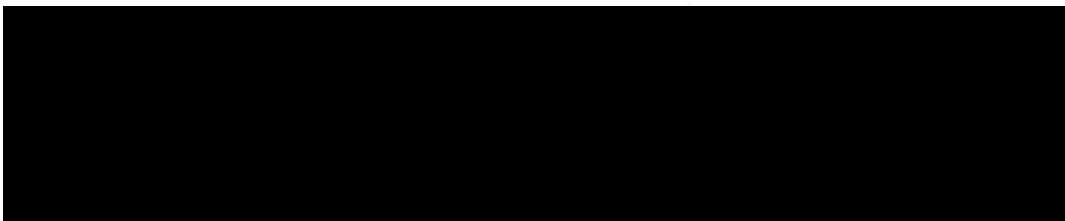

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the recor
Sincerely,

Doug Childress

DOUG CHILDRESS
JEFFERSON CITY

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

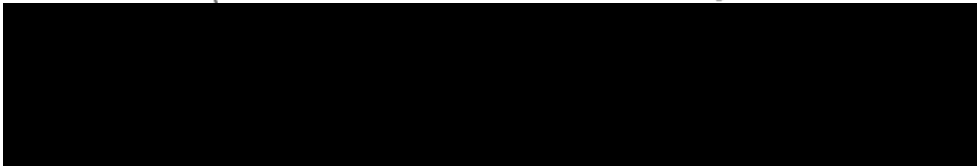

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Bradley A Rebers

Bruce A Rebers

Jefferson

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

DOUGLAS L OYE JR

DENVER COLO 80239

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

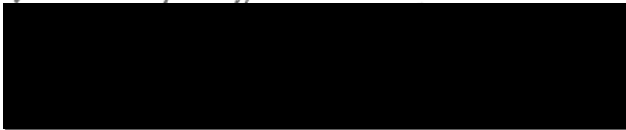

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record

Sincerely,

Nancy Gaporale
Nancy Gaporale

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

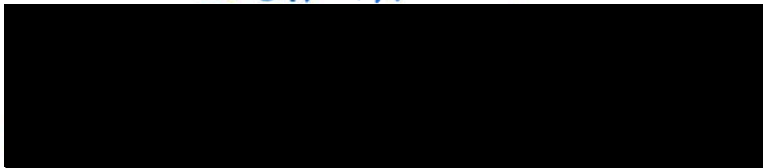

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record

Sincerely,

Denise Grant

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Kathleen Peterson

KATHLEEN PETERSON

Jefferson County

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Sharon K. Reed

Sharon K. Reed

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

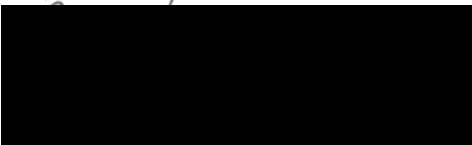

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Kathryn Welch

Kathryn Welch

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

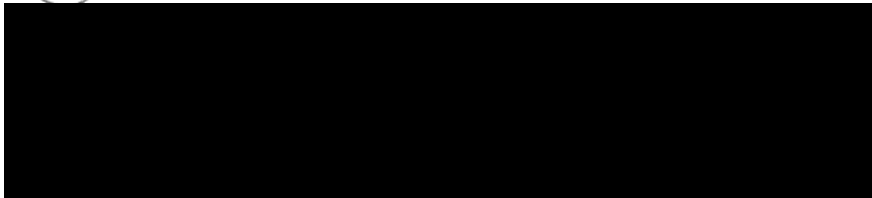

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
- Sincerely,

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the recor

Sincerely,

Jan S Healy

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record

Sincerely,

JOSEPH L LACHERMEIER
Joseph L Lacharmeier

ARAPAHO COUNTY

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

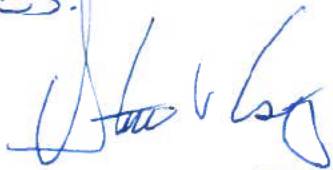

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

FURTHER - THIS PROPOSAL DOES NOT CONFORM WITH DEPT. OF DEFENSE
DIGITAL CORRESPONDENCE SECURITY MEASURES.

STUART ASAY
WESTMINSTER CO
ADAMS COUNTY

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

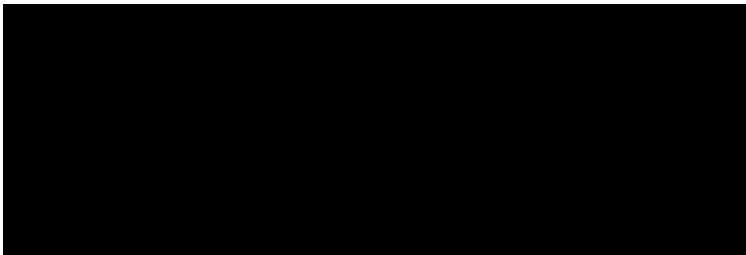

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Gene Healy

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

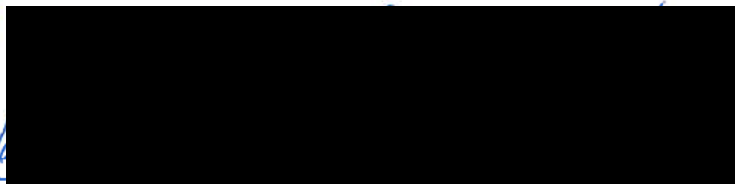

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record

Sincerely,

Joseph A Webb

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

I am a retired veteran, and was able to vote in every election between 1965-1988 - no matter where in the world I was stationed. The military has the most expert system, resulting in an average of 85% participation.

I am a retired veteran and was able to vote in EVERY election between 1965 to 1988 no matter where in the world I was stationed. The military has the most expert system and they have an average voter participation of 85%.)

*Kenneth Begank
Michael McKeown
MICHAEL MCKEOWN
NORTHGLENN, CO 80234
ADAMS COUNTY, CO*

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

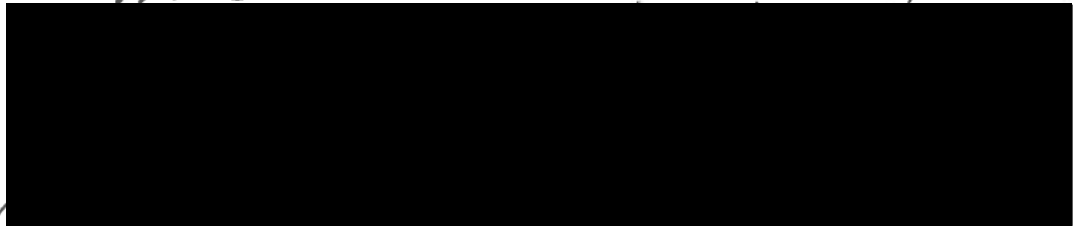

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

DAVID M PETTEY

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

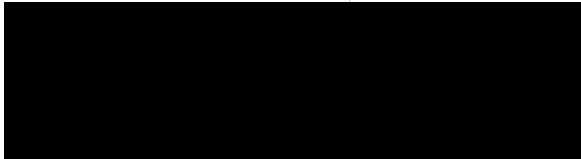

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

WILLIAM EIGLES

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read 'W. Eagles', written below the redacted area.

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

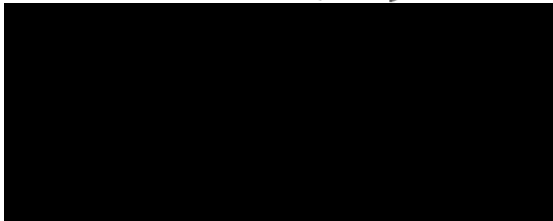

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Richard L. Garrison
Richard L. Garrison

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record

Sincerely, EVELYN ZUR

Evelyn Zur
Fairfax Co VA 22031
5/12/15
[Signature]

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

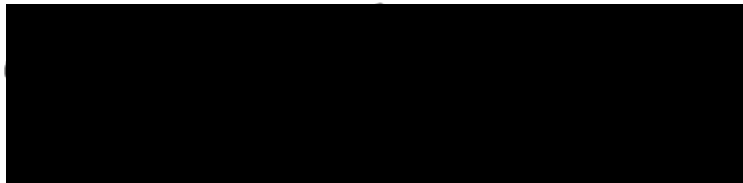

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Daniel E. Goddard

[Handwritten signature]

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

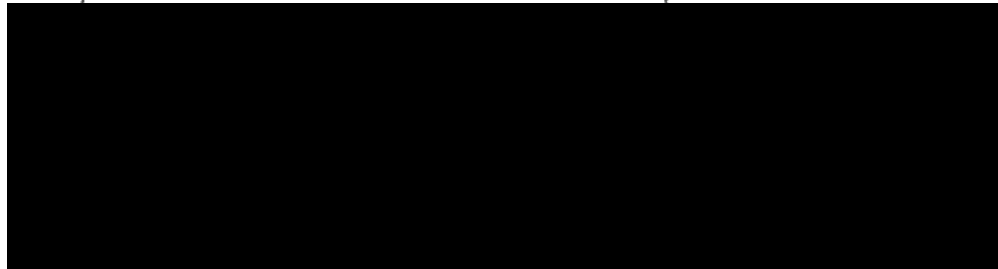

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

JANICE WEIPERT
Janice Weipert

Arapahoe County

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

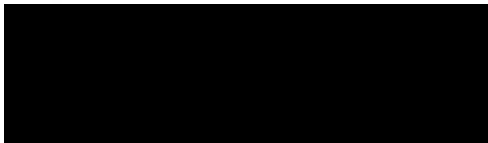

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record.
Sincerely,

STEVEN ADAMS

Steven Adams

Arapahoe

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

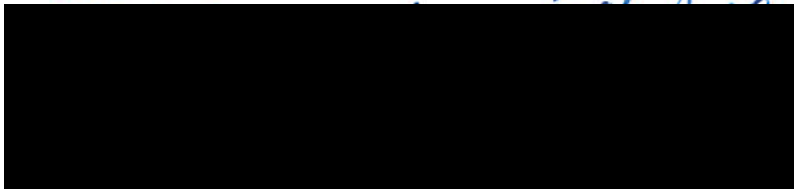

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Denise Denny
Denise Denny

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

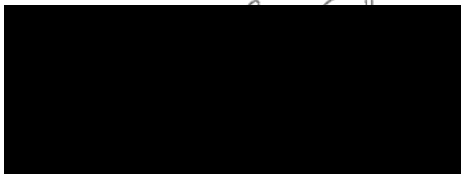

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Mary Brumder

MARY BRUMDER

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

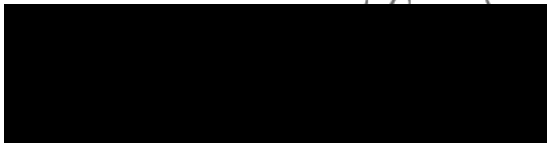

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record

Sincerely,

Steven A White
Steven A White

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Michael Thomas

MICHAEL THOMAS

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

David A Studnisko

05/12/15

no to electronic voting
Huerfano County

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

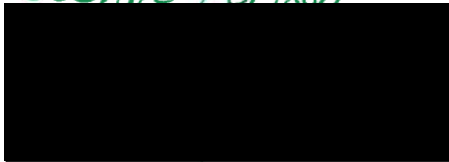

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record.
Sincerely,

Joanne Fortson
Joanne Fortson

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Fulmer - This proposal does not conform with

Dept. of DEFENCE DIGITAL Correspondence Security Measures.

*Thom Koyce
Adam Hoppener
ADAM, County Co. 80232*

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

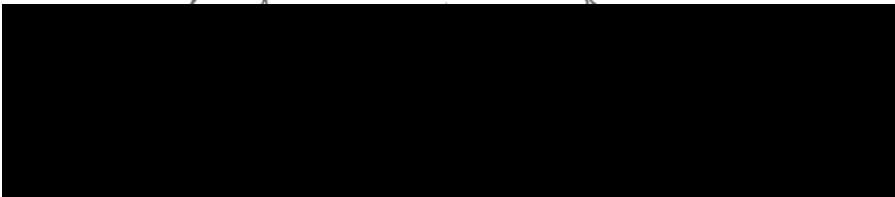

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Garry K. Kirkland

Garry K. Kirkland - Arapahoe County

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

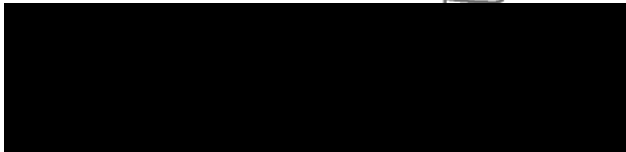

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Patrick Kennedy

Stauts

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

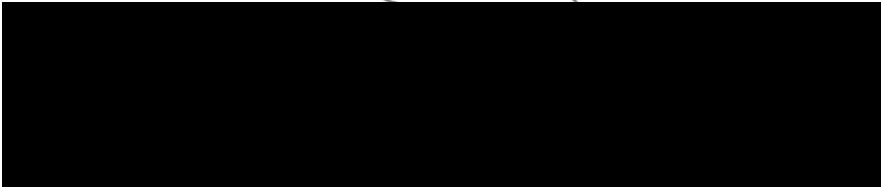

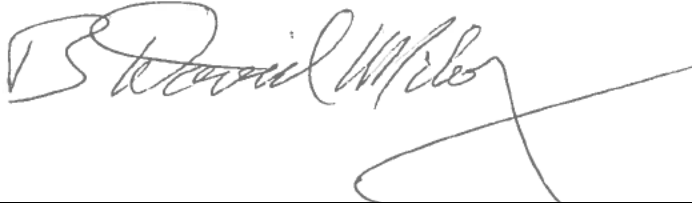

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

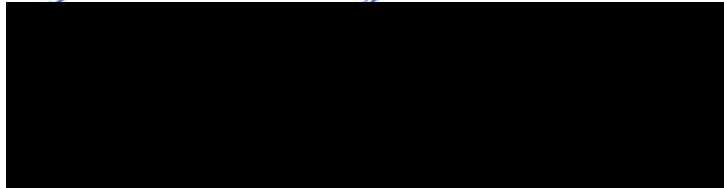

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Robert E. Jones

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

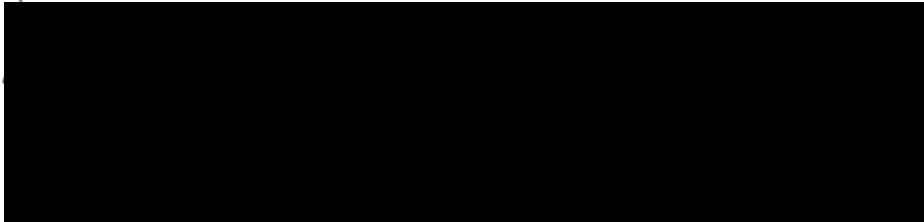

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Kandee Evans

Jefferson County

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Ed Sutton.

Jefferson County

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Ed Sutton".

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

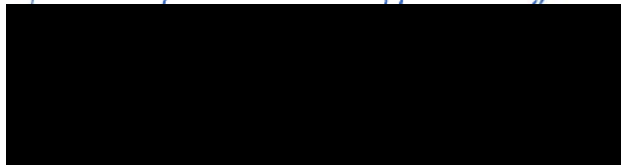

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

[Handwritten signature]
 Floyd Trujillo

Douglas

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

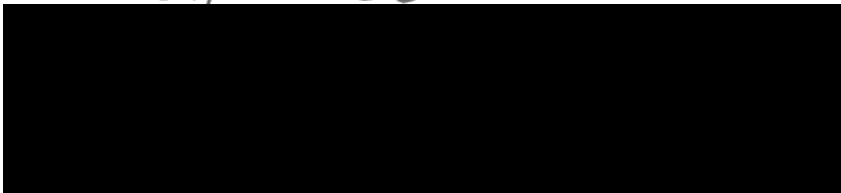

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Nancy L. Gotobed
Nancy L. Gotobed

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

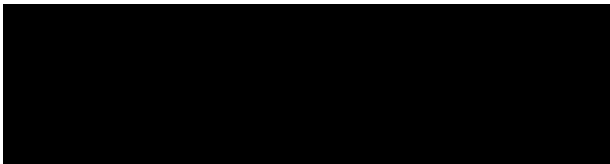

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Deborah Schneider
Deborah Schneider

Boulder City.

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

LINDA MACKETY

Linda M. Mackety

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Robert J. Radefeld

Robert J. Radefeld

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

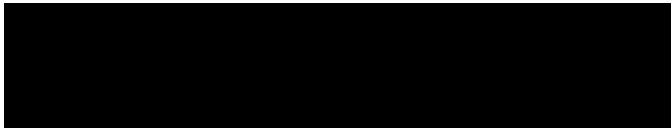

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by
President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
 2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
 3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information
and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and
possibly misreported.
 4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield
of excessive hardship measure already addressed.
- I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Scott Schneider

May 12, 2015

RECEIVED

MAY 15 2015

ELECTIONS
SECRETARY OF STATE

Wayne W. Williams, Secretary of State of Colorado
and the Review Committee on Election Rules 2015
Secretary of State's Office Phone: 303 894-2200
1700 Broadway, #200,
Denver, Colorado 80290

Dear Secretary Williams & Committee:

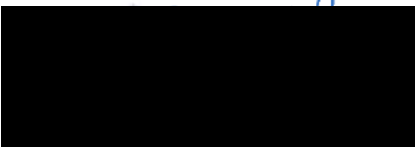

PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT RULE 16.2.1C The state legislature has dropped this bill
which is clear authority to not to proceed on this.

In addition to other states having considered a rule of this type & discarded,
because of the several problems it presents:

1. Any email computer system leaves itself open to hacking as proved by President Obama's email being hacked at the White House.
2. The people have spoken through the legislative session 2015 by their elected representatives, choosing not to pass such danger to voting integrity.
3. Third party vendor collects massive amounts of private voting information and personal identification that is open to be sold, disclosed and mismanaged and possibly misreported.
4. The military are already provided for in getting ballots 45 days prior to election day with 53 days to return with extenuating circumstances in the battlefield of excessive hardship measure already addressed.

I have signed with my printed name, address, county & zip code additionally for the record
Sincerely,

Laura Nokes Lang
Laura Nokes Lang

Adams County