

Andrea Gyger

From: Tim Cresswell [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, April 13, 2017 8:15 PM
To: SoS Rulemaking
Subject: Comments: Review CCR 1505-11 Notary Rules

I consider the necessity of keeping a notary log book with wet signatures excessive. Written details is all that is needed to verify the log.

T W Cresswell PC
Attorney Mich & Colo
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

If we enforce our existing laws denying illegals jobs and welfare, they will go home the same way they got here. No need to "knock on doors" and "round them up". No need for a fence.

PRESERVE THE INTERNET - The contents of this email is confidential and intended for the addressee(s) only. Improper disclosure or distribution injures people, is subject to civil or criminal penalties, and threatens the usefulness of the internet. Email correspondence with this firm is cost reducing and necessary to preserving communications content. They will be guarded as private and confidential to the extent reasonable, however, use of email correspondence between you and this firm has unknown risks and constitutes a waiver of unintentional or third party breach of confidentiality or privacy with respect to this firm which you hold harmless.