On this rule, Amend rules to require notaries to take a notary course and pass an exam in order to renew their commissions. In a person's busy life, taking a test every time it is time to renewal, is really not necessary as it just may go over the rules we already know. If there is a new rule/amendment, then yes we should know that but as far as taking another test, if you don't know already, you shouldn't be a notary. Just my thought.

Thank you.
