Allowing convicted felons who have not completed the terms of their sentences (e.g. serving parole or probation) is an affront to sanctity of the electoral system and the voice of the citizenry.

How does the State of Colorado vis a vis your office propose to safeguard the electoral process from unqualified and/or illicit voters? How does the State's electoral process prevent non-citizens from casting ballots? How does the State's electoral process prevent non-Colorado residents from casting ballots? A popularly elected government has no credibility if the process of electing that government is not secured.
