

To the Colorado Department of State Rulemaking Committee,

My name is Danyiell Lindoerfer Eckrich of and am also a CO notary public. I am concerned about the newly proposed laws: 2.4.1, 2.4.1(a), 2.4.1(b),and 2.4.2. As a Loan Signer, I am a Notary Public which means I follow the laws of the office of the CO Notary Public on the documents that I notarize. However, the amount of notarizations compared to the rest of my duties are minimal.

As a Signing Agent we are typically sent an invitation from a Signing Service, Title Company, Lender, Attorney or Real Estate Agent to close a package of real estate/ title/ lender documents. This invitation contains a set fee that the client is offering, the type of signing, whether or not scanbacks are required, a zipcode of the location we are to meet at and any other special services we may have to provide. It DOES NOT contain the amount of notary certificates we must complete. In fact, other than completing our notary journals and following the laws on those notarizations, we do not consider the amount of notary certificates at all.

When we accept the invitation, we are agreeing to do whatever they have specified in that invitation. This usually includes: Confirming the time with the signers (consumers), receiving documents from the client, checking the documents for errors, printing 2 sets of the documents (1 for the signing & 1 for the signer (consumer)) We then must make sure that we watch for any changes to the documents, which may require reprinting, if there are changes. This happens quite often. We then go through the documents and make sure we understand them, we don't have questions on them and we make sure we have all required CO compliant certificates in the document set. If we have questions, we immediately contact the client and ask for clarification, point out any errors and wait for the client to get back with us. We then travel to the signing (wherever the consumer requests) and meet with the signer(s). At which point we ID the signer(s), present anywhere from 50 - 350 pages, making sure that the signing is complete to the clients specifications. We notarize the documents that need it and then check all of the documents for errors or mistakes. We complete our journals and then either scan the documents back from the table or travel back to our offices, in order to scan from there. Once we scan, if required, we wait for the approval of the scans or for items they need us to fix to be able to fund. Once everything is complete and correct, we travel to the shipping company or the client to drop the documents.

This is a typical signing. What it doesn't say is that we often have to call the client from the table and have to print new/additional docs at the table (sometimes notarized and sometimes not). We stay at the signing even when the signer takes 2 or 3 hours for a 50 page document because they have to read the whole thing or because there is an issue with the document set and we have to wait for a solution. We bring pens for our signers, we make our schedules fit our signers. We make sure that our signers understand their documents and if we can't answer their questions we make sure we call someone who can.

The point I am making is that we are notaries as part of our job as Loan Signers, just as title agents are able to close documents because they are also commissioned notaries. Our fees are not based on the amount of notarizations we do. The fees are based on the going rate of a mobile closer and the essential services they provide. A Loan Signer is person who is versed in the documents that they are presenting to the signer, who makes sure that the documents are completed accurately and completely INCLUDING notarizations. We may have 10 notarizations in a package of 200 pages or we could have 4 notarizations in the same package. Our fee does not change. We are not doing general notary work and making money on each notarization. We are providing notarizations as a service WHILE we are doing entire closing packages, .

Keeping all of that in mind, we would not be able to provide the services we do currently at the high standard we keep, at the pace we can right now, if this law goes forward in the current version.

I am in agreement with OPTION 1 of the document from Land Title of Colorado which we are referring to as - “Exhibit A - LTAC Comments to SOS Proposed Rule 2.4 to 8 CCR 1505-11” dated December 18, 2023 by Penny McKelroy, CTIS, CESS President.

The ability to complete our job and do a good job for the consumers and protect their real estate transactions would be SEVERELY hampered by the law without the addition of LTOC's Option 1 - 2.4.3 AND Lindy Rich Services 2.4.4 as seen below.

2.4.3 RULE 2.4 SHALL NOT APPLY TO SERVICES PROVIDED IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE BUSINESS OF TITLE INSURANCE, AS DEFINED IN C.R.S. 10-11-102(3), TO CLOSING AND SETTLEMENT SERVICES, AS DEFINED UNDER C.R.S. 10-11-102(3.5), OR TO SETTLEMENT SERVICES, AS DEFINED UNDER C.R.S. 10-11-102(6.7).

AND

2.4.4 RULE 2.4 SHALL NOT APPLY IN INSTANCES WHERE THE NOTARY IS ENGAGED IN A FLAT-RATE ARRANGEMENT. THESE CIRCUMSTANCES PERTAIN TO SITUATIONS WHEREIN THE NOTARY IS NOT DIRECTLY ENGAGED BY A CONSUMER. IN SUCH CASES, THE NOTARY PROVIDES SERVICES ENCOMPASSING NOTARIAL CERTIFICATES, WHERE THE FEE REMAINS CONSTANT AND IS NOT CONTINGENT UPON THE NUMBER OF NOTARIAL CERTIFICATES BUT RATHER IS INCLUSIVE WITHIN THE PREDETERMINED FEE STRUCTURE.

I appreciate your time and the opportunity to write this letter and I hope that your office understands the amount of undue hardship this would place on the consumer, the loan signer and the client.

Thank you so much,
